THE DILLON GARDEN CLUB HOSTS HUMANITIES MONTANA SPEAKERS BUREAU PROGRAM "BUTTE, THE COSMOPOLITAN CITY OF MONTANA" WITH TOM SATTERLY

Dillon, April 20

The Dillon Garden will host Montana Speakers Bureau program "Butte, the Cosmopolitan City of Montana" with Tom Satterly on Saturday April 20. The program will be at 1:30pm at the Beaverhead Golf Club. The presentation is free and open to the public. Partial funding for the Speakers Bureau program is provided by a legislative grant from Montana's Cultural Trust and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Come to Butte -- the richest hill on Earth, a mile high and a mile deep, the cosmopolitan city of Montana, the "Gibraltar of unionism," and a microcosm of the Industrial Age! Shift change in Butte was a shuffling rumble of thousands of men from Wales, Finland, Austria, Ireland, Croatia, Italy, China, Syria, England, every state in the U.S., and just about everywhere else. Butte was always open: Italian supper clubs in Meaderville, boarding houses in Finntown, the Columbia gardens, streetcars, the joints uptown, and everybody's kitchens.

Tom Satterly, a descendant of early Butte families, brings you stories, songs, food lore, eccentric characters, a dance or two, and a reminder that every town in Montana is related in some important way to Butte. Satterly is also department manager of the Environmental Sciences Department at The University of Montana-Western in Dillon.

As Tom travels around Montana, he looks forward to meeting people with their own stories about Butte.

BEAVERS' HITTING GOING 3 FOR 5

In the Beavers Softball game yesterday, freshman, Lauren Holtan pitched the whole game and had 6 strikeouts.

Sophomore, Kimee Hritsco-Murray led the Beavers' hitting going 3 for 5 with 2 RBI's, and hit her first (and the team's first) over the fence homerun. It was a hard hit ball deep over center field. Addie Hansen went 2 for 3 with a single, a double which turned into an in-the-park homerun, and 4 RBI's. Rachael Bowe hit a stand up triple to deep right center.

Defensively, we made two great throws to home saving a couple of runs - one from Addie Hansen in center field and one from Brandi Lovaas at short. Hristco-Murray has been solid behind the plate thus far which continued in the Anaconda game. Taylor Chase had another good game at first making a great stretch and put-out to end the game. Kenzie Stanchfield made some athletic plays in left doing everything she could to keep the ball from getting through.

"I am extremely proud of all of the girls and all of the hard work they've put into this first part of the season!" said Andrea Schurg.

RUMORS ON THE STREET

By: MJ

A local landscaper (Bill A.) would like to share the knowledge he gained last week-end while on a horn hunting trip. Bill was driving down the road or trail when his truck came to an abrupt stop and sinking to the frame in a bog. To Bill's disbelief he was in a chaotic (completely out of control) situation.

Bill has a 4- wheeler; however on this day he made a decision to leave it home. One of those decisions he lived to regret. His cell phone battery was losing power quickly, and a signal only existed on the mountain tops. It was cold, windy, miles to go for help, getting dark and the wolves were roaming free.

Finally getting a bar on his cell phone, at the top of a mountain (hill), Bill sends a text for help; only to be asked if he was telling the truth or joking around. I cannot repeat his reply. A message was relayed to his friend Parke who got dressed and set out to rescue him.

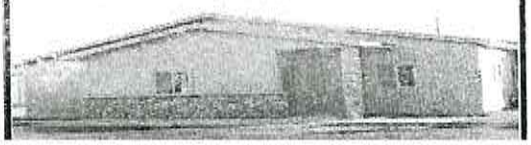

After a 8+/- mile hike, a soak in the bath tub felt good; however do to age & maybe a little out of physical shape, the next day the soak did little to relieve the distressed muscles. Pain set in to remind him to take his 4-wheeler and put a new battery in his cell phone.
