Letter to the Editor

James Kennedy, Not a great contributor to Montanans

James Cox Kennedy, CEO for Cox Enterprises, may have done an outstanding job caring for fish and wildlife on his property, as Dennis McCoy stated, but Kennedy not only wants to keep the public off the Ruby River, he wants to keep the public off all rivers and streams in Montana that flow through private property were the stream beds are private. Kennedy, the United Property Owners of Montana and PERC have intervened in behalf of Madison County in the appeal to the Montana Supreme Court of the Seyler Lane access to the Ruby River. Kennedy's lawyer argued that not only is the public not allowed to use road easements to access the river, but the public can not use the rivers and streams in all of Montana if they are non navigable. Kennedy's lawyer skipped over the appeal case of access to the river from Seyler Lane and went right to challenging the 1985 Montana Stream Access Law, the Montana Supreme Court ruling on the law and the Montana Constitution that states "all waters are the property of the state for the use of it's people". Kennedy wants to take away our constitutional right to use and enjoy all waters of Montana. Remember Kennedy, United Property Owners of Montana and PERC the next time you are floating your favorite river, or wading your favorite stream, because if they get their way, you won't be doing it any longer.

Beaver Girls Softball Team One Win - One Loss

The Beaver Softball team beat Thompson Falls Varsity 13-3, then lost to Deer Lodge Varsity 19-2.

Lauren Holtan pitched the entire T Falls game (5 innings) and had 6 strikeouts and only 2 walks. They combined for 11 hits which was great. Taylor Chase led the attack going 3 for 4 with a single, 2 doubles and 3 RBI's. Brandi Lovaas went 2 for 4 with 2 doubles and 3 RBI's. Kenzie Stanchfield went 2 for 3 with 2 singles and 1 RBI. Brandi Lovaas and Holtan shared time on the mound against Deer Lodge. Lovaas threw 3 innings and Lovaas threw 2 total innings. The pitchers struggled some in hitting the corners in the Deer Lodge game, and the Wardens took advantage and hit really well. Defensively, the Beavers had 3 errors and gave up 6 walks in the 1st inning, and it was really hard to recover after that. Offensively, they only had 4 hits which were made by Kimee Hritsco-Murray, Lovaas, Rachael Bowe and Holtan. According to Coach Andrea Schurg, "It's not that they weren't connecting with the ball... but they just had a hard time finding the holes and Deer Lodge played good defense with 0 errors in the field."

Our final game will be against Butte High JV on Tuesday @ 4:00 in Dillon. Most of the Lady Beavs will keep playing throughout June in several tournaments around the state. Coach Schurg would like to encourage any 7 through 16 year olds that would like to play this summer to come to our last game to watch... and then stay and register to play summer ball with the Dillon Girls' Softball League which is starting on May 14 (after the last BCHS game). The girls will be playing teams from Anaconda, Deer Lodge and Helena... and the season lasts for 6 weeks with the opportunity to play in a tournament or two if there are enough players wanting to participate at each age division!
