LT. GOV. JOHN WALSH TO TOUR UMW MAIN HALL IN SUPPORT OF HOUSE BILL 14

On Thursday, Feb. 7, Montana Lt. Gov. John Walsh will be on the University of Montana Western campus to tour Montana Western's iconic first building, Main Hall, which was renovated with over $10 million in state funding authorized by the Montana Legislature in 2007 and 2009.

A bill before the 2013 Montana Legislature would include $4 million in funding for the final phase of the Main Hall renovation.

House Bill 14 would fund nearly $100 million dollars in building projects for several Montana University System campuses. The bill was sponsored by Rep. Galen Hollenbaugh (D). Gov. Steve Bullock supports the bill and is currently working to amend the bill to call it the Jobs and Opportunities by Building Schools (JOBS) bill. The bill includes projects from the Long Range Building Program (LRBP).

Lt. Gov. Walsh will tour Main Hall and give a brief address at 11 a.m. in the Beier Auditorium Lobby on the second floor of Main Hall. The public is invited to attend.

The Main Hall Final Phase would focus on the 1924 and 1954 sections of the building to completely update mechanical, electrical, seismic and plumbing systems as well as to bring the building into compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The final phase would also improve the building's energy efficiency.

Welborn's Weekly Legislative Review

As the fourth week of the Legislative Session draws to a close, we've seen a couple of lively debates and emotional hearings, that is just part of this process. I will however say that this session seems to be an environment where more are committed to doing the people's work and less about partisan divides.

I'm hopeful everyone will continue down this path as the session continues. This same sentiment seemed to be the theme of the Governor'n State of the State address on Wednesday night.

On a personal note, I'm standing behind Senator Barrett as a co-sponsor to her SB 180, an act to REPEAL the Eminent Domain legislation passed during the 2011 legislative session. The 2011 measure, as I heard from literally hundreds of you right here in this district, which ignores the rights of private property owners, and in turn gives an un-fair advantage to power line developers. I'm all about energy development in our state, but not when developers no longer have to step up and negotiate a fair and just compensation on rights of way across private property. We are simply asking our legislative colleagues to join us in giving property owners a level playing field once again.

Another piece of legislation that I'm co-sponsoring is Senator Jones' education bill, SB 175. I always have and continue to support any notion that puts funding directly to the class room, letting teachers teach, administrators do their job, letting the legislature do our job, and be accountable to the property tax rate payer, and use our vast natural resources as a funding component. Wyoming, as we all agree has great facilities, great teachers, and funding from natural resources to accomplish all the above, while graduating students that have a quality education. I would submit, we have every bit if not better teachers, and students that are primed to learn, now perhaps we will have the benefit of natural resources to bring all of this together. I look forward to the debate as this moves through the process. But again, I'm proud to have my signature on this groundbreaking piece of legislation.

Finally, let's talk about some of the ideas floating around about property tax relief. There is some talk about a one-time rebate for some property tax payers. That's a great start, but it leaves me with one question. What about folks who rent? Not everyone in Montana is a homeowner. Not all of us pay property taxes. But every Montanan deserves some tax relief. I'm supporting proposals to create both permanent property tax relief that will have a lasting impact on our state, but in addition to that, I'm also in favor of a measure that gives everyone in Montana some relief on their income taxes as well. I feel the best way to rebate back to the tax payer is to not collect the money in the first place.

On Monday 2-04, I introduced a piece of legislation HB 87 that would give the Insurance Commissioner in Montana the authority to review health insurance rates. We are only one of two states in the nation that doesn't have this mechanism in place, we also have one of the highest rates for health insurance. It's the belief of many that with this authority to review rates, premiums in Montana will come down just like all other states that have enacted this type of legislation. I also feel its asserts more local control. Currently if a person wants to have rates reviewed in Montana, the only recourse is calling a number in Washington D.C. If we can get this passed in Montana, it would make available our own insurance commissioner to answer that call.

I look forward to continue hearing what's on your mind, please call or e-mail me.

BEAVERHEAD SEARCH AND RESCUE

The Beaverhead County Sheriff's Office received a report from Alison Welborn of Dillon, February 2, 2013 at approximately 10:30 o'clock p.m., that her husband Travis had gone coyote hunting on his snowmobile earlier in the day and had text messaged her that he had ran out of gasoline. Travis told his wife that he was walking back to his truck and would be home around 9:00 o'clock p.m..

When Travis hadn't returned home, Alison contacted a family member who, with the help of friends, located Welborn's truck at Monida. Beaverhead Search and Rescue was dispatched and set up a command post in Monida where searchers followed Welborn's tracks from his truck to his snowmobile in the Centennial Valley. Searchers then followed the direction of Welborn's tracks away from his sled to a self-made snow cave where they found Welborn at approximately 5:30 o'clock a.m., Sunday morning, south east of the Lima Dam. Welborn was in good condition.

THE END IS FINALLY HERE

By Deb Pierce

Last night was the last night for the local bowling alley. The bowling alley has been closed for the past few years due to poor management when the Pioneer Federal Savings and Loan took possession of it. They agreed to let the Minor League keep bowling to finish their season. Kevin Button purchased the property and agreed to let the league continue until he sold the property. He had no interest in a bowling alley.

The Ned and Eva Newton opened this bowling alley in 1959 called Ned and Eva Lanes, it was later in years leased by one of their sons and then sold to Barney & Sue Lawton, then turned over to their daughter Jennifer and husband Rob.

Mr. Button has sold the entire contents of the bowling center to a bowling alley in Deer Lodge. They have been taking the contents out the last few days and expect to have it gutted by Sunday. Kevin is in Contract with the Family Dollar store out of Idaho. Their intentions are to have the building torn down and erect a new one in its place. There may be some delay in this process due to the asbestos in the building.

If anyone has their balls still there they need to contact, James Valach right away or they will be gone.

This is a very sad day for many, not only for those who bowled every week, but also for the youth of Dillon. One can only pray that some investors take interest in our youth, adults and our town then come build a new bowling center.

FAMILY NIGHT / SOCK HOP

Due to kitchen repairs, family night on Feb. 7 and the Sock Hop that was Feb. 9 at the Dillon Elks have been cancelled. The Sock Hop will be rescheduled at a later date.

Thanks

NORTHERN ROCKIES TREE SCHOOL TO BE HELD IN DILLON IN SEPTEMBER

The Dillon Tree Board, City of Dillon and Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation will host the Northern Rockies Tree School in Dillon on September 19 and 20th, 2013. The school will take place at the UM Western campus in the Lewis and Clark room.

The Tree School is a biannual event for arborists, municipality workers, tree companies, ground workers, extension agents, students, agency personnel and anyone who is interested in trees and Urban Forestry. The keynote speaker for the school is Edward F. Gilman from the University of Florida who wrote the International Society of Arborists pruning book, An Illustrated Guide to Pruning. The theme of the school is "Risky Business" "Tree Risks and Arboriculture in the Northern Rockies".

The school will focus on a variety of topics including; Plan Before you Plant, Tree Planting and Early Establishment, Pruning to Minimize Risk, When Trees Attack, Tree Risk Assessment Program, and Nursery Selection to Avoid High Risk Trees, as well as a panel discussion on Risks, Costs, Response and Planning.

Outdoor field sessions will also be part of the school for hands on training. The three field sessions include a pruning demonstration by Ed Gilman, an Emerald Ash Borer sniffing dog demonstration by Working Dogs for Conservation out of Three Forks, Montana, and a demonstration on Right Tree in Right Place by Northwestern Energy. Additional speakers include Sarah Foster from the Washington DNR, Bill Cassel from the City of Denver, Scott Bernhardt from Northwestern Energy, and Alice Whitehead from Three Forks.

The school was started six years ago to help disseminate information about arboriculture and urban forestry in the northern Rockies. The school has rotated between Wyoming and Montana every other year. Dillon was picked for this year's school hoping to draw people from Idaho's Snake River corridor as well as folks from Montana and Wyoming. The event has drawn between 125 and 150 people.

If anyone is interested in more information about the school or is interested in helping, or sponsoring the school please contact Tim Egan at the MT DNRC at 406-683-6305. More information about the school and registration details can be found on the Dillon Tree Board's web page at <http://www.dillontrees.org/>

MEN'S BASKETBALL SPLITS

The University of Montana Western was on the road Friday and Saturday, Feb. 1 and 2, to Helena and Great Falls. The Bulldogs narrowly escaped with a 77-74 win against the Carroll College Saints (1-20, 0-10) on Friday. In Saturday's game, the University of Great Falls (15-10, 6-5) avenged a previous loss to Montana Western, 59-71 on Jan. 12, with a 68-66 overtime victory.

For the second straight weekend, Jordan Overstreet had a career-high 30 points. He was aided by Jake Owsley's 15 points in the Bulldogs' 77-74 win against Carroll.

The Bulldogs hit six of eight free-throws in the final 30 seconds to seal the 77-74 win.

Overstreet went 9-13 from the field, 6-10 behind the arc and 6-9 from the line for his career-tying 30 points. Owsley's 15 points included a perfect seven of seven from the free-throw line. The Bulldogs also got seven points and six rebounds from Tyler Miller, seven points from Maazin Butler, four assists from Kris Collins and six rebounds from Kris Castro.

On Saturday, Montana Western and the University of Great Falls Argos traded baskets and leads for an even Frontier Conference match-up. The largest lead in the first half was six, held by Great Falls. A Maazin Butler three-pointer was good for the Bulldogs at the buzzer to cut the halftime deficit to three (31-34).

With seven seconds remaining, Great Falls' TJ Harris sank a three-pointer to tie the game at 64.

Four points in overtime was enough to give Great Falls the 68-66 victory. The Bulldogs missed five baskets and their lone points came from two Jordan Overstreet free-throws.

Montana Western was led by Overstreet and Tyler Miller with 14 points apiece, Jake Owsley's fifth double-double on the season with 10 points and 10 rebounds and Gabe Rucker's seven assists and three steals.

The Bulldogs (16-8, 6-5) remain tied for fourth place with Great Falls in the Frontier Conference standings.
