JEFF WELBORN'S LEGISLATIVE REVIEW

As your Member in Montana's House of Representatives, I've spent the past month working with my colleagues to set policy which will affect, all of you in this district, as well as the rest of Montana. I will re-cap some of these measures as they are working their way through the process.

This past week saw some exciting action on the House Floor. We voted on a major package of job creation bills. We all know that Montana's small, neighborhood businesses are major job creators. What these proposals will do is limit tort litigation and reduce workers compensation costs. My feeling is when a small business spends less on liability and worker's comp insurance, it will simply have more money available to make capital improvements and more money available to keep people employed and furthermore to put additional people to work.

Another bill that seems to be getting a lot of attention is HB 239 or better known as the major Sex Education bill of the session. I want to take this opportunity to make clear what this bill will actually do or more importantly, not do.

This bill does nothing to block what schools can teach collectively or individually, the local school boards still have the final say in what is being taught, as they should. What it does is give parents the ability to have some oversight on what their individual children will be learning in these areas. I have heard from literally hundreds of parents that still want to have that say. Interestingly enough, these same folks still support sex education for their children, but again want to have some oversight on that education and furthermore, simple communication from the school as to what the individual sex ed programs will be offering.

House Bill 73, a major piece Wolf Management Legislation, which passed through the House 100-0 on second reading, has now passed through the Senate, with very broad support, and is on it's way to the Governor's desk for his signature. This bill opens up a lot of new avenues for controlling the wolf problem here in Montana. It allows hunting and trapping of wolves around national parks, allows hunters to buy multiple tags than and allows hunters not to wear orange when hunting outside the standard big game season. The final provision is allowing for the use of mechanical calls, which coupled with all the other provisions of this measure should give Montanan's a few more tools to use in more effective Wolf Management.

SB 180, Senator Barrett's proposal to repeal the eminent domain law which became law during the last session passed the Senate Energy Committee and is on it's way for a vote of the full Senate. As a co-sponsor of this proposal, I commend Senator Barrett for her hard work on behalf of the private property owners that are negatively affected by provisions eminent domain laws.

In closing, I want to congratulate Brenda Kirkley on her recent statewide award for her service to the Beaverhead Ambulance/ EMS. She was chosen by her peers from across Montana as one of only of three recipients of this prestigious award. Many Thanks to Brenda and all of our local volunteers for your dedicated public service.

MISSING??

A 15 year old boy borrowed a SET of yellow ramps to take a 4-wheeler ice fishing this last weekend. He unloaded the 4-wheeler from the trailer and left the ramps at the trailer and went ice fishing. Saturday morning around 10 am, the person he borrowed them from went to the lake to fish also. They went to the trailer to unload another 4-wheeler from a truck. ONE of the yellow ramps was gone.

This 15 year old is washing dishes two nights a week and wants to pay for the ramps. Of course, he will have to buy a SET.

If you have FOUND the missing ramp by mistake, please put it in the alley behind Womack's Printing Place, 126 N. Montana Street.

One yellow ramp can't be that valuable to you to take it from a kid working 4 hours a week for minimum wage.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Chuck Dishno, I do agree with your article on Dillon's IGA. I disagree with you on the things you wrote about LaVon Brillhart. Some of you Republicans are such poor losers. Support our president.

HUNTERS: MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

March 15 is the deadline to apply for 2013 deer and elk hunting permits. Streamlined eight-page application packets that contain all the information residents need to apply are available at all license providers, FWP offices and online at fwp.mt.gov. Nonresidents who wish to apply for big game combination, elk combination or deer combination licenses and deer and elk permits for the 2013 Montana hunting season can also apply online or download an application from FWP's website.

May 1 is the deadline to apply for moose, bighorn sheep, mountain goat and bison licenses. June 1 is the deadline to apply for Elk B, Deer B and Antelope licenses. Cow elk hunting opportunities are available as "Elk B" licenses; and doe hunting opportunities are available as "Deer B" licenses.

UMW VOLLEYBALL SIGNS CALIFORNIA TRANSFER STUDENT

University of Montana Western head coach Lisa Griffiths announced that Kendra Mendicino of San Diego, Calif. signed a Frontier Conference/NAIA Letter of Intent. Mendicino will transfer from San Diego Mesa College and will compete with the Bulldogs in the fall of 2013 with two years of eligibility.

"Kendra is an awesome addition to Montana Western volleyball," Griffiths stated. "She is a proven winner and her experience and success at the junior college level has prepared her well for the transition to the Frontier Conference."

Mendicino, a 5'9" libero, was a four-year volleyball player for Patrick Henry High School in San Diego, Calif. She was honored as their best defensive player three times and was a first-team all-conference pick as a senior. Mendicino was also on the honor roll all four years.

At San Diego Mesa College, Mendicino was chosen as a first team member of the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference as a freshman and sophomore. She was her team's MVP both years as she led them to consecutive co-championship titles. While earning Scholar Athlete recognition last season, Mendicino led her team to an 18-5 record.

Mendicino plans to major in health and human performance at Montana Western and is the daughter of Kory and Marci Mendicino.

YEARS OF MATH 1950 - 2013

1. Teaching Math In 1950's

• A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is 4/5 of the price. What is his profit?

2. Teaching Math In 1960's

• A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is 4/5 of the price, or $80. What is his profit?

3. Teaching Math In 1970's

• A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is $80. Did he make a profit?

4. Teaching Math In 1980's

• A logger sells a truckload of lumber for $100. His cost of production is $80 and his profit is $20. Your assignment: Underline the number 20.

5. Teaching Math In 1990's

• A logger cuts down a beautiful forest because he is selfish and inconsiderate and cares nothing for the habitat of animals or the preservation of our woodlands. He does this so he can make a profit of $20. What do you think of this way of making a living?

Topic for class participation after answering the question: How did the birds and squirrels feel as the logger cut down their homes? (There are no wrong answers, and if you feel like crying, it's ok.)

6. Teaching Math In 2009

• Un hachero vende una carretada de maderapara $100. El costo de la producciones es $80. Cuanto dinero ha hecho?

7. Teaching Math In 2013

• Who cares, just steal the lumber from your rich neighbor's property. He won't have a gun to stop you, and the President says it's OK anyway cuz it's redistributing the wealth.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOOD/BAD?

By: MJ

Feel good buzz words are used to define sustainable development like; vibrant, walkable, bikeable, green, good for planet, open space, protection of endangered species/forest/water...

After Pres. Bush signed the action plan with United Nations Pres. Clinton implemented 'Sustainable Development' by giving the American Planning Association a multi-million dollar grant to write a land use legislative blueprint for every municipality in the U.S. Title of blueprint is "Growing Smart Legislative Guidebook" with model statutes for planning. Growing Smart is the Smart Growth programs you hear about in your communities.

Growing Smart is in your planning departments and are being applied in your city and county planning. Urban areas are being consolidated and rural areas are being emptied of people through restrictive land use policies, gasoline cost, vehicle miles traveled taxes, loss of rural road maintenance, closure of rural schools, and closure of rural post offices, water well monitoring, smart meters and more.

Would moving people into a centralized urban area in high density housing create the perfect opportunity for domestic surveillance?

Unelected people placed on planning boards and other boards are dictating and making radical changes that have become reality today. This movement extends to private property rights, education, energy, food, housing, transportation...

Don't be one of the uneducated. Know why you are, for or against Agenda 21/ Sustainable Development. Talk to your planning boards, commissioners, mayors, state and federal representative. www.iclei.org
