DILLON TREE BOARD RECEIVES GRANT FUNDING FOR URBAN FORESTRY PROJECTS

The City of Dillon and the Dillon Tree Board recently received grant funding from the Forest Service through the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation's (DNRC) Urban and Community Forestry Program. This grant was awarded from the DNRC's Program Development Grant expenditures. This is the fourth Program Development grant Dillon has received. The 2013 grant award is for $8,500.00 with 100% matching funds or in kind services from the city. In the last four years the Dillon Tree Board has secured $23,900 in grant funding for Dillon's urban forest.

The grant is for multiple Urban Forestry projects within Dillon including the contracted removal and pruning of white poplar trees in the Mountain View Cemetery, the planting of 8 bur oak trees in the boulevard along Glendale Street, the pruning of 29 Green Ash trees at the Depot Museum as well as a week of grinding stumps by city personnel.

These projects are some of the top priorities that were identified in the Tree Boards, Community Forest Management Plan (CFMP). One of the top priorities identified in the CFMP is the continued treatment and maintenance of the older mature white poplars (Populus alba) in the cemetery through pruning and/or removal as needed. An inventory of the cemetery trees conducted in 2011 identified 112 poplar trees. Approximately 40 of these trees will eventually need to be removed due to age, decline, and obvious rot and disease issues. The tree board and city are working to plant replacement trees to provide visitors to the cemetery a safe and enjoyable visit as well as protect existing gravestones and improvements. Last year 16 poplar trees were removed and 26 were pruned. In 2013 we will be pruning the majority of the remaining Poplar trees. Anyone interested in making a memorial donation for the planting of new trees or for tree maintenance at the cemetery should contact the city or the Tree Board for details.

The city is in the process of soliciting bids from certified arborists to perform the contract work associated with the grant. With the ground frozen, any ground damage will be kept to a minimum. The contractor awarded the bid will be required to remove all woody material up to six inches in diameter. City employees will remove the larger woody material and grind the new and existing stumps.

Another portion of the grant will be the pruning and removal of ash trees by the Depot Museum. The museum board has agreed to provide cost share funding for the performance of this work.

If anyone has questions concerning the 2013 Urban Forestry Grant they can contact Tim Egan at the MT DNRC at 683-6305 or contact Chuck Mark, Dillon Tree Board Chairman. The Dillon Tree Board recently designed a web page with lots of useful information about trees and urban forestry projects. The website can be viewed at www.dillontrees.orgFAMILY NIGHT / SOCK HOP

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Commenting on La Von Brillhart letter...

By Chuck Dishno

La Von, I can't believe someone, with your perceived intelligence, can live so much in the past. How can you still be blaming George Bush for the financial mess that we are in now? He may have started some of it but Obama has tripled the national debt in the past 4 years. How can that be Bush's fault? You Democrats must stand up and admit that.

We have experienced double gas prices, higher taxes, the deterioration of our health care system in the guise of Obamacare. I say Obama Bull!! Obama seems to be on track to destroy our beloved United States thru greed and corruption.

You wonder if anything will get accomplished in Washington over the next 4 years. I believe we can still save our country if the Democrats quit trying to spend us into oblivion. Their answer seems to be, print more money and borrow 42 cents of every dollar from China or other countries. Focus on lowering taxes. That will let businesses expand and hire more employees who will in turn pay more in taxes. This is a win-win situation.

You stated that in Obama's inaugural speech he said he wanted to "work together". If the last 4-year are any indication, it sure doesn't sound like it.

Not passing a budget for almost 4 years, letting Harry Reid block proposals or bills that Republications offer from even reaching these Senate floor. Playing Kiss ___ with the media. The list goes on and on. Harry Reid should take seriously the old saying that the only difference between a Kiss butt and a brown noser is depth perception.

La Von, you are smarter than that and should apologize for trying to shove your views down our throats.

I'm sure you, being a good Democrat, you are waiting anxiously to turn in your guns. I have to admit that I feel much safer riding around Dillon on my scooter knowing that my chances of being shot are not nearly as great since all good loyal Democrats have turned in their weapons. You can still run over me though and I will keep my one eye peeled.

My name is Chuck Dishno and I approve of this letter.

DILLON JR. FIDDLERS PLAY FOR MONTANA STATE LEGISLATURE

Playing for the Montana State Legislature on February 1st was a high point for the Dillon Junior Fiddlers, but two standing ovations in both the House of Representatives and the Senate really brought smiles to the faces of the young musicians. Each fiddler was given a certificate by Representative, Jeff Welborn, for "exemplary service to the State of Montana . . ." and Senator Debbie Barrett and Representative Welborn introduced the group respectively in the Senate and House.

The fiddlers were treated to a tour of the Capital building and a visit to the Montana State Historical Museum. This was followed by treats and a few rides on the carousel. Then it was time to play for a legislative reception sponsored by the folks promoting the Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame. There, too, the group was very well received and given a standing ovation. Ernie Gilbert III declared the trip, "the most fun he has had since the Dillon Junior Fiddlers went to Jamestown, Virginia". A new member of the group, Emily Hansen told her mother, "This is the best day of my life".

The fiddlers will continue to be busy selling tickets for the upcoming Dillon Fiddle Contest and planning for this exciting event at The Old Depot Theater on February 16th and 17th of Presidents' Day weekend. According to Music Director, Sandy James, contestants are expected from several surrounding states.

Judges for the contest are Matt Hartz and Tim Hodgson, both of whom are former national caliber champions, many times over. Many Dillonites will remember these two players, at that time, teenagers, who came up from Idaho for the very first Dillon Fiddle Contest sponsored by Lone Star Beer Company. "We are thrilled that Tim has also agreed to help with our Saturday Night Concert and Variety Show as the headline entertainer and also Master of Ceremonies," said Jean James, Artistic Director, for the fiddle group. "He has been a long time member of the Bar J Wranglers and it doesn't get better than that."

Tickets for the Dillon Fiddle Contest are available from any Dillon Junior Fiddler, The Bookstore, Sweetwater Coffee and at the door for a cost of $10 that includes a chance to win a door prize. Saturday night tickets will be available at the door only, due to limited seating, at a cost of $5.
