ADELINE RUTH HAZEL, 102

Adeline Ruth Hazel (nee: Grey) died Feb. 22. Adeline was born June 10, 1910 near Sunrise, MN. Her parents were Arthur and Ruth (Warner) Grey. Adeline married Royal N. Hazel on Nov. 26, 1931, and they celebrated 71 Anniversaries prior to his death on Nov. 12, 2003. Adeline is survived by her five children, Shirley (Glen) Campbell of Michigamme, MI, Beverley (Bill) Pier of Racine, Byron Hazel of Garden MI, William (Cindy) Hazel of Waukesha and Lynn (Lynn) Wakefield of Morganton NC, 14 grandchildren (Brenda Womack and Alan Hazel of Dillon). 26 great-grandchildren and 8 great-great-grandchildren. Adeline was preceded in death by husband Royal, 3 grandsons, and a great-grandson. Most of Adeline's life was spent living in a trailer, due to her husband's work with an asphalt paving plant. At his retirement, they bought a house to renovate in Iron River, MI. Because there were extra lots, Adeline started planting, and filled all the space with fruit trees, flowers & garden plots for summer planting of vegetables. She became known as "the flower lady" on their local radio program. Adeline & her husband were also active in the formation & building of the Lakeland Baptist church in Iron River. Funeral services for Adeline were held at Northside Calvary Church on Tuesday. She was then taken to Minnesota to be laid to rest by her husband.

CITY LEAGUE VOLLEYBALL

City league volleyball is here! All teams are co-ed and games are played Tuesday and Thursday nights starting after March 21st. City league volleyball is open to everyone and there are three different levels of competition that can match any skill level. Cost is $10 per person for five weeks of competition (or pay $15 and receive a volleyball tshirt as well). Team registration forms are available on campus and can be printed off the volleyball page of the athletics website here: http://my.umwestern.edu/athletics/volleyball/VB13_city_league_registration.pdf

Contact Coach Lisa Griffiths at 683-7444 or l_griffiths@umwestern.edu with any questions.

2013 DILLON CUBS

The Dillon Cubs baseball team is ready for action. The Dillon Cubs baseball program will be undergoing a change for the 2013 season, instead of playing an American Legion schedule; the 2013 Cubs will be affiliated with Senior Babe Ruth. The change came about after the Montana Department of American Legion Baseball Committee announced that they would no longer work with us and that the Dillon players were no longer welcomed in American Legion Baseball. The local Beaverhead American Legion Post #20 and the Cubs Board members engaged the State Legion Leadership, but where unsuccessful in overturning their unjustified ruling.

Through the support and cooperation of the Beaverhead Post #20 leadership the Cubs Board moved to affiliate with Montana Senior Babe Ruth league that will provide equal quality and competition for the local Cubs players. A 59 game schedule has been announced; that will include hosting the 33rd Annual Maybelle Arthur Tournament here in Dillon in early June. Incorporated in the schedule are many nonconference legion teams and tournaments, along with Senior Babe Ruth competition. A State and Regional tournament, as with the legion program, will conclude the season in late July early August. The home season opener will be April 14 against the Missoula Frontiers.

A parent/players meeting will be held on March 21, 2013 at 7 pm in the Dillon Middle School Library. This meeting is for returning and prospective players and their parents. The costs for players will remain the same with $150 registration fee, and the requirement to sell $500 season/raffle tickets. Included in with the fees is all transportation to the games, 3 sets of uniforms, safety equipment, and insurance. A meal allowance and overnight accommodations are provided for at out of town tournaments.

Coaches for the 2013 season will be Manager Randy Shipman (9 years), Zach McRae (3), Gene Marquez (2) and a new addition will be Greg Fitzgerald. Greg has worked with Little League program for the past several years.

Montana is the only state that doesn't have baseball as a recognized high school sport. Thus the Dillon Cubs fills a large void for those student athletics that want to enjoy the sport beyond the Little League level. The Cubs Program is a highly competitive structured program that provides players with an opportunity to hone individual skills, and provides a strong foundation for life long attributes in leadership, teamwork, sportsmanship and competition.

Home games are played at Cubs Field at Vigilante Park on Center Street. Please support the Cubs players and program through the purchase of Season/Raffle Tickets when they come to your door in the next few weeks.

DILLON FESTIVAL OF TREES

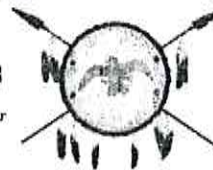

The Dillon Festival of Trees is now accepting applications for the 2013 Festival. If you are a non-profit organization wishing to receive the proceeds from the Festival to be held November 22nd and 23rd, please stop by The Knock About and pick up an application.

Deadline for returning applications to The Knock About is March 1, 2013. For questions, please call Mary Ellen at 682-2286 or Sharon at 683-4831.

UMW AND HUMANITIES MONTANA PRESENT HERITAGE DANCE

The University of Montana Western, Humanities Montana and the National Endowment for the Humanities present Heritage Dance on Sunday, March 3 beginning at 2 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium on the UMW campus.

This special event is a one-day celebration of dance traditions focused on multicultural understanding and awareness. Participants are welcomed to present demonstrations, workshops, exhibits and performances. This is an educational event for all ages and is free of charge.

To date, American vaudeville and tap/jazz forms, Polynesian, Native American, Irish and American Appalachian cultures will be represented. The event will also include a demonstration by the Tiernan Dancers with Dublin Gulch.

Heritage Dance will be held in the Beier Auditorium on the Montana Western campus and is sponsored by the University of Montana Western with a grant from Humanities Montana. Call Judy Ulrich at (406) 683-7011 for more information.

ANNUAL STUDENT ART SHOW AT UMW ART GALLERY

The University of Montana Western presents its annual student art show from Feb. 28 to March 29 at the UMW Art Gallery.

This year's exhibit will feature the art of over 45 university students. The work includes drawings, paintings, printmaking, photography, video, sculpture, ceramics and glass.

The guest juror this year is Edgar Smith, an adjunct assistant professor from the University of Montana in Missoula. Smith will award over $700 in prizes and present a short lecture about the exhibition at 5:30 p.m.

Food and beverages will be provided. The opening reception is free and open to the public.

The opening reception will take place on Thursday, Feb. 28 from 5 to 7 p.m. The UMW Art Gallery is located at the South Entrance of Main Hall on the Montana Western campus.

For further questions, call gallery director Glenn Bodish at (406) 491-1444 or e-mail him at g_bodish@umwestern.edu.

NEW HOPE GEARING UP FOR 3RD ANNUAL CHARACTER RETREATS.

New Hope Pregnancy and Support Center will be holding their annual "character retreats" March 15-17th. New Hope offers education and support which encourage and enable, men and women of child bearing years to make positive life affirming choices.

My wife, Ashley Engesser, and I are the volunteer abstinence coordinators and hold character retreats for kids 12-18 years of age. Each year we get together and talk about character, relationships, What a Godly man is, what a Godly woman is, and how they match up to what the world thinks. God calls us to be of pure mind, body, and spirit. Something I myself have fallen short of more than once. But what if there were some tools and wisdom you could use growing up that would help you when making those hard choices.

At our character retreats we have a lot of fun, play hard, and try to offer kids sound biblical advice on relationships, character, the difference between what the world expects of you and what your Creator expects of you.

The cost is $40.00 for the weekend and includes all meals. Some scholarships are available.

This is not about religion, If you believe God created you, (If you don't that's a whole different retreat!) then doesn't it make sense that He would also give you a way to understand what He wants from you?

MAN VS. WORLD, (the boys retreat) will be held at Clark Canyon Bible Camp. There are five different speakers this year and one is a 7th degree tae kwon do black belt.

GIRLS NIGHT(S) OUT, (the girls retreat) will be held at Tight Lines Outfitters, Expedition Lodge. Ashley Engesser has ten years experience teaching the W.A.I.T. training program and has a team of friends and community members who help at the retreats.

Retreats start at 4:00 p.m. Friday and all kids will be picked up at the Vineyard church at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

TELL THE LIBRARY HOW THEY ARE DOING!

The Dillon Public Library is currently distributing survey forms in an attempt to assess how the Library is doing. The Library Board of Trustees invites you to fill out one of these surveys regardless of whether or not you use the Library. Because Dillon Public Library serves the whole of Beaverhead County, it is important that a large segment of the county respond to this survey. The information gathered from these surveys will help the Library Board of Trustees determine whether or not we are meeting public expectations in regards to our services and how they are provided.

Survey forms can be obtained at the Public Library, 121 South Idaho Street, the Dillon Tribune office at 22 South Montana, or Dillonite Daily office at Womack's 126 N. Montana St. The survey forms should be returned to Dillon Public Library by Friday, March 1st at 6:00 PM. The Library Board of Trustees offers appreciation and thanks to all survey respondents.

The DILLON JOB SERVICE would like to bring current job openings to your attention:

Find us on the internet at jobs.mt.gov or come in to our office at 730 N. Montana Street Monday through Friday for assistance. We can help you with your resume and now have Wi-Fi. Employers, call or come by our office for your 5-in-1 Employment Posters.

TO THE EDITOR

As sports fans, we like to rank the top professional quarterbacks of all time, which include John Unitas (Colts), Joe Montana (49ers), John Elway (Broncos), Peyton Manning (Colts/Broncos), Tom Brady (Patriots), Bart Starr (Packers), and Brett Favre (Packers). Also, we like to rank the top movies of all time, which include Gone With The Wind (1939), Ben Hur (1959), Lawrence Of Arabia (1962), Dr. Zhivago (1965), and Schindler's List (1993).

Schindler's List was directed by Steven Spielberg, who also directed Lincoln, which did not win this year's Oscar for best movie. Spielberg has directed mega-hit movies such as Indiana Jones, ET, Saving Private Ryan, and Jurassic Park.

Unlike most of Spielberg's movies that appeal to our needs for escapism and wonderment, Spielberg's Schindler's List raises a different set of emotions. Schindler's List brings us the hard-core reality of how one man helped to save the lives of 1,100 Jews from The Holocaust during World War II, when more than 6 million Jews were murdered.

So that we never forget The Holocaust, we should view Schindler's List at least once a year. Also, to find out more about the impact of Schindler's List worldwide and its education program, please visit online the University of Southern California's Shoah Foundation (<http://sfi.usc.edu>).

Lastly, in the late 1800s, the West was settled by many people with diverse religions, including immigrant Catholics from Ireland and Italy and Jews from Germany, Russia, and Poland. One of the most famous builders of the West's frontier was Jewish immigrant John Piper. In 1863, in Virginia City, Nevada, Piper built the famous Piper Opera House, which still stands today. Over the decades, the Piper Opera House performers have included writer Mark Twain, boxer Jim Corbett, and actor Errol Flynn.

Perhaps the Piper Opera House will eventually become the location for the West's premier film festival featuring Schindler's List!
