MADELINE HANSEN, 101

Madeline Hansen passed away Friday, March 8, 2013. She was born in Michigan Jan. 7, 1912, to Thomas and Emily (Barrett) Harris. They moved to Butte in 1916 and Madeline attended the Grant School and Butte High School. She worked as a bookkeeper and receptionist for Wall and Jackman Realty and married Ernest Hansen in Boulder in 1940.

Although she never had children of her own, Madeline took all her nieces and nephews under her wing and was just like a mother and grandmother to them. She was very talented and sewed many of her own clothes. She enjoyed knitting, crocheting, needlepoint, reading, her cats and especially candy. She loved candy and always attributed her good health to good candy.

Besides her parents, Madeline is preceded in death by her husband, Ernest, sisters, Kathleen Harris and Margie Quinlan, and niece Margie Svejkovsky.

Survivors include her nieces and nephews, Launa and Tom McManus of Arizona, Vince Quinlan and Aurelee Stanisich, both of Butte, Kathy Robinson of Dillon, Harold and Susan Harris of Helena, Cherie Freeman of Butte, Darlene and Jim Davidson of Butte. She is also survived by Patty Ladd and numerous great, great-great and great-great-great nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Wayrynen-Richards Funeral Home with Pastor Ron Martin-Dent officiating. Interment will be in Mount Moriah Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Humane Society.

MONTANA WESTERN TO ADD CROSS COUNTRY IN 2015

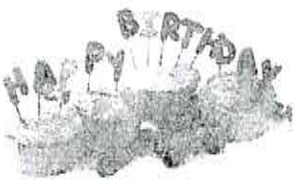

The University of Montana Western Athletics Department announced it will add Frontier Conference and National Intercollegiate Athletics Association (NAIA) competitive cross country teams starting in fall 2015.

Janelle Handlos, UMW interim athletic director, said the Bulldogs will begin the process by hiring a head coach. The coach will begin recruiting cross country student-athletes for both men's and women's rosters during the 2014-15 academic year for competition in the 2015 Frontier Conference season. Handlos expects roster sizes to be between 10 and 15 athletes.

"We are very excited about the opportunity to add cross country to our sports offerings," Handlos said. "We looked at the experiences of many other Frontier Conference programs that added sports as well as the interest of our student body and high school athletes throughout Montana and our region. Cross country quickly rose to the top of the list, and we look forward to the opportunities it will provide to add to our coaching staff and the population of student-athletes at Montana Western."

Montana Western Chancellor Richard Storey said the decision, which has been thoroughly analyzed and discussed on campus for well over a year, will continue to bolster Bulldog athletics as well as campus enrollment.

"Adding cross country not only brings us into compliance with the NAIA, but it also helps us to attract additional dedicated students to Montana Western," Storey said. "Adding cross country also has the benefit of bringing both female and male student-athletes to our campus. Cross country athletes have a well-earned reputation for academic excellence."

MONTANA WESTERN ATHLETES TAKE ACCOLADES TO KANSAS CITY

Frontier Conference commissioner Kent Paulson announced the 2012-13 all-conference men's basketball team as well as individual award winners on Wednesday, March 6 after balloting by the league's coaches. Later that day, the University of Montana Western found out they will be heading to Kansas City, Mo. for the national tournament.

Montana Western head coach Steve Keller was selected as the 2012-2013 Coach of the Year for the second straight year. Keller led the Bulldogs 22-9/11-5 record and a second-place finish in the regular season standings as well as a second-place finish in the Frontier Conference Playoffs. Next week, Keller will take the Bulldogs to the NAIA National Tournament for the fourth straight year.

The Bulldogs' Kris Castro was named the Frontier Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Jake Owsley earned Frontier Conference First-Team All-Conference honors while Jordan Overstreet made the second team and Maazin Butler was honorable mention.

Castro, a 6'3" sophomore from Huntley, Mont., averages 5.03 rebounds, 1.39 steals (11th in the conference) and 0.87 blocks (fourth in the conference) for the Bulldogs. He also contributes 6.23 points, 2.61 assists and constant all-out hustle. He is the son of Vincent and Kelly Castro and is majoring in elementary education.

Owsley leads the Bulldogs in scoring with 12.5 points per game, in rebounds with 8.31 and in blocks with 1.65. His blocks per game are also tops for the conference and rank fifth nationally. The 6'8" junior from Bozeman, Mont. has eight double-doubles on the season. His parents are Phil and Cris Owsley, and he is majoring in physical education K-12.

Overstreet, Montana Western's go-to player on the bench, is second in the conference with his 43-percent three-point shooting. He puts up 12.3 points per game and is sixth in the Frontier for his 77-percent shooting on free throws. Hailing from Three Forks, Mont., the sophomore is the son of John Overstreet and is majoring in elementary education.

STEVENSVILLE CLASS A CHAMPIONS

Stevensivlle steamed pass the Billings Central team in Class A Basketball championship game in the second half to take the win 75-59. The game was a close one for the first half with the Yellowjackets leading by only one 32-31 at halftime.

In the Consolation game, Columbia Falls squeezed by Laurel 48 to 46 to take third place in the Class A standings. The Wildcats had to hang on tight to the lead they had at halftime 21-15. They hit 15 of 21 free throws to help with that victory.

The Wildcats had defeated the Butte Central Maroons 64-47 on Saturday afternoon to get that advance to the consolation final game.
