HUNTERS AGAINST HUNGER

Sen. Kendall Van Dyk and Rep. Jeff Welborn propose bipartisan "Hunters Against Hunger" Bill

Two state lawmakers, a Democrat and a Republican, have introduced a bill to create a voluntary program allowing Montana hunters to help end hunger.

Sen. Kendall Van Dyk (D-Billings) and Rep. Jeff Welborn (R-Dillon) introduced SB 123, giving hunters the ability to donate $1 or more to help end hunger when applying for their big game license fee. This money will in turn be used for the processing of any wild game that is donated to this program for the benefit of food banks and shelters.

"This is the kind of solution that makes Montana a better place to live, work, hunt, fish and raise a family," said Van Dyk, the bill's primary sponsor and a lifelong hunter. "Montanans don't care if ideas are Democratic or Republican, they want us to work together for common-sense solutions that make a real difference in their daily lives. This bill does just that."

SB 123 builds upon successful voluntary donation programs by directly connecting Montana's hunters to help those in need. It also enables hunters to expand their own hunting opportunities beyond their need to fill the freezer.

"As both a property owner and hunter, I wholeheartedly support this effort to work together to find a real solution to end the hunger many Montanans face," said Welborn. "This will also help many landowners with an extra tool for reducing the large population of deer and elk on some private land, and in turn create an avenue for hunters to put the extra hunting opportunity to use for a great cause. It is also a way for the public to get involved in a voluntary way, without costing the tax payer a dime." The House sponsor also said, "What we have here is an opportunity to put hunger in the cross hairs of every person who buys a hunting license."

Van Dyk and Welborn have pledged to work together with the Fish, Wildlife and Parks Department, food banks, shelters, and meat processors, as well as hunters and landowners across the state to promote the program and raise public awareness for a great program.

The 2012 Montana Food Bank Network Client Hunger Survey shares that over 14.5% of Montanans are currently dealing with food insecurity across the state. Van Dyk had a similar bill in 2011, which passed overwhelmingly through the Senate but failed to pass the House FWP committee. Van Dyk and Welborn said they remain confident the support is there this session to pass the measure.

Van Dyk's bill was heard Thursday (January 17th) in the Senate Fish and Game committee.

BIG BROTHER??

Have you heard about the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's (NTSA's) latest plan?

They are proposing the implementation of a new law that would basically require ALL passenger cars and trucks manufactured after September 2014 be equipped with a "black box," similar to what's currently installed on airplanes.

These boxes could be capable of tracking things like speed, location, number of passengers, etc.

It's not clear exactly how these "black boxes" would be used, but it's important to note that this IS NOT something that has to pass through Congress...

The NTSA has full authority to change vehicle requirements on their own, and they're scheduled to make their final decision, later this year.

GO RED FOR A HEALTHY HEART!

February is designated as American Heart Month! Heart Disease is the leading cause of death for women in America! It is more deadly than all forms of cancer. There are many scary facts about heart disease. For example, heart disease kills one in three women each year. Warning signs for heart disease vary between men and women. 90% of women have one or more risk factors for developing heart disease. (goredforwomen.org.)

Heart disease is caused by many things. One cause is the hardening of the arteries in the heart otherwise known as atherosclerosis. This is a condition in which the build-up in the heart makes it more difficult for blood to flow through that can ultimately cause a heart attack or stroke. Another leading cause of heart disease is heart failure or congestive heart failure (CHF), in which case the heart still works but not properly and typically does not get enough oxygen. Another common cause of heart disease is arrhythmia or an abnormal heart rhythm. This means that the heart can be beating too fast or too slow.

It is important to be aware if you have any of the potential risk factors for heart disease. High cholesterol is a known risk factor and puts you at a higher risk for heart disease or a stroke. Keep your cholesterol goal to have your total cholesterol less than 200mg/dl and your "good" cholesterol your HDL 50mg/dl or higher. Diabetes is another major risk factor for heart disease. Many people who are diagnosed with diabetes are also diagnosed with high blood pressure or high cholesterol which puts them at an even higher risk. A family history of diabetes also makes someone more susceptible. If you have diabetes, take the time to work with your provider and have regular checkups to manage your diabetes and control any other risk factors.

Last, but definitely not least, high blood pressure is a common risk factor for heart disease. High blood pressure is known as the "silent killer" because there really are no symptoms. High blood pressure is not curable but is easy to manage. Normal blood pressure is considered to be less than 120mmhg (Systolic) and less than 80mm/hg (Diastolic).

Prevention is possible! There are many things you can do to prevent heart disease. Quit smoking if you are a smoker. It is never
