Max Baucus, United States Senator

April 26, 2013

Dear Friends,

Serving you is the greatest privilege of my life. Over the past 40 years, I've had one goal: make life better for the people of this state.

You don't become longest serving Senator in Montana without a lot of help from a lot of people.

I am grateful for the opportunity you have given me.

When I asked my hero Mike Mansfield whether I should run for U.S. Senate, he told me it would take: a lot of hard work, a lot of shoe leather, and a bit of luck.

In the next year and a half, instead of on campaigning, I want to spend all my hard work, shoe leather, and luck working hard for the people of Montana.

This was not an easy decision, but the last few months I've felt the calling:

It whispered to me among the elk resting in a meadow east of the Bridger Mountains.

I heard it as thousands of snow geese flew over the Rocky Mountain Front.

The pull came up from my soul like the ducks that rose in clouds from the winter wheat fields of Teton County at dusk.

And, I thought I might never go back to Washington when we got stuck in the mud trying to drive through the Castle Mountains a few weeks ago.

My mother, Jean, was Montana through and through. Losing her in 2011 reminded me how precious our time is, and how blessed I am to spend my time on earth as a Montanan.

I'm not just from a Montana family. I'm from a Montana ranching family. The soil is in my blood. At the end of 2014, it will be time to come home.

I've dedicated much of my life to keeping Montana lands open. I'm excited to enjoy Montana's special places with the special people in my life.

With my wife, Melodee, I'm happier than I've ever been. We made this decision together. We are looking forward to spending more time hiking Montana trails, and enjoying time with our children - Zeno, his wife Stephanie, Katie, and Joey - at our new home in Bozeman.

One more thing I love about Mel is the two wonderful children she's brought into my life. Seeing Katie and Joey together reminds me how much I'm looking forward to being closer to my brother John.

Helena folks, don't get sore about Bozeman. Helena will always be my hometown. I'm thrilled Zeno and Stephanie are now in our family home.

As your Senator, I've been blessed with opportunities to do great things. But without a doubt, the thing I am most proud of is being Zeno's father.

I want to make one thing very clear: there is important work left to do, and I intend to spend the next year and a half getting it done. I'm not turning out to pasture.

I am doubling down on legislation to permanently protect the American side of the North Fork watershed and keep the Rocky Mountain Front the way it is for future generations. I am putting everything I've got into leaving Montana with strong Highway and Farm Bills.

And I'm going full steam ahead to put on the best Economic Development Summit yet.

I am focused on simplifying the tax code, tackling the debt, passing trade agreements, and implementing affordable healthcare for families.

Above all else, I want you to know I am grateful for the privilege to serve you. I look forward to working with you as I continue to serve the state I love for the next year and a half.

Thank you. Now let's get to work.

All the best,

Max Baucus

It's never to early to plan for graduation.

FRENCHTOWN AND BIG SKY JV SOFTBALL

Our 1st game versus Frenchtown Friday was a heartbreaker as we lost in the bottom of the 6th (called for time) 14-15. We led the whole game, but it just got away from us in the end. With 1 out and the bases loaded with the winning run on 3rd, Frenchtown's Moe hit a blooper over 2nd. Center fielder, Rachael Bowe made a spectacular diving catch for the 2nd out and then came up throwing. However, we were unable to keep the baserunner from scoring. She got to home so quickly we thought she couldn't have tagged up, but after appealing, the call stood.

Brandi Lovaas Threw for 4.5 innings and did an outstanding job on the mound giving up 5 earned runs on 8 hits, while striking out 2 and walking only 2. Lauren Holtan pitched the last inning and a half giving up only 1 hit while walking 5.

Frenchtown is known for their great pitchers, but Kimee Hritsco-Murray gave her teammates some confidence when at her first at-bat, she hit a long ball over the left field fence which was called foul by just inches. She then went 3 for 4 at the plate with 1 RBI, 2 runs and 3 stolen bases. Kenzie Stanchfield went 2 for 3 with 1 RBI and 2 stolen bases. Hailey Montgomery went 2 for 4 with 2 RBI's, Rachael Bowe went 2 for 4 with 2 RBI's, and Kansis Stoddard went 2 for 4 with 1 RBI.

****

In the 2nd game versus Big Sky JV, the Lady Beavers came out on top of that nail-biter 6-5.

Holtan started on the mound and pitched for 1 complete inning.

Lovaas came in in the 2nd and once again threw another great game. She gave up 1 run on 3 hits, and had 5 strikeouts.

Offensively, we beat them with our short game and aggressive base running which we have been working hard on in practice. Addie Hansen led the attack going 2 for 2 at the plate, scoring 3 runs and she had 3 stolen bases. Rachael Bowe went 2 for 2 laying down perfect bunts for hits each time. Hritsco-Murray went 2 for 4 with a single and a triple. And, Hailey Montgomery went 1 for 2 driving in the winning run at the top of the 6th with a stand up double to left.

NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

MONTANA CHILDREN'S TRUST FUND

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month. Child maltreatment includes all types of abuse and neglect of a child under the age of 18 by a parent, caregiver, or another person in a custodial role. There are four common types of abuse: physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse, and neglect. Child maltreatment has a negative effect on the health of children. Abused children frequently suffer from physical injuries such as bruises, burns, and broken bones. Child maltreatment can also disrupt and harm the development of a child's brain, nervous system, and immune system. As adults, children who are abused or neglected are at higher risk for health problems such as depression, alcoholism, eating disorders, high –risk sexual behaviors, and suicide.

According to the United States Government Accountability Office, more than five children die each day as a result of child maltreatment. More than 1,825 children die each year in the United States due to child abuse and/or neglect. This is horrifying. Each and every young life could be saved. The maltreatment of children can be prevented. In an effort to raise awareness surrounding the devastation of child maltreatment, the Women's Resource/Community Support Center and several children within our community have assembled pinwheels that have been placed in front of Beaverhead County Courthouse. These pinwheels represent the children that die each week in our nation as a result of children maltreatment. We, as parents, grandparents, and children, ask that our fellow community members take a moment to notice the visual representation of young lives lost each week. We hope that each individual, as well as the community as a whole, does their part to prevent the maltreatment of children.
