Fred William Fletcher

Fred William Fletcher of Dillon, Montana, passed away on February 18, 2026, at Barrett Hospital. He was born on October 4, 1937, in Bedford, Indiana, to Fred Luther Fletcher and Jeanette Fletcher, joining his older sister Thelma Cook.

After graduating from high school, he served in the National Guard. In 1960, he married Phyllis Wampler. Together, they had two children: Fred

R. Fletcher and Susan Fletcher. He spent the majority of his career working for the U.S. Postal Service in Bloomington, Indiana.

In 1996, Fred married Edith (Hodge) Bleuer. After experiencing Montana and falling in love with it, they relocated to Dillon in 2012. He was passionate about golf, hunting, and fishing. A dedicated Christian, he most recently attended Dillon First Baptist Church. Fred was cherished by his family and numerous friends, and his absence will be deeply felt.

He is survived by his wife, son, and daughter, along with four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his father, mother, and sister.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Jasmine Kidisha Streight

05.27.1996- 02.19.2026

Jazz was a fighter from the beginning when she joined our family 2 months early on May 27th, 1996, in Salt Lake City, UT to Mandy Lyon and Tracy Streight. Jazz left our family way too early when she lost her fight with cancer Feb 19th, 2026. She gave the fight of her life and never gave up hope that she would win. She often said, "this too shall pass!"

For the first five years of her life, she grew up in Dillon, MT where her best friends were her two cousins, Kelsey and Kiley.

Then she moved to Ennis, MT and began a new adventure and graduated from High school class of 2015. She met two very important people that became like sisters when she was in first grade. The bond she made with Katie Schabarker was meant to last a lifetime, right up until she left us. Her other sister like bond was with Mickayla Yochim, they grew up next door to each other for a few years and stayed close thru high school and reconnected recently.

Jazz was blessed with other close friends and lucky enough to be in a class that truly loved each other from the beginning of the school journey through graduation and beyond.

When Jazz was 9 years old, she started another fight she would win. She lit herself on fire, got life-flighted to Salt Lake City, where she spent 14 days and 15 nights at the burn center at U of U. Jazz Fought hard to get better so she would be released in time to go see Blue Oyster Colt perform the song Godzilla at Rock in the Rivers. She always said getting burned gave her the self-esteem she always wished she had. One of her favorite things to do each summer was to go to burn camp. Her most memorable high school experience was going to Salt Lake City and seeing Big Time Rush in concert.

After graduation Jazz became a mom to Sophia and being Sophia's mom was what Jazz was meant to be. In 2020, Jazz moved to Whitehall, MT to be closer to her mom. In 2021 Jazz welcomed her second child Lincoln into her family. Lincoln truly completed her family.

Jazz was funny, even if something wasn't funny, she could make you laugh. If you were lucky enough to be part of her tribe she loved, you are wholehearted and unconditionally.

Jazz is survived by her Children Sophia and Lincoln Parton; dog Meeko; half-sister Cameo Streight; Stepsister Tonnie Lyon; mother Mandy Lyon; father Tracy Streight; great grandpa Fred McInch; Aunts Shawna (Clyde) Bellis, Lori Ford, Melody Padilla; Uncle Mark Ford; Cousins; Kelsey Smith, Kiley (Dalton) Loney, Tristen Renner, Levi Bellis, Ellamay Bellis, WD (Jean) Robinson, Jill (Rich) Ence, and Michael (Jenita) Culton; best friend Katie Schabarker; and many friends that became family.

Jazz is preceded in death by her Great Grandparents Don and Mary Colten; Grandparents Nannie Connie Coon, Laurie Coon Valerie Streight; Uncles Randy Ford and Larry Coon; Sister Kidisha Streight.

Services will be held Feb 27th, 2026, at 1pm at Brundage Funeral Home with reception to follow at Waypoint Church. Also, there will be a celebration of life in Ennis, MT on March 7th at the Silver Dollar Saloon. Please bring your favorite story and favorite dish to share. We will be having a Silent Auction in Ennis to raise money for funeral expenses.

Flathead County man sentenced in child sexual assault case

A Flathead County man was sentenced to 300 years at the Montana State Prison today for sexually abusing three children under the age of 12 from 2019 to 2021, Attorney General Austin Knudsen announced. The man will not be eligible for parole for 60 years.

Jami Leslie James, 50, was found guilty in September 2025 on six counts of sexual intercourse without consent. James was initially charged after three survivors accused him of sexually abusing them at hockey camp. James, a former hockey coach, ran development skills camps across the state. In all three cases, the minors were between 8 and 9 years old and regularly attended James' camps.

One survivor testified that James abused the children under the guise of indicating he was taking their temperature. Another victim testified that James promised that the abuse would "make him fast" like the other players. The crimes occurred in Flathead and Butte-Silver Bow Counties. James was also designated a Tier 3 sex offender.

The case was investigated by Butte-Silver Bow Law Enforcement Department, Columbia Falls Police Department, and Flathead County Sheriff's Office. Kelli Fivey and Stephanie Robles prosecuted the case, with assistance from the Butte-Silver Bow and Flathead County Attorney's offices.

Private land access is an important part of Montana's hunting heritage

Thank a Landowner portal closes March 15

Hunting is an important piece of Montana's culture. For many of us, it's not about tagging an animal, but about getting outside with family and friends and enjoying all of what makes Montana special.

Much of Montana is privately owned, and so hunting success here involves working with landowners to get access. As you reflect on last year's hunting season, it's a great opportunity to say thanks to the landowners who have provided you with access. The FWP Thank a Landowner web portal is a great way to reach out to landowners and show your gratitude for the opportunities they offer. Hunters can submit thank-you notes and photos through the portal. FWP staff will collect photos and letters and mail them to landowners this spring.

Last year, more than 600 hunters expressed their gratitude through the portal. This year we'd like to collect even more. The last day to submit a note of thanks is March 15.

We know that landowners want to hear your stories of success.

These inspiring students have provided hundreds of volunteer hours to causes close to their hearts and, in doing so, have significantly impacted their campuses and communities. By leading projects that address issues ranging from food insecurity to homelessness and substance abuse, they have mobilized their peers and brought attention to critical needs. Their dedication reflects the values of George M. Dennison, the late president of the University of Montana and one of the founding presidents of the Montana Campus Network for Civic Engagement (then Montana Campus Compact) more than thirty years ago. Dennison championed higher education as a force for civic and community engagement.

"Reading these scholarship applications is simultaneously one of the most inspiring and difficult things we do all year," said Josh Vanek with the Campus Network for Civic Engagement. "It gives me enormous hope that we have truly amazing problem solvers in every community in our state."

Lanie Crabb

Lanie serves as the Suicide Prevention and Awareness Coordinator for the PATH Program at Montana Western, planning regular campus events and collaborating with counseling services entirely on a volunteer basis. She also dedicates time to the Rural Fridays Program, supporting rural and homeschooled youth, and has maintained a 15-year family tradition of preparing Quartz Creek Cemetery for Memorial Day.

Vivian Mayers

Vivian has contributed more than 290 hours across three distinct volunteer roles: teaching preschool religious education at her parish, coaching a youth horseback drill team through Minnesota 4-H, and supporting high school athletes as a volunteer pole vault coach. Her service reflects a broad commitment to youth development spanning faith, athletics, and academics.

The George M. Dennison Civic Engagement Scholarship was established to honor President Dennison's legacy and commitment to student leadership. Each recipient receives a $1,000 scholarship. The award is presented annually to students across Montana who exhibit outstanding contributions to civic life and community while maintaining their academic studies. The scholarship has historically been supported by contributions from the Dennison family, Reach Higher Montana, and private donors.

Join Us in Celebrating These Student Leaders

We invite the public to congratulate these remarkable individuals as they continue to inspire and lead efforts to create stronger, more inclusive communities. Their achievements testify to the transformative power of civic engagement.

Support the Scholarship – The George M. Dennison Civic Engagement Scholarship relies on the generosity of donors to continue fostering civic leadership among Montana's students. Your contribution helps ensure the scholarship continues.

Contributions can be made online at supportum.org/give. Please select "Other" in the Designation Choice field and specify "George M. Dennison Civic Engagement Scholarship" in the comments field. The University of Montana Foundation manages these funds and supports students across all affiliated institutions.

For more information or questions about the scholarship, please contact MCNCE at info@mtengage.org.

FICK FACULTY SPEAKER SERIES

THE UNIVERSITY of MONTANA WESTERN

DR. JOSEPH EASON
PROFESSOR OF MATHEMATICS

The University of Montana Western is proud to announce the second event in the "Fick Faculty Speaker Series", celebrating faculty innovation across teaching, research, and scholarship.

The upcoming presentation will feature Dr. Joe Eason, who will share how he engages students in mathematics and science through course-based research projects.

His work includes student investigations into how ant worker decision-making leads to ecological changes at the Hogsback, along with newly launched projects using student-collected data to analyze astronomical phenomena.

THURSDAY, MARCH 5
5:30 PM | ANDRUS HOTEL GATHERING PLACE

The Fick Faculty Speaker Series is more than a lecture series—it is a bridge between campus and community. By highlighting innovative faculty work, the series fosters collaboration, celebrates experiential learning, and reflects Montana Western's commitment to student success.
