MEDICAL MARIJUANA

Medical marijuana has not been on the front burner as it was in the 2011 Legislative session.

Lawmakers this year have introduced only a few medical marijuana related bills – most of them to clean up existing law to comply with court rulings.

The 2011 Legislature quickly passed a bill to repeal the initiative passed by Montana voters in 2004 to legalize medical marijuana for certain medical conditions. Then-Gov. Brian Schweitzer vetoed the bill. Current Senate President Jeff Essmann, R-Billings, got a bill through in the final weeks to impose tighter regulations on the industry and cut the profits out of what had been a fast rising business.

Those opposing the law got enough signatures to place it on the ballot as a referendum in November 2012. However, Montanans voted, by 57 percent to 43 percent, to keep it.

Those advocates of the medical marijuana are now trying to get this legislative session to amend the 2011 law that made much tighter restrictions on the cannabis industry.

Democrat Senator Dave Wanzonried from Missoula, recently introduced Senate Bill 377 for a group called Montana Association for Rights. The bill expands the law in some ways. The bill has been assigned to the Senate Business and Labor Committee, but he hopes to get it moved to the Judiciary Committee.

The bill may have a hard time because the Legislature in 2013 have killed all six other bills that have tried to amend the law.

As of last month, the numbers had dropped to about 7,500 cardholders and 300 providers which compares to 30,000 medical marijuana cards and about 4,400 providers registered with the state to supply pot to cardholders in 2011.

Sen. Wanzonried said this bill provides a seed-to-sale tracking system to track all products and provides a remedy for many of the lawsuits. He said the law as it is not has not proved to be workable.

With the lawsuits and the supply and demand, along with new bills put before lawmakers, this issue has certainly not gone away.

Letter to the Editor
Dillonite Daily

They did it again! You know what I am talking about! A plot to fool us, control us, confuse us, to make our lives down right miserable. Yes!! Daylight Saving Time! What are we suppose to do? I know, just change the clocks because "they" said so. Who are "they"? Do these "they" know how to tell time? What will happen to the hour we lost? We all will have jet lag without flying anywhere for the loss. You will probably fly off the handle because of the stress from the hour lost!

Saving time was invented by a person who does not know how to tell time. This person was in a zone, but not in a time zone.

"They", say Benjamin Franklin invented Daylight Saving time a long time ago. Many think Mr. Franklin should go fly a kite and leave time alone.

We all just lost an hour. I know a penny saved is a penny earned. But an hour lost is an hour lost. I know they will appoint a commission to help find the lost hour. Another big question is will the lost hour mean more taxes or less taxes? Who will compensate you for the lost hour?

I changed the clocks in my house, just turn the knob on the back of the clock. But what about the clock in my car? I tried to change the numbers. They did change but when the noon whistle blew my car clock said two thirty and a blinking red light. I now just want to get rid of that annoying blinking red light!

Daylight Saving Time causes much harm. It causes "time confusion". There is no know cure for this disease. Victims lose an hour and get lost in a "time warp."

Who is going to tell my dog it's not time to eat because the clock says so? My cat thinks it's time to eat all the time so he doesn't care what the clock says.

There are now major studies linking Daylight Saving time to Global Warming and causing politicians to prevaricate profusely!

Remember today is the first day of a time mess. The motto from "they", who said we should change our clock is: "if you can't convince them, confuse them." And they done did that. Or is it they did done that? Time will tell! Someone should tell!

ADOPT A PET

Rosie

ROSIE Is a 5 year-old, spayed, Black Lab. Rosie is a sweet girl, walks great on leash, knows commands. She is in need of a good home where someone is able to care for her allergies and provide grain free food and good nutrition. She is gentle and very loving!

ANDY is a 2 year-old, neutered, Chihuahua cross. Andy is an awesome little dog. He will make someone a great pal to buddy around with.

The Shelter has officially changed names. What was the Humane Society of Beaverhead County, is now the Beaverhead Animal Shelter. The main reason for the change is to disassociate from the Humane Society of the United States. Our local shelter has never received any money from the HSUS. All of the moneys used to run and improve the shelter has come from Grants, donations, Fundraisers such as the annual Spaghetti Dinner in April, Susie Brown's own pocket, and many dedicated workers who work hard with little to no pay (7 days a week, 365 days a year.)

If you would like to make a donation please call the Shelter at 683-8119. Please support Beaverhead Animal Shelter.

Government

"In 2007, the government was 40 percent smaller than it is today. Were poor people sleeping under bridges? Were the elderly starving? Were planes grounded? Was food unsafe to eat? Here's another question: Are Americans really this gullible? ... Democrats like to pretend that every last penny of government spending is wise, benevolent and essential. ... Sure, the government performs some necessary functions, but it is also vulnerable to abuse because nobody is watching. Consider the example of Al Gore. Upon leaving the vice presidency, Mr. Gore's net worth was estimated at $2 million. But with the advent of Mr. Obama's 'investments' in green energy, Mr. Gore has profited handsomely. His company, General Investment Management, invested in a number of companies that received 'green' subsidies. Gore's net worth (before the sale of Current TV to Al Jazeera) was estimated by the Washington Post to be $100 million. The Obama economy has been awful for average Americans but exceedingly profitable for the well connected. Some government spending is necessary, much is sinfully wasteful, and the remainder is corrupt. If Americans have stopped believing that then a key aspect of the American character is dead." --columnist Mona Charen

Beaver Head Hunters

The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will be holding their next meeting on Tuesday, March 19, at 7:00 pm in the Museum Research room. Have you ever thought that others could research their ancestors more effectively than you? Have you ever wanted more ideas on how to find your ancestors and keep your data organized? On Tuesday, Pat Darling will give us "Seven Hints for Being a Great Genealogist". Come and learn some techniques that others use. As always, the public is invited.

SHINE STUDIO FUNDRAISING

There are many dancers at the Shine Studio that are working on a fund raiser to help them go to competition in Billings. The girls have to each pay a registration fee for each dance. The fund raising will help them cover that cost. Some dancers are in several dances.

They are selling Scentsy products which are candles that are flameless, wickless, leadless and soot free. The warmers and plug ins have up to 80 scents to choose from. They also have lotion, lip balm, shower cream, shower gel, bath tablets, body butter and lotion along with hand soap, cream and sanitizer. If you would like to help the girls out and are not contacted, you can see a book and order sheet at Womack's Printing and Photo Express, 126 N. Montana Street. The orders are due by Wednesday, March 27.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES

Womack's Printing and Photo Express has gotten in some of the world famous Girl Scout Cookies to help out the different troops. At this time we have a couple cases of Thin Mints, Samoas, Dulce de Leche and Tagalongs. Hurry in while supplies last. There may be more coming but they don't last long. The cookies are $4 a box. Stop in 126 N. Montana Street or give us a call at 683-4903.
