BEAVERHEAD OUTDOORS ASSOCIATION

Get to know your Beaverhead Outdoors Association, it's members, and what we do in Beaverhead County. Most locals recognize us as the keepers of the Kid's Fish Pond. That is indeed true, and we are proud of the progress we have made there over the years. This year we need to add some extra picnic tables, which will be a bit more modern and handicap accessible.

Many local residents, however, have no idea of how much work our members do during the rest of the year. The BOA represents what we consider to be the conservative or common sense views of Beaverhead County residents. We write letters, send e-mails, attend meetings, make donations, and basically communicate with state representatives, Montana Fish Wildlife & Parks, and federal representatives. We have taken part in the wolf, bison, and other wildlife issues, as well as water issues, renewable resource issues, private property issues, and other issues that most residents care about, but lack time to get involved. We prescribe to publications that give us more detailed information on issues that are overlooked or ignored in most publications.

When Jon Tester went back to Washington, and was telling the press how everyone in southwest Montana agreed with his so-called Jobs & Recreation Bill, the BOA put together over 140 pages of letters and oppositions, which were e-mailed to over 25 committee members that were to view Tester's bill. We believe that those documents were very important in stopping that bill. We know that the fight for public access over wilderness areas is not over, but we will continue to face those issues as long as possible. Everyone needs to be aware and involved in these plans or the entire Beaverhead/Deerlodge Forest will be roadless.

In order to have the resources necessary to keep our organization active, we count on our annual banquet/fundraiser, which will be this Saturday at the Elks Lodge. We continue to request donations for our auctions. If you have any item(s) that you'd like to donate, you may deliver them to the Elks on Saturday, or call 683-4745 for a pick-up.

Thanks for your support.

J. Darrell Johnson. VP BOA

CHANGES FOR TAX RETURN PREPARERS

On Friday afternoon, January 18, 2013, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia handed down a decision granting permanent injunctive relief to the plaintiffs in the Sabina Loving, et. al. v. Internal Revenue Service, et. al. case challenging the validity of the new regulatory scheme for "registered tax return preparers" brought under recent changes to Circular 230. The plaintiffs were successful in getting the Court to stop the IRS from enforcing this registration regime on tax return preparers.

Judge James E. Boasberg stated that the RTRP regulatory regime was invalid and a threat to the plaintiffs' livelihood. Further, the IRS' rules in this regard are "Ultra Vires", a legal term meaning "beyond the powers." That term is used in referring to an activity that exceeds the powers granted to the person engaging in that activity.

The decision was a surprise to the industry and the Internal Revenue Service has yet to make a single comment regarding the case or its intentions regarding any further pursuit of the case. Since today is a holiday honoring the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr., government offices are closed and the IRS is still unavailable for comment.

What does this mean for you? It means that tax return preparers who have not yet taken the competency test do NOT have to take it. It means that tax return preparers who are not CPAs, attorneys or EAs do not have to take continuing education courses. It means that tax return preparers who are not CPAs, attorneys or EAs do not have to register as RTRPs with the IRS. It means that the industry goes back to the way things were in 2009, before the Tax Return Preparer Initiative was launched with the following exception: you still must obtain your PTIN and renew it annually.

DIVINE COMMAND

Submitted by Chuck Dishno

If the citizens neglect their duty and place unprincipled men in office, the government will soon be corrupted. ... If a republican government fails to secure public prosperity and happiness, it must be because the citizens neglect the Divine commands, and elect bad men to make and administer the laws." --Noah Webster, History of the United States

FOREVER STAMP HONORS MUSLIM HOLIDAY

The new USPS 46¢ Forever Stamp celebrates Muslim holidays Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha.

The EID stamp is a 2001 Holiday Series Stamp. It was introduced by the United States Postal Service as part of its Holiday Celebrations Series on September 1, 2001, just ten days before the September 11 terrorist attacks on New York and Washington. It has been reissued at updated first-class postage rates in 2002, 2006, 2008, 2009, and most recently as a Forever Stamp in 2011.

The EID stamps are generally a specialty item sold only to postal customers who specifically request them.

The American greeting card manufacturer Hallmark produces a variety of holiday cards celebrating Eid al-Fitr.

MARCH PHEASANT FEST

The Beaverhead Chapter of Pheasants Forever (PF) and Hagenbarth Livestock Shooting Preserve will bring Beaverhead county a host of Pheasant activities in March. Pheasants Forever's 5th Fundraiser banquet will be March 2, 2013 followed by an Upland Safety/Youth Hunt Day on March 9 and the 3rd Annual Hagenbarth Pheasant Charity Shoot, wraps up the Fest on March 16, 2013.

PF's Prime Rib fund raiser dinner March 2nd, will be held at the University of Montana Western Lewis & Clark room, starting at 5:30 PM. This annual banquet is the local PF Chapter's primary activity for fund raising. These monies stay local in support of the Chapter's Poindexter Slough pheasant habitat project and youth education/safety activity combined with an upland youth hunt.

This year's local Youth Hunt is cosponsored by the Beaverhead Chapter of Pheasants Forever and Hagenbarth Livestock Shooting Preserve. The hunt will be on the preserve March 9th, starting at 8:30am. The day's activities include a Hunter Safety review specific to upland hunting, some clay trap time and a field hunt with PF mentors and their dogs.

The Hagenbarth Pheasant Charity Shoot and Raffle March 16th, will benefit the Humane Society of the Beaverhead and will be on the 1280 acre Hagenbarth Livestock Shooting Preserve, just off Hwy 15 N, in Glen. The Charity Shoot will start promptly at 8:00 am. 15 - 3 man teams plus man's best friend will be given 10 shells per member and up to 30 minutes to move through a course holding 10 pheasants per team. Lowest team time, least shells and amount of birds bagged, wins 1st, 2nd and 3rd place cash prizes. Raffle tickets are also available for anyone to purchase in advance at Rocky Mountain Supply and Murdock's. Raffle winners do not need to be present to win.

The March Fest is in support of the local community and all proceeds stay local. Additionally, to leverage the stay local initiative, the Beaverhead PF Chapter has developed a novel option for raising donations. The Chapter in partnership with the Dillon Business Builders and Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce offers event sponsors the opportunity to purchase, from a "Beaverhead Chapter 2013 Underwriting Book", local business and artisans goods and services. Sponsors considering underwriting the cost of an item from the book, for the banquet auction will in a sense be allowing community dollars to be spent twice. First to the benefit of the local merchant or artisan and secondly that item will be auctioned at the banquet raising funds for enhancing local upland education and habitat.

Individuals and business who wish to support the March Pheasant Fest beneficiaries (our local Humane Society, youth and habitat) as well as local merchants, artisans, or under right or donate to an event are encouraged to contact the following. Those interested in signing up for the Youth Hunt, purchasing banquet tickets and teaming up for the Charity Shoot, can also contact the following.
Call: 660-0971, 683-2230, or 683-3864 for the Youth Hunt and Banquet March 9th & 2nd; 406-835-2312 for the Charity Shoot March 16th.
