BOOK SIGNINGS SCHEDULED

Donna Sorenson-Nolte is announcing the publishing of her book, HAZEL. She published her book through Xlibris on January 15, 2013.

Donna was born and raised in Dillon and currently lives in Twin Bridges with her husband of 22 years and her 2 golden retrievers.

Being a Christian for a great part of her life, she felt the need to write a book about love, laughter, grief, forgiveness and hope. She has had many people read the book so far on e-book, plus a lot of people ordering the book with Debbie at the Book Store. She has had 5 star and very positive reviews.

Donna plans to have book signings:

The Sheridan Library on Saturday February 9th, from 11:00A.M. to 1:00P.M.

The Twin Bridges Library on Sunday February 10th, from Noon to 2:00P.M.

The Dillon Book Store in Dillon on Saturday February 16th, from 1:00P.M. to 3:00P.M. (For all my Dillon friends, neighbors, readers, and Christians.) Debbie is planning a great time and doing lots of work for this event! Please come and join the fun! We will be looking forward to seeing you there! The book will not be sold until after the book signing.

THE FIRST SHAGGY DOG STORY

In the days of the knights, a midget told his king that he, too, wanted to be a knight. Too small, said the king. But the determined midget went about the kingdom, catching highwaymen and rescuing maidens, until the news got back to the king. "All right," said the king, "I dub thee knight."

Special miniature armor was hammered out for him. A galley knife was honed into a sword, but no horse little enough enough was found. So the kin substituted a large shaggy dog and the midget went forth again to do good.

A terrible rainstorm came up. He rode to a nearby inn, but the innkeeper said there was no more room. The midget pointed out how little space he'd take up. The innkeeper looked him over, and his mount, too, both soaked to the skin, and finally said, "Come on in. We'll find a spot for you. I couldn't send a knight out on a dog like this.

The Honorable Barack Obama
President of the United States of America
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear President Obama:

We, the elected sheriffs of Utah, like so many of our fellow Americans, are literally heartbroken for the loved ones of the murdered victims in Connecticut. As Utahans, we are not strangers to this kind of carnage—one of the latest being the 2007 Trolley Square murders wherein nine innocents were gunned down—five losing their lives.

We also recognize the scores of other recent domestic massacres, which have decimated countless honorable lives. As Americans, we value the sanctity of life. Furthermore, similar to our inspired Founders, we acknowledge our subservience to a higher power.

With the number of mass shootings America has endured, it is easy to demonize firearms: it is also foolish and prejudiced. Firearms are nothing more than instruments, valuable and potentially dangerous, but instruments nonetheless. Malevolent souls, like the criminals who commit mass murders, will always exploit valuable instruments in the pursuit of evil. As professional peace officers, if we understand nothing else, we understand this: lawful violence must sometimes be employed to deter and stop criminal violence. Consequently, the citizenry must continue its ability to keep and bear arms, including arms that adequately protect them from all types of illegality.

As your administration and Congress continue to grapple with the complex issue of firearm regulations, we pray that the Almighty will guide the People's Representatives collectively. For that reason, it is imperative this discussion be had in Congress, not silenced unilaterally by executive orders. As you deliberate, please remember the Founders of this great nation created the Constitution, and its accompanying Bill of Rights, in an effort to protect citizens from all forms of tyrannical subjugation.

We respect the Office of the President of the United States of America. But, make no mistake, as the duly-elected sheriffs of our respective counties, we will enforce the rights guaranteed to our citizens by the Constitution. No federal official will be permitted to descend upon our constituents and take from them what the Bill of Rights—in particular Amendment II—has given them. We, like you, swore a solemn oath to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, and we are prepared to trade our lives for the preservation of its traditional interpretation.

Many letters like this one from Utah, have been sent to President Obama and Vice President Biden.

In Montana sheriffs from Powell, Deer Lodge, Ravalli, Wibaux and Sanders counties join about 60 sheriffs nationwide refusing to enforce any "unconstitutional" federal gun regulations.

The federal government is exploiting deaths of innocent victims by advocating for laws that prevent innocent gun owners from possessing certain firearms and ammunition magazines. A stand has been taken not to allow or tolerate the actions of criminals to dictate the establishment of laws that infringe on the liberties of law abiding citizens.

Gary Marbut, president of the Montana Shooting Sports Association has promoted a bill to prohibit state enforcement of new gun or ammunition laws statewide. He also champions the "Sheriff's First" legislation that would prohibit certain federal law enforcement actions without the local sheriff's approval.

DILLON GIRLS BLOW PAST CORVALLIS

The Dillon girls had a slow start and were behind at the end of the first quarter 6-5 on their home court Saturday afternoon. The Beavers hit eight three pointers to blow them past Corvallis outscoring them 23-9 in the second half of the game to have a solid win 41-19.

The Beavers got two 3 pointers each from Jannett Moore and Rachael Nye and were led by Courtney Linder with three from outside and a total of 15 for the afternoon. Audry Schurg added 5, Kayla Meine put in 3, Shay Parke 2, Sierra Lame another 2 and Holley Anderson added 2.

DILLON WINS ON THE ROAD

The Beaver boys say an early lead hard to hang on to and watched Janon Jessop of Corvallis put 24 points through the net. In the end, the Beavers won the battle 59-50 Saturday afternoon in Corvallis. The Beavers ended the first quarter with a spanking of 18-1, but Jessop got hot and of those points there were seven three pointers.

Dillon top scorers were Boyd Jenne 17 points, Troy Scott netted 15 and Ben Folsom was able to knock down another 10 for the Beavers.

The Beavers will be on the road again Tuesday night.

Thank you for the combat zone in Chicago. Of course, they're all blaming each other.

Chicago school system rated one of the worst in the country. State pension fund $78 Billion in debt, worst in country. Cook County ( Chicago ) sales tax 10.25% highest in country. This is the political culture that Obama comes from in Illinois. And he is going to 'fix' Washington politics for us??? I fear for this (our) country.

MISSOURI BILL DEMANDS PARENTS REPORT GUN OWNERSHIP TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS

JEFFERSON CITY - Any parent who owns a firearm would be required to notify their child's school in writing under legislation proposed in the Missouri Senate.

The bill, introduced by University City Democratic Sen. Maria Chappelle-Nadal, would make it a crime to fail to report gun ownership to a school.
