The Bureau of Land Management's Dillon Field Office is looking for public comment on a proposal to increase the rental fee of the Henneberry House, a historic cabin along the Beaverhead River about 15 miles south of Dillon.

The BLM is considering charging $75 a night for use of the cabin. The BLM also proposes to increase the developed campground fees along the Madison River from $8 a night to $12 a night, at dispersed camping sites from $5 a night to $8 a night and increase the daily rental rate at Axolotl Cabin from $50 to $75.

Comments are needed by June 1.

TO THE EDITOR

Submitted by Chuck Dishno

"The difference between the path toward greater freedom or bigger government is the difference between success and failure; between opportunity and coercion; between faith in a glorious future and fear of mediocrity and despair; between respecting people as adults, each with a spark of greatness, and treating them as helpless children to be forever dependent; between a drab, materialistic world where Big Brother rules by promises to special interest groups, and a world of adventure where everyday people set their sights on impossible dreams, distant stars, and the Kingdom of God." --Ronald Reagan
