To Whom It May Concern:

I just wanted to thank everyone who has supported the Dillon Cubs Baseball Program, in one way or another, during my tenure with the program. From great assistant coaches, to awesome players, to competitive opposing coaches, to hard-working board members, to supportive parents, to awesome media coverage and to the generous financial supporters of the program, I want to say thanks for all that you have done to help the Dillon Cubs in their quest for excellence.

For various reasons I have tendered my resignation (see below) as Head Coach of the Dillon Cubs Baseball Program. I wish the players the best and will miss them greatly but it is time to hand the reins over to someone else that can spend the time, energy, effort and resources that is required in a program of this magnitude. Once again, for those that supported myself and the program in one way or another over the last nine years, words cannot truly express my gratitude but I will still say I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Sincerely, Randy Shipman

Dear Dillon Cubs Board Of Directors,

It is with a heavy heart that I submit my letter of resignation as Head Coach of the Dillon Cubs Baseball Program to you. After coaching varsity baseball for the last twenty-four years and the Cubs for the past eight years the time has come to step aside and to make way for others to take on the challenge.

I am proud of the accomplishments that the Cubs have made under my tenure. We have competed every single year and 14 out of 21 senior players have gone on to realize their dream of playing college baseball; I am especially proud of this fact. Additionally, three others went on to play college football. Our program is one that is respected by true baseball people everywhere we go.

The current Board of Directors and past members of the Board have done a tremendous job supporting the program and growing it to where it is today. My hat is off to all of you for your dedication, commitment and efforts in making the Dillon Cubs a great organization. A special heartfelt thank you is extended to Ken Walsh and Rick Kuntz for your extraordinary efforts, time and support in dealing with an untenable situation. Individuals like you make all the difference in the world in the things that really matter.

I wish the Dillon Cubs Baseball Program and the players the best of luck in the upcoming season and the ensuing years. I will miss the players and the interaction with them immensely but I look forward to them continuing to play the great game of baseball.

Sincerely, Randy Shipman

THREE BUTTE AREA MEN PLEAD GUILTY TO HUNTING VIOLATIONS

Three Butte area men pled guilty in Jefferson County Justice Court late last week to charges stemming from a November 18 hunting incident in Aspen Valley Estates near Boulder.

According to witnesses and evidence gathered at the scene, John Foley and Michael Hoar of Butte, and Edmund McSweeney of Ramsay (along with a 15-year-old hunter) pursued a group of elk with a vehicle, trespassed through one property, and located the group of elk on another property. At that point, they began shooting into the herd from the road and continued firing while moving onto private property. One cow elk was killed, and at least three other cow elk were wounded. Two of the wounded elk were taken by hunters later that day.

No one in the group had the required license to hunt cow elk in the hunting district (HD 380), nor did they have permission from the private landowners. Each pled guilty to Hunting without License and Unlawful Possession of a Game Animal.

John Foley was fined $1,070.00 and ordered to pay restitution of $1000.00. He also lost his hunting, fishing and trapping privileges for 48 months. Both Michael Hoar and Edmund McSweeney were fined $1,035.00 and lost their hunting, fishing and trapping privileges for 48 months. The 15-year-old was not charged.

Boulder area Game Warden Justin Gibson said, "On top of the violations themselves and their blatant disregard for safety, it's really unfortunate to see the way in which these three adults modeled unlawful and unethical hunting behavior to the young hunter in their company. Hopefully, this will be a hard lesson learned."

Is this your Life?

By: MJ

Husband comes home and just grunts, sits down and waits for the evening meal.... Wife comes home, cooks and cleans up then sits down and reads a book, talks on phone... You're wondering what happened to the exciting love affair you shared. The reality of what your mother or father told you is coming true.

We fall in love during courtship and are in a euphoria state. Then two years later all that euphoria disappears because we have fallen back to what normal is in our culture.

Normal in our culture is to be self centered, have no communication with eye contact, have no trust or belief in others, do not listen or hear what others are saying, no respect for self or others... Our culture is coarse, narcissistic, egotistical, pig-headed arrogant...

Example of no communication; the lawn needed mowed and instead of talking about who would mow it the woman in relationship goes ahead and mows. Man in relationship then thinks she likes mowing the lawn so he does not have to do it. If she is willing to mow lawn then is the partner willing to be in the house taking care of kids, doing dishes...

Change your life. Today appreciate someone by telling them something nice, do something for them, give a gift or just say thank you. You will be a happier person.

FIRST DAFFODIL CONTEST

Spring is just around the corner and Dillon Garden Club is once again sponsoring the annual "First Daffodil Contest". This year's contest is in memory of Michael C Riley, long time Dillon gardener. The first Daffodil to raise its head and bloom in Dillon, you will be the lucky one to win a $10.00 prize. The second daffodil wins $7.50 and the third place daffodil wins $5.00.

Call us when your first daffodil blooms and you may be a lucky winner. Please call Cathy Speich-Ferguson at 683-4520, Sharon Quackenbush at 683-3625 or Marie Giere at 683-5350.

Montana Department of
LABOR & INDUSTRY
Commissioner's Office

New Scam Targets Montana Employers Asking for Account Information

The Montana Department of Labor and Industry is warning employers of a second scam targeting Montana employers. The Department has taken calls from employers who have received a letter allegedly from the Department of Labor requesting banking information noting that automatic withdrawals begin March 1, 2013. Neither the US Department of Labor, or the Montana Department of Labor and Industry's Unemployment Insurance Division have sent any letters out to employers asking for their banking information.

"This is the third time in less than six months that a scam asking for information has targeted Montana businesses. What makes this even more frustrating is the scammers are posing as the Department of Labor, and employers naturally want to comply with the information request", said Labor Commissioner Pam Bucy.

Bucy recommends that any Montana employer receiving this fraudulent request not reply with any information and call the Montana UID fraud investigator at (406) 444-1709 or email dliuidci@mt.gov with any questions.

There are many dancers at the Shine Studio that are working on a fund raiser to help them go to competition in Billings.

They are selling Scentsy products which are candles that are flameless, wickless, leadless and soot free. They also have lotion, lip balm, shower cream, shower gel, bath tablets, body butter and lotion along with hand soap, cream and sanitizer. If you would like to help the girls out and are not contacted, you can see a book and order sheet at Womack's Printing and Photo Express, 126 N. Montana Street. The orders are due by Wednesday, March 27.
