WELBORN'S WEEKLY LEGISLATIVE REVIEW

Our Speaker of the House, Representative Mark Blasdel, began his term by saying he wanted to make the session more about work, and less about political gamesmanship. A position that I share wholeheartedly. As we are through our second week, I'm happy to report that there seems to be a tone already set to do just that.

HB 73 A Wolf Management Bill co-sponsored by Representatives Flynn and Washburn made it's way out of the FWP committee 21-0 and Second reading in the House on a historic 100-0 margin. Some of the key components of this legislation are multiple licenses, reducing the waiting period from 5 days to 24 hours to harvest a wolf after tag is purchased, the legal use of mechanical calls, cost reduction of non-resident licenses, and we've eliminated the FWP commission's ability to set no kill zones around Yellowstone and Glacier Parks. This bill is a big step in managing a species that is problematic for both livestock producers and wildlife managers. It's the view of many that this will help reduce numbers of the species, but will do it in a way that won't trigger unnecessary oversight by the federal government, or put Montana back in danger of having the species returned to the endangered species list. I encourage calls and letters to the Senate Fish and Game committee to seek their support as this bill works it's way through the Senate. As Chair Fish Wildlife and Parks, I want to thank the entire committee for their tireless efforts, and want to also compliment both co-sponsors for bringing together key pieces of this bill and working together for the benefit of both the livestock industry, and big game herds in Montana.

Front and center this session are also proposals to repair the state pension system are working their way through the process. As many of you know, the state government has made promises in the past that we are faced with honoring. Because of poor performance in recent years from money markets, coupled with questionable policy decisions from past administrations, the account that pays those pensions is in financial trouble. We must fix this going forward however that may be, but bottom line is we must honor all promises already made.

A House/ Senate joint sub-committee has been set up to work on the pension fund shortfall during this session. I will go on record as saying "addressing the shortfall in Montana's pension fund is one of our most important duties this session".

Also on the horizon is a big step in long term property tax reform. I also look forward to reporting on that as it works it's way through the process.

I will be in touch in the coming weeks as these and other policy decisions are being debated, and how it affects those of you at home. Please get in touch with me with any questions or concerns via e-mail at jeffwelborn@hotmail.com

JOSEY CREGER REPEATS SW A DIVISIONAL CHAMPION AND DAVID GRIFFIN CROWNED IN EXPOSITORY.

The Beaverhead County High School Speech, Debate, Drama team hosted the SW A Divisional Tournament on Saturday, January 19th. Teams from Hamilton, Corvallis, Stevensville, and Butte Central attended.

The BCHS team did very well and most of the students qualified for the state tournament in Havre which begins on Friday, January 24th. The state champions will be crowned on Saturday evening. The top six finalists in each event automatically qualify for state with some students qualifying as alternates David Griffin was crowned divisional Expository champion, having very strong preliminary scores which continued into the final round. "I am so pleased for David, he has worked toward this for 4 years and all of the hard work paid off this weekend. I hope he carries this into the state tournament," Coach Maria Hansen stated. Casey Bauer also had very strong preliminary rounds ranking first place in each and a strong final round to finish 3rd for the day.

Elizabeth Griffin placed second in the serious solo event. She had a great day, competing well and finishing strong. "Biz is such a hard worker and does very well; this year is her time to shine at state," says Hansen. The champion in this event was Karissa Chouinard (granddaughter of Fred Chouinard, BCHS Principal).

Freshman Sienna Mark placed fourth in original oratory, Josey Creger repeated as the serious solo champion also winning as a freshman. "Josey is such a bright and confident young woman. We will see her name in lights one day," stated Coach Hansen. Samantha Sloan placed third place in this event. This was her highest finish this year, securing her place at the state meet. Elizabeth Ostler placed fifth to qualify as well. Serious Solo acting is always a very competitive event with the most entries at this meet with 12 competitors. It was great to have all of these young women qualify.

Adam Waldorf and Cameron Wentz earned their way into the state tournament by finishing second in a strong group of humorous duo competitors. This will be Adam's fourth trip to the state tournament but his first in drama. Curen Feliciani and Jennifer Womack finished in the seventh place spot, and advanced to next weekend as well.

Tea Gibson and Jade D'Esposito qualified for their second state tournament by placing fifth in the classical theatre category.

Corey Renfree competed in humorous duo, and will attend as an alternate, and Zhawn Kepp competed in impromptu.

The speech team placed fourth and the drama team third.

BEAVERHEAD RECYCLING KICKS OFF 2013

Bringing free plastic and cardboard recycling to Dillon and hosting two e-waste collection dates were Beaverhead Recycling's highlights for 2012. It also raised money for local recycling initiatives with a Great Harvest Bake Day, selling reusable Chico grocery bags and offering recycled Christmas wrapping over the holidays.

On Tuesday, January 29, at 6 p.m., Beaverhead Recycling will hold it's first meeting of 2013 in the basement of the Dillon Public Library. The meeting is open to the public and the organization would love to have volunteers as it continues to improve recycling opportunities in Dillon.

For more information, please contact Mandy Maass at 406-925-2211. And remember to reduce, reuse and recycle.

2013 MONTANA BOYS STATE

American Legion Boys State

The 2013 session of Montana American Legion Boys State will be held from 12:00 noon Sunday, June 9, through Friday, June 14, on the Carroll College campus in Helena.

American Legion Boys state is for young men who possess outstanding qualities of leadership, character, integrity, and scholarship who have completed their junior year of high school. Young men who attend Boys State learn leadership skills and how state and local governments work. Some former Boys State participants include famous graduates such as Neil Armstrong, Tom Brokaw, Bill Clinton, and Michael Jordan.

American Legion Post No. 20 at Dillon urges all eligible junior boys to consider attending this important program at Carroll College in June. It is more important than ever for young Americans to understand how our government works and what makes it a force for freedom and liberty for all.

Young men who are interested in participating in this outstanding leadership program must apply on line. Deadline for applying is Monday, May 20th. Application information and the email address are available at the guidance counselor's office at Beaverhead County High School. There is no cost to students participating in Boys State.

1ST ANNUAL MONTANA TAKEDOWN TOURNAMENT

January 20, 2013 at the Belgrade Event Center Hosted by the Bozeman Hawk Wrestling Club.

Takedowns and push outs were each worth 1 point. After points were awarded, the clock stopped and the wrestlers were placed back into the neutral position. If a wrestler gained 10-point lead on an opponent at any time during the match, it resulted as a technical fall and the match ended. Matches consisted of one 3-minute period for PeeWee and Bantam wrestlers and one 5-minute period for all other divisions.

The Internal Revenue Service has released updated income-tax withholding tables for 2013.

The updated tables, issued after President Obama signed the changes into law, show the new rates in effect for 2013 and supersede the tables issued on December 31, 2012. The newly revised version of Notice 1036 contains the percentage method income-tax withholding tables and related information that employers need to implement these changes.

In addition, employers should also begin withholding Social Security tax at the rate of 6.2 percent of wages paid following the expiration of the temporary two-percentage-point payroll tax cut in effect for 2011 and 2012. The payroll tax rates were not affected by this week's legislation.

Employers should start using the revised withholding tables and correct the amount of Social Security tax withheld as soon as possible in 2013, but not later than Feb. 15, 2013. For any Social Security tax under-withheld before that date, employers should make the appropriate adjustment in workers' pay as soon as possible, but not later than March 31, 2013.
