Helena Eudocia Rivera Strodtman

Helena Eudocia Rivera Strodtman, 84 of Jackson, Montana passed away peacefully at her home on March 14, 2013. She was born on March 12, 1929 in Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, Central America. Her parents were Luis Rivera and Francisca Molina Rivera. She was affectionately known in her family as "Dochita" in her youth. She started her schooling years at 3 years of age. She could have become a teacher in her country at the age of 16, but immigrated to the United States when she was 14. Helena left her home country of Nicaragua, just one month after her dear Mother had passed away from complications due to diabetes. Settling in Salt Lake City with her oldest sister Maria Luisa (Marie), Helena had a student visa, which allowed her to attend West High School in Salt Lake City for one year. In 1949 she married Walter Zobell, and to this union a son, Walter Jr. was born. They later divorced.

In 1952 Helena moved to the Big Hole Valley of Montana with her sister Marie's family and her son Walter. During this time she met her future husband, Dale Strodtman. Dale "courted" her for two years until they were married on April 20, 1954 in Elko, Nevada. To this union a daughter, Frances Elizabeth, was born in 1955. Dale and Helena enjoyed forty-eight years of being life partners, building a successful ranching operation and creating a proud legacy.

Helena being a native of a "tropical" climate had to quickly adapt to the cold weather and harsh winters of the Big Hole Valley and her "New" ranching life style. With the help of kind neighbor ladies, Helena learned to cook for hay crews, plant gardens, make a comfortable home, feed "bum" calves and became a real rancher's wife. She achieved all this while learning to master the English language. For over fifty years she served as an interpreter in many situations between ranch workers and their bosses in the Big Hole Valley to international shooting competition officials and shooting competitors in South America and Europe. Her knowledge and being bi-lingual was a great asset for her in many situations. Helping her son and daughter train for their international shooting competitions as member of the U.S. Shooting Team was a source of great pride for her. She traveled with them to Canada, Switzerland, Mex-arrived at dinner time. She was famous for her "sourdough" hotcakes and hot rolls. Her watermelon pickles, cream mints, and gooseberry syrup were "hot" items at the numerous fundraising bazaars held in the Big Hole Valley. Since 2004 she really enjoyed cooking for her Amish "hay crews". She loved teasing them and "feeding" them her sourdough hotcakes, and hot rolls. Someone would always receive the infamous "string pancake" before haying was done. She would have a great laugh, always choosing her favorite to receive the string pancake.

She was preceded in death by her Mother and Father, her loving husband, Dale in 2002, her sisters Marie Davis and Lucy Machado. She is survived by her son; Water (Beverly) Zobell, daughter; Frances Strodtman (Rodney) Royer, grandsons; Clay (Anna) Zobell, Gage Zobell, and Dale Royer. Nieces; Francie (Tony) Cleverly of Butte, Linda Quakenbush of Butte, Vera (Steve) Winn of Rigby, Idaho. Nephews; Harold Davis and Willie Davis of Texas, Wayne (Pam) Strodtman, W. Gary (Bonnie) Strodtman, Eric Strodtman, and Darl Strodtman, all of Kansas. Cousins; Pete (Ginny) Aguilar, Jordan (Goldman) Nyhart and daughter, Belle, of Livingston, Delia, Raymond, Michael, Marsha, and Kathy Daley, and Elbita Padilla of Los Angeles, CA, Magda Rouse and Donna Wolfe of Boca Raton, Florida, "special family" Maite and Alfredo Avila and daughters, Isabel, Anna, Regina, and Begonia of Idaho Falls, Idaho. She also leaves behind numerous grand-nieces and nephews. She leaves behind her dear friends Mary Ellen Moe of Butte, Jean Applegate of Missoula, Rita Tysel of Medicine Lake, WA, Dean Barnes of Dillon, Diane Schindler of Belgrade and Rita Rodriguez of Dillon.

The family wishes to thank Dr. Weed, Marie Holt, and Nancy Thompson of the Barrett Hospice for their kindness and support during Helena's last days. A vigil service will be held on Sunday, March 17th at 5 PM with visitation following from 6 – 8 PM. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Monday, March 18th at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church at 12:10. Committal services will be Tuesday, March 19th at the Lone Tree Cemetery on the family ranch at 2 PM. Memorial contributions may be made to Bagdad Transportation Fund Shriners Childrens Hospital, 314 W. Park St., Butte, Montana, the Dillon YMCA or a charity of your choice.

ico, Brazil, Argentina, and Venezuela. Helena could travel throughout the United States and the world, but was never happier than being in her yard tending to her many plants and flowers. Friends and neighbors would come to Helena for advice on raising plants and "starts" from her numerous plants. During the winter months of snow and cold, she turned her home into an atrium with literally hundreds of house plants.

She became a U.S. Citizen on May 20, 1975 at the Federal Court House in Butte, Montana, along with her cousin Pete Aguilar. Neither one knew the other was becoming a citizen until minutes before their swearing in ceremony, they met in the Court House halls. It was a proud day for both of them. They became "gringos"!!

Helena was a devout Roman Catholic. For nearly sixty years she supported the Our Lady of Wisdom Mission of St. Rose Catholic Parish in the Big Hole Valley, serving as a Catechism teacher, fundraiser for the St. Margaret Guild, and a weekly attendee at Mass. She never wavered in her faith during adversity.

Helena also had a sense of style and grace. As a student at the Normal school in Managua, Nicaragua she was the "Herald" of the marching band during the school's parades. She led the school with pride and dignity. She was very athletic, playing basketball and roller skating. During adult years she was an avid bowler for 1960 to 1981, bowling in Ladies leagues and Friday night "Mixed" leagues.

She was a "tomboy" in her youth, but was a beautiful "lady" in her adult years. She always knew the "proper way" to do things. She was very considerate of her elderly friends, visiting them in the Rest Homes, taking them special foods, or simply being their friend to the end. She always had room for one more at her dinner table, if someone

DON'T BREAK THE CHAIN

Don't Break the Chain is the name of a FCCLA (Family, Career and Community Leaders of America) project presented at the Beaverhead County High School on Thursday, March 14th by Jennifer Womack and Sienna Mark, both freshmen students.

They have done a school survey to gather information about distracted driving. They have done a poster campaign leading up to an assembly on Thursday in which they had three students that have been in serious accidents speak. Jesse Alberi then spoke to the student body as the main speaker for the presentation.

Jace Kuntz spoke briefly about the importance of wearing your seat belt and not being just another statistic.

Lauren Mussard explained that she wouldn't be here without wearing her seat belt in the accident she was involved in.

Kaitlin Kimzey talked to the students about the long term effects that not wearing your seat belt can have. She felt that she would not have the trouble she does with her leg if she would have been wearing her seat belt when she was in an accident.

Jesse Alberi silenced the students and had thier attention when he came out in his wheel chair and spoke about how making the choice not to put on his seatbelt effected his family, friends and himself.

Pledge slips were handed out and students that wanted to signed the slips. They are being made into a chain for each class. The hope is to not break the chain. The chain can only be broken if a student has an accident and they are not wearing their seatbelt, or if it invovles alcohol, texting or some form of distracted driving. The girls hope to not drop a link from the chain while they finish their four years of highschool.

They will take this project to state competition March 24 in Billings hoping to advance to national competition and spread the word of being safe while driving.

SAGU HELD OFF A STRONG COMEBACK

SAGU (Texas) held off a strong second-half run by Montana Western, 84-79, to advance to the semifinals of the 2013 Buffalo Funds-NAIA Division I Men's Basketball National Championship.

SAGU will make its first-ever appearance in the semifinals of the national championship. SAGU held off a furious comeback by Montana Western; as the Bulldogs scored 67 points in the second half, to hold on to win by five points.

"Weird is normal," said SAGU head coach Donnie Bostwick. "That team (Montana Western) doesn't ever quit. Their comeback was impressive."

SAGU started the first half on a 15-5 run that was keyed by the Lions Dominique Rambo, with seven points. SAGU's defensive effort was impressive as the Lions kept Montana Western's two buckets three minutes apart.

The poor shooting for Montana Western continued in the first half as the Bulldogs were shooting 15 percent, 3-of-27, in the first 13 minutes of the contest. SAGU led Montana Western, 23-8, with seven minutes to go before halftime.

Montana Western's shooting did not improve in the last seven minutes of the game, as SAGU went on an 11-4 run to close out the half. SAGU held a 24- point lead with 1:39 left, the largest lead for the Lions in the first half.

With 10 minutes to go in the game the Lions led by 20, 55-35. Then Montana Western's offense clicked into gear.. In the next five minutes of the contest, Bulldogs went on a 22-7 run.

During this five minute stretch for Montana Western, the Bulldogs trimmed SAGU's lead down to five points, 62-57. Leading the Bulldogs in this stretch were Kris Collins and Vince Turk, with nine and seven points, respectfully.

The Bulldogs continued to battle for the remainder of the game. SAGU extended its five-point lead back to double-digits with two minutes left in the game. The Bulldogs fought back and were within five points, 76-71, 50 seconds to go in the game. The Lions were a perfect 8-for-8 from the charity stripe in the final minute to secure an 84-79 victory.

"I am proud of our effort," said Montana Western head coach Steve Keller. "We are a young team, and we didn't know what to expect when we came to Kansas City. We didn't' quit and that says a lot about our character."

Kris Collins came off the bench to lead Montana Western with 21 points, 7-of-12 from behind the arc. Vince Turk followed with 19 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the floor. After shooting 14.8 percent in the first half, Montana Western shot 51 percent in the second half. After shooting 1-of-12 from behind the arc in the first half, the Bulldogs made 12-of-22 threes in the second half.
