HAROLD WAYNE GILMAN

Harold Wayne Gilman, of Ruby, passed away on Sunday, Feb. 3, 2013, at Virginia Mason Medical Center in Seattle.

Wayne, the third son of Harold Leslie Gilman and Alice Eleanor (Peggy) Costle Gilman, was born in Sheridan on July 16, 1947. He attended grade school at Laurin, Alder and Sheridan, where he graduated from high school in 1965. He attended Western Montana College and Montana State University, graduating with a bachelor of science in agriculture education in 1972, followed by a master of science in agriculture education from Montana State University.

Wayne married Gail Ruth Younge of Rochester, N.Y., in 1970. To this union, five children were born. Wayne and Gail later divorced. He was briefly married to Linda Hudson of Sacramento, Calif. In 1998, Wayne met Kathy McDowell, with whom he shared the remainder of his life.

Wayne served as a Montana State FFA 4th Vice President 1965-66. Wayne spent his youth working with his Dad and brothers on the Robb Creek Louie Hansen Ranch picking bales. During college he enjoyed his summers tending bar at the Bale of Hay Saloon and his winters tending bar at the Bozeman Bowl. Following graduation from college, he worked as a construction foreman for Felton Construction of Missoula at various jobs in Montana and Alaska.

Wayne's career in education began as a vocational agriculture instructor in Absarokee High School in 1977. He continued on at Beaverhead County High School (BCHS) in Dillon, where he taught and served as the FFA chapter adviser 1979-2002, and where he influenced the lives of countless students. Upon retiring from BCHS Wayne took his love for agriculture to the state of Washington.

Wayne was predeceased by his parents, brother, Robert, and nephew, Greg.

He is survived by son, Duke Wayne; daughters, Rebecca (Monte) Ypma, Rachel (Reece) Silve, Katie Joy and Jessica

NEW MEMBER OF THE WEST FEEDS TEAM

Ryan Hughes and West Feeds would like to welcome Barb Kramer as the newest member of the West Feeds Team.

Barb grew up on a local ranch and she and her husband, Karsten, and three children are Dillon residents. Barb has been active in 4-H, church and school activities.

"I'm really looking forward to working with Ryan. I am enjoying working with the customers and it feels good to provide quality products. I was raised in agriculture and I feel at home here."

West Feeds is a Montana based company with headquarters in Billings and plants in Billings and Great Falls. They have close ties to ADM and Moormans animal nutrition with a complete line of mineral to compliment your feed program. West Feed has a variety of feed and nutritional supplements for livestock, dogs, cats, poultry, rabbits, wild birds and even llamas.

Our goal is to provide the best nutrition for your animal that is also cost effective. Ryan enjoys working with the 4-H market animals and helping young stockmen with their projects. We encourage all 4-H members to come in and consult with Ryan. Last year he sponsored a feed and nutrition clinic for the members involved in 4-H market projects. Ryan generously provided pizza for all participants.

The store is open full-time, and in celebration, West Feeds is having a sale the first week of each month. On Monday, buy a bag of poultry feed and get a dollar off, Tuesday-equine feed, Wed-Swine, Thurs-sheep/goats, and Fri-pets. This will continue for all of 2013. Come in and take advantage of these offers.

The store hours are 8:30 am - 5:30 pm, Monday through Friday. We are located at 947 N. Montana Street.
