Full obituary will follow.

INFORMATION SOUGHT IN MOUNTAIN LION POACHING CASE

Last week a young, female mountain lion was found shot and killed on Point of Rocks Road south of Whitehall in Madison County. FWP Enforcement is looking for help from the public in locating the person or persons responsible. Anyone with related information is asked to call (800) TIP-MONT. Callers may be eligible for a reward.

In Region 3, all mountain lion hunting districts are quota-based. Most quotas for hunt districts in the region have been met. This is indeed the case for lion HD 320/333 where this incident took place. The winter season was closed to hunting females on December 12 while it closed for all lions on December 22.

BARRETT HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE TO BEGIN CONSTRUCTION OF KENNEDY TRAIL

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is slated to begin construction of the "Kennedy Trail," a paved walking/bike path that will loop around the new hospital campus. The 10 foot wide-asphalt trail will include landscaped areas, trees and benches.

After a "request for bids" was issued, two local contractors, RE Miller & Sons and Rowe Excavation, each submitted project bids for constructing the trail. On March 27, 2013 the five-member Hospital Board of Trustees reviewed the bid packages, and unanimously awarded the contract to RE Miller & Sons.

Construction of the trail is expected to take up to four weeks, weather permitting. The second phase of the project will then include the planting of trees and bushes and re-establishing grass.

According to Barrett Hospital & HealthCare CEO Ken Westman, "We are tremendously excited about having the Kennedy Trail available to our patients, visitors and staff. This is a great asset to the Hospital and our community, and we will encourage people to use it as a recreational opportunity and a chance to enjoy our campus."

Funding for the Kennedy Trail was provided by Jim & Sarah Kennedy as part of their $1 million gift to Barrett Hospital Foundation. The remaining funds were used towards the cost of building the new hospital and the lobby was also named in honor of Jim and Sarah Kennedy.

For more information, please contact Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Foundation at (406) 683-6737.
