AMERICAN HISTORY ESSAY CONTEST

Two representatives from the Silver Bow Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Chapter Regent Jennifer Buckley and Chapter Secretary Diane Sholey, traveled to Reichle School to present awards to two students who placed in the American History Essay Contest.

Josephine Yahraes, daughter of Kerrie Gillet, was the first place winner in the fifth grade division, and Hannah Hansen, daughter of Greg and Christine Hansen placed third in the same division.

The topic was "Forgotten Patriots Who Supported American Struggle for Independence." Both of the essays covered women who were unsung heroes. The first place essay was sent to compete in the state competition, and Yahraes has received notice that her essay was chosen as the State Fifth Grade winner. She will receive her award next month in Billings, and her essay has now been forwarded to be judged at the Divisional Level.

The teachers at Reichle are Sue Webster and Becky Jensen.

CITY HAPPENINGS

By: Lynn Westad

I under the weather for a few weeks and missed a couple of council meetings. As I understand the City is getting off to a slow beginning for the first part of the year. I guess that is good. All council members present except Ray White.

I will mention a few things that are happening in the City. The Tree Board has been supervising a contractor who has finished trimming or removing all the dead trees at the cemetery. This has been a huge improvement at the cemetery so visit the cemetery.

The bids for the sewer lagoon project came in and have been carefully reviewed. The bid selected was approved by the council Wed. night so the work will begin soon. This was the only action item on the agenda so the meeting was over quickly.

The monthly finance report by the treasurer was given and with his hard work and the Finance Committee the financial status of the city is stable and the city is in the best financial condition it has been in for years.

There were no committee reports from the eight committees. So after a lot of no reports comments the meeting was adjourned.

RUMOR ON STREET IS TRUE:

By: MJ

Several weeks ago there was a rumor on the street that the Interpreter Center (log building at the end of Montana Street) had been sold to a couple of local businessmen. This building was built with your tax dollars.

Why was the building not offered to the entire public by advertising it for sale on the open market (MLS)? Did Beaverhead Economic Development Committee represent the public getting the highest dollar by selling it to select people and not putting it out for bids?

Beaverhead County, with your tax dollars, purchased 1.29± acres in 2001 for $35,000±. Several years later the county deeded the land to the Beaverhead Economic Development Committee.

After Stoltz Lumber closed the intentions were to apply for federal grants (taxpayer's dollars) to construct a building that would support the local economics by providing a place for local entrepreneurs to display brochures, videos and other forms of advertisement. Example: The logs used in the building were hollowed out and filled with insulation by a local businessman looking to expand his business. People making furniture from small diameter timber would have been another example.

The building was offered to the city and county for the outstanding debt remaining of $65,000±. Unless you would have been at the city or county meetings you the John Q public would have had no idea the building was for sale.

JS Turner is the chairman of the Beaverhead Economic Committee and Ty Cobb is the treasurer. If you would like more information contact them.

Is this politics at work in your community -- at your expense?

WOULD you of like to of had an opportunity to buy a beautiful log building at half the price of its worth?
