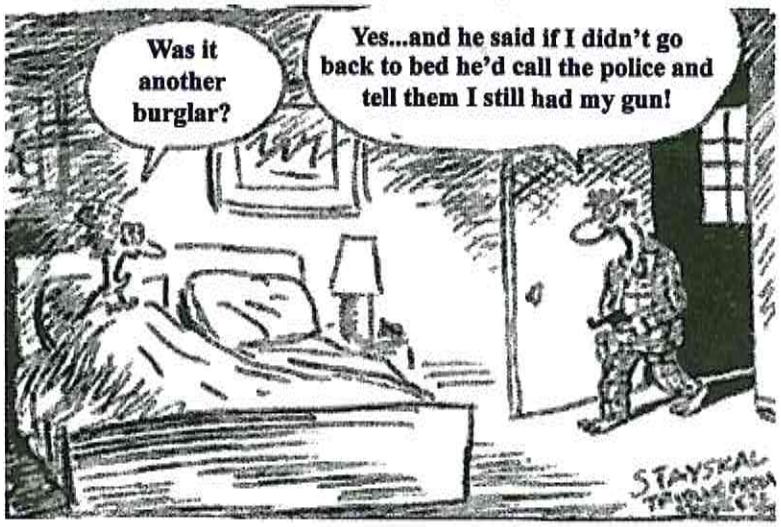
GLIMPSE OF THE FUTURE?

Sent to us by Mr. Pilgrim



LETTER TO THE EDITOR

from Senator Jim Peterson regarding his upcoming legislation SB375, the TRACE Act. This was previously announced by the Senator and Governor. The bill has been introduced and we are waiting for it to be assigned to committee and a hearing date set.

SHEDDING LIGHT ON DARK MONEY

Montanans are tired of dirty politics, nasty mud-slinging campaigns, and personal attacks. I believe they're even more disgusted with the fact that many of these tactics are hidden inside dark money organizations that are unaccountable to the voting public.

In addition Montana voters need to know that their voice counts most, and we need to send a strong message to the backers of dark money organizations that our elections and our government is not for sale.

Our form of government works best when it operates in the full light of day. That means full disclosure, transparency, reporting and accountability in campaigns and elections on an individual basis, hence the acronym TRACE Act. Everyone who comes to Helena to serve the citizens of this great state owes it to their constituents and the greater state interest to deliberate openly, honestly and with the highest level of integrity.

We can and should have honest disagreements on policy. That strain of an honest debate makes us stronger, and it's what allows us to rise above other forms of government. The destabilizing threat comes not from honest disagreement, but from anonymous hidden agendas from special interests.

I have introduced the TRACE Act to guarantee Montanans that our government is open, accessible and accountable to them. I'm not interested in limiting anyone's ability to voice their opinion, actively participate in the election process, or vigorously advocate for an issue. But I do think we should all have the same opportunity to participate on a level playing field.

An individual taxpayer or landowner should have the same ability to participate as a corporation, an association, or a special interest group. By raising contribution limits, we allow candidates to focus on their constituents within their districts rather than having to seek outside campaign financing to run effective campaigns. By holding every individual, organization and corporation to those same limits, we limit undue influence from any particular special interest.

I'm very pleased with the bi-partisan support for this bill, and quite refreshingly to be joined by our new Governor, Steve Bullock, to forge a new policy direction to protect and enhance the ability of every Montanan to play a meaningful role in our government.

Senator Jim Peterson (R-Buffalo) is the former President and Majority Leader of the Montana State Senate.

IN LOVING MEMORY
CUJO I-LEEEN • 2000-2013
Loyal. Companion. Best Friend

They are not dead. I cannot say, and will not say they are dead, they're just away. With a cherry smile and a wave of paw and hand. They both entered an unknown land. They left us dreaming how very fair, it must be, since they both linger there. And. you-oh, you, who the wildest yearn, for the old time step, and a smile return.

Think of them faring on, as dear. In the love of there as the love of here.

Think of them still as the same. I say they are not dead...They're both.

Just away

P.S. Cujo

BULLDOGS HOST LIGHTS IN FRONTIER CONFERENCE SEMIFINALS

The University of Montana Western men's basketball team rode a five-game win streak into the postseason, earning the second seed and a bye in the first round of the Frontier Conference Basketball Tournament. The Montana Western Bulldogs now will face Montana State University-Northern on Saturday, March 2 at 7 p.m. in the Straugh Gymnasium the UMW campus.

The expansion of the Frontier Conference to include Dickinson State brought with it a change to the playoff format. This year only the top six teams from the regular season were eligible for postseason play. The number one seed, Lewis-Clark State College, and the number two seed, Montana Western, both earned byes into the semifinal round. Rocky Mountain is the lowest seed from the quarterfinal games and will travel to Lewis-Clark State for one semifinal game.

The Bulldogs last lost was in overtime to Great Falls in the first weekend of February. Since that time, Montana Western has knocked off a few of the top 25 teams. The streak propelled Montana Western from 31st in the national rankings to a final ranking of 15 while MSU-Northern dropped to 20 and Westminster fell from the top 25.

Bulldog junior Jake Owsley of Bozeman, Mont. leads the Frontier Conference in rebounds with 8.3 per game and blocks with 1.7 per game. He also posted the most double-doubles with eight on the season. Owsley is the scoring leader for Montana Western, averaging 12.72 points per game followed by fellow juniors Maazin Butler of Tacoma, Wash. with 12.35 points per game and Jordan Overstreet of Three Forks, Mont., who averages 12.28 points per game.

Montana Western and MSU-Northern split their two regular season contests this season with each team wining on the road. In February, Montana Western turned the tables on the Lights with a dramatic tip-in by Owsley to seal a two-point victory for the Bulldogs.

Northern finished third in the Frontier after losses to Montana

UMW WOMEN'S BASKETBALL UPSETS TECH

The University of Montana Western women's basketball team traveled to Butte last night to take on the Montana Tech Orediggers in the first round of the Frontier Conference playoffs. The Bulldogs emerged victorious, 55-46.

The Orediggers had previously beaten the Bulldogs two out of the three times they faced before this playoff game, but the last time they played on Feb.21 in the Straugh Gymnasium in Dillon the Bulldogs beat Montana Tech in a nail-biter, winning by two points on a buzzer beater.

Both teams came out strong in the first half, trading the lead back and forth before the Bulldogs eventually took a significant lead with about two minutes left to go in the half. Sammi Bignell came out on fire in the first half and hung 15 points on the Orediggers and sent the Bulldogs into halftime up by eight points. Montana Western got up by as many as nine in the second half, but Montana Tech fought back and got within three points with three minutes left.

"As we have done over the last three games, we had kids step up and make big shots late in the game," head coach Linsday Woolley explained.

Sammi Bignell had yet another huge night for the Bulldogs, leading all scorers with 20 points. Brittney Leibenguth added 13 points and five rerounds, while Roxy Thurman chipped in 10 points and a game-high four steals. Kaci Matthies ended the night with 10 rebounds while Alecia Wilson added five assists to the effort.

The Bulldogs will now face the number three team in the nation, the Westminster Griffins. Montana Western has lost both times in conference play to the Griffins this season. In December, the Bulldogs lost 35-73 in Salt Lake City, Utah., and on Feb. 9, Montana Western lost 28-45 here in Dillon. The Bulldogs will headed to Salt Lake City to get ready for the rematch with the Griffins. The game will take place tonight, Friday, March 1st at 7 p.m.
