Williams spent 30 years as a classroom teacher and education administrator. After retiring from Congress, he taught at the University of Montana and is an O'Connor Center Senior Fellow Emeritus.

University of Montana Western Chancellor Richard Storey said he is proud the distinguished couple will be addressing the class of 2013.

"Last summer, I asked the Williams' to give our 2013 Commencement address," Storey said. "I'm happy to say that we will not have one but two distinguished Montanans sending off our graduates."

The Montana Western 2013 Commencement will begin at 11 a.m. in the Straugh Gymnasium in the Bulldog Athletic and Recreation Center (BARC) on the UMW campus. A reception will follow on the lawn outside the BARC or in the adjacent Keltz Arena in case of inclement weather.

Night of Stars recognizes Montana Western's exemplary education alumni and students.

Night of STARS Educator's Hall of Fame
Friday, April 26, 2013

The University of Montana Western announces the second annual Night of Stars and Educator's Hall of Fame celebration. As you know, generations of teachers in Montana and around the region began their journey at the Montana State Normal School, Western Montana College and the University of Montana Western. Though the name has changed, the legacy has not.

To honor our teaching luminaries, the Education Department is partnering with the UMW Foundation and Alumni Office on Friday, April 26, 2013. Together we will celebrate all the teachers who make a positive difference in the lives of children.

The 2013 award winners include:

Lifetime Achievement Award: Dr. Joseph McDonald
Hall of Fame Awards: Ms. Tammy Hurley
 Ms. Ingrid "Joy" Kaushagen
 Mr. Tom Marinkovich
 Dr. Terry Souhrada
Legacy Award: Ms. Elsie Dondanville

Our first Night of Stars was an unqualified success, as two of last year's attendees can testify:

"The Night of Stars was the most memorable event of recognition that the campus has ever had."
 —Alyssa Matter Creighton, UMW Alumna

"The idea of an Educator's Hall of Fame is brilliant. I think you should expand this idea across the country."
 —2011 Naismith Hall of Fame Inductee Tara VanDerveer

The 2012 honorees made us all proud to be educators, fulfilling the purpose of this event: celebrating the crucial role teachers play in building a civilization is a long overdue debt, and we want to show the world how much we appreciate those inspiring educators who began their life's work in Dillon.

If anyone is interested in attending the ceremony, you can contact the alumni office at 683-7306 for ticket information.

NEWS

PENNSYLVANIA MAN GUILTY OF HUNTING VIOLATIONS IN FOUR COUNTIES

A Pennsylvania man was recently ordered to pay a total of $5,180 in fines and restitution for misdemeanor big-game hunting violations in four Montana counties.

John Feucht, 29, of Camp Hill, Penn., pleaded guilty in Missoula County Justice Court in Missoula, Mont., to purchasing a resident license for non-resident use during the 2010 big game hunting season. He was fined $1,035 for that violation.

- In Park County Justice Court in Livingston, Mont., Feucht was ordered to pay $3,340 in fines and restitution for killing and possessing a bull elk in 2010, a bull elk in 2011, a white-tailed deer buck in 2010, and a white-tailed deer buck in 2011 without valid licenses. Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks Warden Todd Anderson of Glasgow said Feucht also used resident licenses as a non-resident while hunting these animals.

- In Gallatin County Justice Court in Bozeman, Mont., Feucht also pleaded guilty to purchasing a resident big-game license for non-resident use. He was fined $135 for that violation.

- In Lewis and Clark County Justice Court in Helena, Mont., Feucht pleaded guilty and paid fines totaling $670 for purchasing a resident elk license and elk permit for non-resident use.

In addition, Feucht lost his hunting, fishing and trapping privileges for 24 months in Montana and the 38 other states participating in the Interstate Wildlife Violator Compact.

FWP wardens traveled to Pennsylvania last year to further investigate Feucht's illegal activities. There they were helped by Pennsylvania Game Commission officers. Two bull elk and a whitetail buck were seized in the process.
