WELBORN'S WEEKLY LEGISLATIVE REVIEW

As we move to closer to the transmittal deadline, several measures have created much local interest. Two proposals that have generated many e-mails and phone calls from right here in the 72nd District deal with two very different topics, I'll get right to the issues at hand.

What some people call corner crossing is not about playing hop scotch as some would suggest, it's about corner trespassing, it's in fact the crossing of a private landowner's property to get to public land. The Supreme Court has ruled on this issue, their ruling was corner crossing is trespass. The proponents of this bill like to waive around a single law firms' opinion that it isn't trespassing, but again the Supreme Court asserts that it is.

Regardless of where you land on this issue, let me share some perspective. If this measure was to move forward, it will only drive a wedge further between landowners and sportsman.

I've had the good fortune of serving on the FWP Private Lands-Public Wildlife Council.

I'm proud of my time spent on that diverse council, as the one approach that we could always agree on, was to move forward with pragmatic solutions to foster better landowner- sportsman relations.

I personally want to be at the forefront of providing better access to public lands. I have skin in this game, as my family's land is enrolled in block management simply to allow more public access to the tens of thousands of public acres that adjoin our family ranch.

I believe that hunters, anglers, and everyone else who uses public lands need access. But there are much better ways to address the issue than what this bill seeks to accomplish. This bill does nothing more than allow trespassing.

Wouldn't it be better for FWP to buy a crossing easement for hunters to use? A real, legal crossing, rather than jumping over a private fence? We heard Rep Kary's HB 440, last week in the FWP Committee, and it will accomplish this. I'll support this bill.

Wouldn't it also be better to try to get more land into block management? this is a program that would open up some of these "landlocked" public lands? Rep. Flynn's HB 404 which we have debated on this floor will do this very thing. I support this also.

I've co-sponsored, along with many of my colleagues on both sides of the aisle, including leadership, committee chairs, Democrats and Republicans, Rep. Jacobsen's HB 444, which will give tax credits to landowners who will provide access to these land locked parcels. I look forward to help get this measure onto the floor for debate, through the Senate, and onto the Governor's desk for his signature I always look for better ways to accomplish good things for Montana, I've offered three very good alternatives here to the corner crossing proposal. Any or all of these alternatives would bring a win- win solution for all of the affected interests.

The second issue is that of School Choice or as some would call Charter Schools. I will start out by saying that I do support creative ways to help any student learn and maximize their public education. School choice has worked in some States with more concentrated populations than we have here in Montana. In States such as

By Chuck Dishno • February 20, 2013

Today is the 125th anniversary of my Mothers birth. She was born Lura Hartman, in Missoula, Montana on February 20, 1897.Mom lived 95 years and died back here in Montana, living with Roz and I. I was fortunate to have her near to me all but a couple ofthose years. Mom passed away on May 8, 1992 and is buried in Dillon in the Dishno family plot.My, how that lady loved birthdays...She kept a list of everyone's birthday and rarely forgot one. Naturally everyone remembered Mom's birthday too and she would get a mountain of presents.I always made it a point to write a limerick for her. One of the last ones I wrote pertained to my two brothers and me:Happy birthday to old lady Dish, Whose three sons are her fondest wish.

One ate everything in sight. (Me)

One saved with all his might. (Brother Bud)

And the other was named after a fish. (Brother Shad)

I should explain that Bud and Shad were half-brothers and their last name was Meiser

Happy birthday, Mom...

Thank you for giving me a sense of humor and nurturing my soul. I look forward to being with you when I transfer my space here on earth to Heaven. What a great time we will all have recalling our crazy lives as mortals. I hope Heaven is ready for us!!!Thank you for giving me so many good memories and instilling in me the love of God.

Your son, Charles

Florida and New Jersey, the teachers unions are even favorable to certain provisions of school choice, as it keeps some students engaged that otherwise may fall through the cracks in traditional settings of public education.

Having said that, I was a no vote on HB 315, the major School Choice bill of the session.

I don't support legislation that simply won't work in rural and smaller size schools like Dillon and Lima, we don't have the students to support alternative school choices, and more importantly, we have great public schools and teachers that are measuring up when preparing students for their futures.

I also don't support any measure that doesn't require accredited teachers to be part of the learning equation. This bill died on 3rd reading on the House Floor.

Please keep sending e-mails on the issues important to you. I appreciate hearing from the folks that I serve.

MONTANA WESTERN WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PULLS OUT A WIN IN HAVRE

The University of Montana Western women's basketball team traveled to Havre, on Wednesday, to take on the Montana State University-Northern Skylights.

In January 2013, the Bulldogs beat the Skylights in Dillon, Mont. and had one of their best basketball games of the season winning 75-49.

Montana Western ended the first half up 13 points and had one of their better shooting nights as they shot 44 percent from the field and 50 percent from three-point range. Northern came out in the second half and chipped away at the Bulldog lead until they finally had it cut down to two points with 1:33 left on the clock. Montana Western came up with a couple big defensive stops down the stretch, which led to the Bulldog win with a score of 56-54.

Sammi Bignell and Alecia Wilson led the team in scoring with 12 points apiece while Roxy Thurman added nine points and Kaci Matthies chipped in seven points.

The win pushes Montana Western to a 5-8 conference record, which means the team is tied for fifth place with Rocky Mountain College in the conference standings.

The Bulldogs will try to carry over this win as they take on the Carroll College Saturday, Feb. 16 at 5:30 p.m. at the Straugh Gymnasium in Dillon.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

JEFF, WHY DID YOU OPPOSE BLASTING HB 235
OUT OF COMMITTEE?

Jeff,

I was at the House Session yesterday and was one of the 300 + Montana sportsmen that rallied to get HB 235, the corner crossing bill, blasted out of committee. You were chosen as one of two representatives to speak in opposition of the bill. The Goetz Law firm prepared a legal opinion stating "HB 235 aims to decriminalize corner crossing on public land, and does not constitute a taking under either Article II, Section 29, of the Montana Constitution, or the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution". This is an important bill because it would open access to over 860,000 acres of public lands. Blasting the bill out of committee would allow for discussion on the house floor and a vote, and possible amendments. Why were you opposed to blasting the bill out of committee, when this bill would have provided legal access to so much public land?

MONTANA WESTERN MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM WINS THIRD STRAIGHT

The University of Montana Western men's basketball team had two critical games last week. The first was on the road to Havre, to take on the Frontier Conference leading Montana State University-Northern Lights. The second was at home against the Carroll College Saints.

The Bulldogs handed 12th-ranked MSU-Northern a 59-57 home loss on Valentine's Day. The win avenged the Bulldogs' own 53-64 home loss to the Lights on Jan. 10.

Montana Western led for most of the contest, taking a quick four-point lead and building it up to 13 on a Tyler Miller three-pointer at the 3:05 mark. Montana Western held MSU-Northern to 33 percent (8-24) from the floor and 27 percent (3-11) on three-pointers.

An offensive put-back by Jake Owsley and a free throw by Gabe Rucker was enough to take the 59-57 Bulldog win.

Owsley led the Bulldogs with 16 points and six rebounds while Jordan Overstreet pitched in 10 points. Miller and Kris Collins each contributed nine points while Rucker had two assists.

On Saturday, Montana Western took down Carroll 79-74. There were 11 lead changes and neither team led by more than seven in the Frontier Conference showdown. A Kris Castro basket knotted the score at 54. From there, the Saints only had one quick lead before the Bulldogs went on a 15-8 run, including 10 points from Jake Owsley. Montana Western went six of eight from the free throw line to hang on for the 79-74 win.

Tyler Miller led the way for the Bulldogs with a career-high 23 points on eight of nine shooting and four of five from downtown. Owsley had an impressive all-around game before fouling out with 19 points, 11 rebounds, five blocks, two steals and two assists. Maazin Butler also reached double figures with 17 points. Castro pulled down 10 rebounds and had four assists while Gabe Rucker dished seven.

Montana Western will finish their regular season schedule at home on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 21 and 22 against the Montana Tech Orediggers and the Lewis-Clark State Warriors. Both games will tip-off at 7:30 p.m. and lone senior Vince Turk will be honored Friday evening.
