Yesterday I posted a birthday greeting to my mom. I wasn't thinking and made her older than I should have. Actually it was Mom's 116 anniversary of her birth. Hey what can you expect from a guy with one eye and nine fingers. Sorry about that, Mom.

Thank you from PINK Zone & SW MT Mammography Program

February has been a very busy month for the th Annual PINKZone event! The event started in 2007 as a small event by the UM Western Lady Bulldogs Basketball Program and was joined by Catholic Campus Ministry in 2008. That continued each February and in 2012 community organizations, businesses and individuals joined forces to raise $6500. All money raised goes to the SW MT Mammography Program which helps women who are uninsured and underinsured obtain mammograms, thus saving lives.

Thank you to the following for helping with this cause in 2013:

- NV Salon-Kristy, Brittany and Sasha-donated $1 per haircut and $3 per chemical treatment on February 14th plus had a donation jar forthat whole week.
- Jaycee Auxiliary-donated snacks for the PINKZone Wine Tasting.

- Chance Bernall @ Prudential Real Estate-donated $3 for every 3 point shot made by the Lady Bulldogs at the PINKZone game.
- Barrett Hospital Foundation-Came up with and implemented the il-Bras for the Cause" event at the Wine Tasting as well as providing the prizes for the top 3 bras.
- We had 22 GREATentries for the 'Bras for the Cause" event-thank you to everyone who made them. For a 1st year event they were all AMAZING! Some bras sold in the silent auction and the rest will be displayed at some point in the Barrett Hospital and Health Care Mammogram rooms.

The 2012 Outstanding Woman is Beverly McCoy. Bev's nomination consisted of three letters from community members who all offered different perspectives of Bev's service to the community and generous spirit. "Whether it is the Festival of Trees or a benefit for an unfortunate person, Bev is there to help with the organizing or giving an item to the cause." "Bev has been a member and an Elder of the First Presbyterian Church for many years. Being of great faith, Bev has always been committed to nourish and share a relationship of love and devotion to God, with her family and others." "Under Bev's leadership, more than $3.1 million was raised towards the construction of the new hospital. Bev serves as a tireless ambassador for Barrett Hospital & HealthCare and Barrett Hospital Foundation and she is tremendously dedicated to providing our community with quality healthcare."

Sponsors of the evening's event were Dillon Medical Supply, Stockman Bank, and Wells Fargo. Special thanks to Beaverhead Golf Course staff and the anonymous judges.
