HELEN PAIGE, 99

Helen Paige, 99, died on Sunday, March 24, 2013, at the Granite County Medical Center in Philipsburg.

Helen was born in Lavina on Oct. 22, 1913, to Elizabeth (Dwyer) Bayers and Arthur C. Bayers. She was the oldest of six children.

While in grade school, Helen rode a horse to school. Her family moved to Coberg, Ore., when she was a child and then returned to grow up in Dillon. She graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1932 and attended Dillon Normal for two years. She taught school in a country school in the Big Hole Valley for two years.

Helen met Boynton (Dub) Paige while he was teaching high school and coaching in Twin Bridges. They were married at the Bayers Ranch on Dec. 26, 1934. Following their marriage, they moved to Ronan, where Boynton was employed at the Ronan Bank. Their son, Ronald and daughter, Gail were born while they resided in Ronan.

Boynton was asked to move to Philipsburg and start the Flint Creek Valley Bank. They moved to Philipsburg in 1940, and Helen has resided there ever since.

Helen was an outstanding basketball player in high school and one coach said he wished she could play on the men's team. She was an excellent golfer, winning many titles and women's invitationals.

Her husband, Boynton, her parents, her sisters Beatrice Staninger, Jeanne Lemm, Bertha Rossiter and Wanda Ellig, a niece, Jane Rossiter, nephew, Ken Staninger, and great-nephew David Rossiter preceded Helen in death.

Family remaining are her son, Ron (Judy) Paige of Philipsburg; daughter, Gail (Wyley) Good of Fort Benton; grandchildren, Denise Paige (David) Anderson of London, England, Heather Paige, Suzanne Paige, Rebecca Good Agamenoni (Mike), Paula Good Pease (Brent), Jennifer Good Downey (Mike), and Charles (Tami) Good; her brother, Byron (Pauline) of Twin Bridges; 11 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

She loved sports. Helen and Dub did not miss many Grizzly football or basketball games in Missoula. Watching her grandchildren perform and cheering on her great-grandsons was a highlight for her. She was a lady all her life.

Helen never had the opportunity to own a bicycle and consequently she could never ride one. She always loved music and took piano lessons when her daughter did, but was told by her teacher she either had to have nice nails or nice music.

She was a member of St. Andrews Episcopal Church, helping clean and set up the altar, for many years. Father John Toles was a dear friend and supporter for Helen.

A celebration of her life will be held at a later date.

Memorials in Helen's name may be made to St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Philipsburg or to the Ken Staninger Scholarship Fund at the University of Montana Foundation in Missoula.

Longfellow-Finnegan-Riddle Funeral & Cremation Services are entrusted with Helen's funeral arrangements.

PAY RAISE CLEARS HOUSE

Wednesday the house stood behind a pay raise for Montana State workers and a pair of bills to fix the public pension funds. The bills need a final vote before they can move on into the Senate.

As the bill is written now it gives a lump sum for raises but is less then Governor Steve Bullock had budgeted. It is to be given to the lower pay bands and those who did not get a base pay increase in the last couple years. The reason behind this is that more than half of the executive branch workers had received pay raises in 2012 while many workers had not. The money in the bill also covers raises for the legislative and judicial branches along with the University system.

RANGER DISTRICTS MERGING

Forest Service has been directed to cut costs at its facilities so they had a meeting at the Wise River Community Building this week to discuss a possible merger of the Wise River and Wisdom Ranger Districts. The idea is out there to make the Wisdom Ranger District the home of the district ranger and the rest of the staff and then turning the Wise River District into a work center.

The meeting went on for a hour and a half with over 50 people attending. It was pointed out that there will be another meeting in Wisdom and nobody has made any final decisions on what will be done. It is important for fire suppression that both places have some kind of station.

A work center has limited employees and does not have all the services for the public. The location that is the full station will possibly get the deferred maintenance money to cover upgrades. The deferred maintenance cost estimate for Wisdom is $1.3 million and the estimate for Wise River was $1.2 million for the deferred maintenance. The Wise River district had a new fire warehouse built in 2001.

After the meetings, recommendations will be sent to Washington and then it may take a year or more for changes to begin. There are 12 permanent positions at Wise River with 11 people working and 11 permanent positions at Wisdom with 8 of them full at this time. The Ranger is Russ Riebe and he works both places at this time.

The discussion included several other options as well as making both districts into work stations and sending most of the staff to Butte of Dillon.
