J Jeanene Rush Pope

Our mother, J Jeanene Rush Pope left us to join our dad in heaven early the morning of October 22, 2018. She was born in Idaho Falls, Idaho on June 18, 1938 to Helen Elizabeth Halverson and Harold Jack Rush.

She spent several childhood years in Humphrey, ID before the family moved to Lima, MT. She married Ivan S Pope in March of 1958 and she became loving mom to his son Eugene (Gene) Blake Pope. They then had two daughters, Carmen and Roxanne.

Jeanene and Ivan moved several times, but somehow always landed in Lima. At times living in Challis ID, Haines AK, and Twin Bridges MT.

Jeanene completed her GED and began work at the school in Lima after returning from Alaska and buying the grocery store in Lima. She loved her work at the school and made many friends, including students who she always thought fondly of. Later she worked for the Town of Lima as clerk.

After Ivan passed in 2002, Mom moved to Belgrade, to be closer to her sister Darlene Sullivan and they spent many hours together shopping quilt stores, antique shops, taking trips and going to movies. She then moved to Butte to be closer to her daughters in 2012.

Jeanene was a loving, caring wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and sister. She always had a smile, kind word and could tease with the best!

Jeanene was preceded in death by her parents, husband Ivan, son Gene, sisters Sidona Burgess and Theresa Sanders, son in law Scott Bettle and great granddaughter Kassidy Bettle.

She is survived by her sisters Darlene Sullivan and Josephine (Bill) Goodridge, brother Martin (Georgia) Rush, daughters Carmen (George) Duck, and Roxanne (Bill) Weber. Grandsons Ivan Pope and Brian (Kelsey) Bettle, Tom Duck, Granddaughters Heather (Dale) Keiter, Elizabeth (Richie) Pierce and Kristy Bettle. Great grandchildren: Ashleigh Berns, Teagan Bettle, Silas Mayville, Britany, Ryan and Sierra Keiter, Brayden and Kinzie Bettle, Gavin and Reese Duck. Also surviving are brothers in law Wendell Lavon Pope and family, Keith Pope and family, members of Dale Pope and Ronnie Pope families, Sisters in law Gwen Horton and family, Beverly Shiner and family.

Celebration of Life gathering to be announced at a later date.

All school-aged children in Montana are invited and encouraged to participate in the 2018 YouthVote Election, which was created by the Montana Legislature in 1991.

When: Friday, November 2, 2018

Forest Service Offers Tips to Hunters

Good luck to all hunters looking for that trophy bull elk or other game animal in the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest. The Forest Service hopes you have a good hunt and offers some tips for making your hunt even more enjoyable.

here are some more tips:

Food Storage

Special rules apply for storing food and attractants throughout the Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF.

The rules say food and other "attractants" must be stored in 1) a closed, solid-sided vehicle or horse trailer, 2) in bear-resistant containers certified by the Interagency Grizzly Bear Committee (IGBC), or 3) hung 10 feet off the ground and four feet out from any tree or support pole.

If you hunt and have an animal carcass, keep it at least 100 yards from your camp, a trail, or any place people will sleep.

Between 100 yards and one-half mile from your camp, you must hang or store your animal carcass just like other items that can attract bears.

You can leave a carcass on the ground if it's at least one-half mile from camping areas and at least 200 yards from a trail. Storing carcasses in a hard-sided horse trailer 100 yards away is okay, too. Storing food out of a bear's reach keeps the bear wild and at a distance, where it belongs. No matter where you are, though, never assume that you'll never see a bear!

Hunter Safety Tips

Don't become someone our local search and rescue crews need to find. Here are some tips for your own safety on your hunt this fall:

Plan Ahead. Pick a route in advance, and leave a trip itinerary with family or friends. Always include the time when you expect to return, as well as a final time when your family or friends should assume an emergency and notify the authorities.

Be Prepared. Everyone knows that the best hunting is off the beaten path, but heading off-trail without a map is pushing your luck. The weather will change, so travel prepared for winter.

Here are the "Eleven Essentials" every hunter should carry: bear spray, map, compass, flashlight, extra food and water, extra clothes, sunglasses, first-aid kit, pocket knife, waterproof matches, and fire starter.

If you plan on drinking water from streams or lakes, don't forget a water filter or chemical purification, such as iodine tablets or chlorine drops. All of these can keep you from getting giardia and other water-borne parasites, and are available from your local outdoor store.

Your cell phone can save your life, but don't depend on having adequate coverage, especially in the remote areas of Southwest Montana. Always travel ready to spend time out in the cold, and don't assume you can be rescued quickly.

Also, ensure you have a set of chains and a shovel in case it snows. Even the most experienced drivers could get stuck in snow or icy conditions.

Learn Navigation Skills. Don't just carry a map and compass or global positioning unit (GPS)—know how to use them. Never been lost? Try pointing to your exact position on a map. If you can't then maybe it's past time to learn how.

Take a Wilderness First Aid Course. Know how to treat backcountry injuries, coordinate a self-rescue, or facilitate an organized rescue if necessary. You owe it to yourself and to your hunting partners to take a course.

Dillon's definition of protected persons

As you may or may not know, in September PFLAG Dillon proposed that the Dillon City Council expand Dillon's definition of protected persons; this would mean that no person shall be denied his or her civil rights or be discriminated against based upon actual or perceived race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, creed, sex, age, marital or familial status, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation or gender identity or expression. Upon attending the Judiciary Committee meeting about this proposal (October 16, 2018), PFLAG Dillon was made aware that many individuals do not actually understand what t it means to be LGBTQ. Moreover it seems that we (Dillon), as a whole, do not know what terms like non-binary or gender fluidity mean. Consequently, when asked to expand the definition of protected persons, there is resistance; many of us humans fear or hesitate to adopt something that we do not fully comprehend or understand. This is reasonable. As a result, PFLAG Dillon would like to provide you with just a little bit of education/insight. We have constructed a brief presentation that is available to you, at your convenience, free of charge. We are happy to come to your business, your civic organization, your church, or wherever you might have us. We would love for you to have accurate information about the LGBTQ population so that you, as a resident of Dillon or Beaverhead County, are able to make an informed decision about whether you support the expansion of protected persons. Additionally, with increased knowledge and understanding, we, as humans, have more capacity to practice kindness and treat each other with more respect in our day to day lives. If you would like to schedule a free, 30 minute, educative presentation, please email pflagdillon@gmail.com.
