Rosemary Genevieve Bourn Rieber

Rosemary Genevieve Bourn Rieber passed away from complications of a massive stroke on May 4, 2013 at the Renaissance Senior Center on Center Street in Dillon.

Rosemary was born in Ekalaka, Montana on November 3, 1919 to William and Nettie (Stepanek) Bourn. When she was a year old her parents returned to Ainsworth, Nebraska where she grew up. She was the eighth of nine children.

She came to Reichle (Glen) Montana to visit her sister and brother in law and met her husband John C. Rieber. They were married on June 18, 1942 in Lima.

Rosemary became a "Mother" on Mother's Day, May 14, 1944, giving birth to her twin daughters Rosemary and Regina. She would also have another daughter Edith and her only son John.

She and her husband ranched on Rock Creek for seventy years. Her son John remains on the family ranch along with his son Chris. This is the 4th generation on the ranch.

Rosemary's life revolved around her family. She enjoyed raising her four children, working on the ranch, cooking, gardening, canning, embroidering and crocheting. She was the ultimate homemaker.

Rosemary was an active member of St. John's Catholic Church in Melrose. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, six brothers and two sister.

She is survived by her daughter, Rosemary (Richard) Wenger (Billings), Regina (John) Maki (Dillon), Edith (Frank) Stanchfield (Wise River), and son John W. (Michele) Rieber (Glen). Also surviving are twelve grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorials can be made to the Barrett Hospital and Hospice or the charity of your choice.

There is a visitation scheduled for Thursday, May 9th from 5 – 7 PM with a vigil service starting at 7 PM at Brundage Chapel. Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Friday, May 10th at 12:10 PM at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church. A guestbook is available on-line at www.brundagefuneralhome.com

Finding Your Anchor

Ways to choose and use an anchor that will help you stay on Plan

Article By: Amanda Genge

Like a superhero armed with a trusty utility belt, when you're trying to lose weight, it's helpful to have a secret weapon you can turn to in a crisis. Anchoring is an effective strategy you can use to connect with positive memories and feelings that can restore your confidence, determination and belief in yourself.

The right fit matters

An anchor can be anything you choose, anything you associate with those power-boosting emotions: sights, sounds, smells, textures, tastes, people, places or things.

Remember, anything that puts you in a positive frame of mind and conjures up a time when you felt strong and confident will do the trick — and it doesn't have to be a tangible object. Favorite quotes and prayers can work, too.

Be Your Own Best Inspiration

If you have wondered if you can keep the weight off or if you start to give up, you can remember that you've come a long way, baby. Why not use your own success to keep you motivated?

Try using the following as reminders of your own journey:

• Keep an old photo of yourself at your top weight. Stash it in a secret place, such as a pocket in your purse that's easy to access.

• Keep a pair of your "heavy" pants. Display them in a part of your closet that you always see.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

If you complain about farmers and ranchers, don't complain with your mouth full!

Spring Classes at the Mountain Springs Art Center

Providing art education opportunities for area residents is a majo focus of the Mountain Springs Art Center. Under the direction of Dor Watkins, the art center houses a gallery featuring local artists, Montana Treasures (a made-in-Montana boutique), a clay studio, Britts Bake Shop and the New Vision Education Facility. Private studio space is also available for a nominal fee.

According to Watkins, "It is our goal to see that the community has an art center that encourages creativity and personal expression. To ward that end, we encourage beginners and experienced artists to take advantage of our classes and our gallery." Jean James, who currently teaches at the art center, is quick to say that other artists are invited to share their expertise in the New Vision Education Center.

"I love teaching in this atmosphere, "says James. This is a growing enterprise and there is a feeling of excitement and enthusiasm with in the walls." The spring class schedule includes classes in pottery stained glass and silk painting. For pottery students who are work ing on beginning techniques, Watkins is offering a class in beginning intermediate techniques. This class includes materials, firing, instruc tion, as well as open studio time for the duration of the class. James is currently finishing a stained glass class and will be starting another be ginner stained glass class, as well as a Saturday workshop on leading techniques for more experienced glass workers. Silk painting class es are also a spring offering from New Vision. "Painting with dyes on silk scarves or fabric using resists is an exciting media," explains James, who also paints in watercolor. " Many of the techniques used in watercolor apply to silk. There is growing interest in this art form that can be enjoyed by novice and accomplished artists. Wearable ar is such fun and extending this medium into wall art and even sculptur has tremendous possibilities. Quilters can even use the techniques to create their own fabrics."

Students may register or get information about classes by calling 925-3927. (see class schedule on page 5)

Final Choral Concert

The Beaverhead County High School choral department will present the last concert of the school year Wednesday, May 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the BCHS auditorium. This concert honors the graduating seniors.

Choral groups will present festival pieces during the first half of the program. Teen Tones and Treble Chorus will open the concert with "Stabat mater dolorosa" by Giovanni Pergolesi. The Women's Ensemble, Freshmen Ensemble, and Men's Ensemble will sing their respective festival pieces. "Vive la Compagnie" will be presented by the Men's Chorus, and Teen Tones will sing "The Lark Ascending" and the 16th century madrigal, "Tanzen und springen". Mixed Ensemble will also perform the early work "Il est bel et bon" by Passereau. A Barbershop Quartet and Sweet Adelines group will lighten the evening mood.

The second half will feature senior solos in selections from three Broadway musicals ("Fiddler on the Roof", "West Side Story" and "Miss Saigon"). The theme of the night is tragic love and sacrifice which bind the three together. Awards for participation in the 2013 District and State Music Festivals and presentation of the Ralph McFadden Music Cup, National School Choral Award, and Outstanding Treble Chorus member will be given.

The choral program is under the direction of Laurie Hagenbarth with over 70 students participating. The public is invited to this free event. The Dillon Friends of Music will have raffle tickets for a quilt available for purchase. The quilt was donated by Kathleen Martinell for fundraising for the group which provides opportunities to enhance the music education in the K-12 schools in our area.

Golf Planning Meeting

Sleepy Hollow Ladies Club will be holding the annual planning meeting for the 2013 season on Wednesday, May 15, at 6pm at the Sleepy Hollow Club House. EVERYONE is welcome!!!! Snacks will be provided. Come join the fun with the Sleepy Hollow Ladies Club! Bring a friend along who might also like to golf with us.
