CIRCUS COMING

What seemed to some as a scam - was really the circus trying to help children in our community.

Kiwanis' Past President, Stan Smith, has been alerted to phone calls received by locals to be soliciting donations on behalf of the Dillon Kiwanis. These calls have been on behalf of the Culpepper & Merriweather Circus that the Dillon Kiwanis and Dillon Elks Lodge are sponsoring. The Chimera Promotions are calling and asking for a pledge of money to help sponsor tickets for children and seniors to give them free tickets as has been done in past years for the circus.

Regular tickets sales will start June 1st and the pre-sales will be available at the following locations: Chamber of Commerce, Vans IGA, Womack's Printing & Photo, The Bookstore, 3-D and High Country Glass.

Please help support the Kiwanis and Elks and give to the children and seniors. Thank you.

PIONEER FIRE

The cause of the Pioneer fire near Wise River was determined to be a tree that fell across a powerline.

BEAVERS TENNIS

The Beavers are at the Southwestern A Divisional tournament in Corvallis. The boys have their first season behind them and played a JV schedule for the year.

The doubles teams for the girls can all score points for the team. The partners are Whitney Southam/Kansas Suenram, Holly Hansen/Taryn Judge, and Caitlyn Feldt/Timber McQuiston. Coach Lois Woodard said she expects that Whitney and Kansas will go into the finals for the Beavers. The singles for the team all have the potential to go on and they are Morgan Peterson, Janet Moore, Morgan Evans and Taylor Bighorn.

TRACK DIVISIONAL IN CORVALLIS

The Dillon track teams are heading to Corvallis for the weekend to the Southwestern A Divisional tournament. A few names we are hoping for great results from are Austin Carver, Cooper Lamey, Kyle Moore, Holden Garrison, Mick Paffhausen, John Luke Koslosky, Trae Williams, Ethan Peterson, Zach Girard, Austin Hoerning, Holly Andersen, Cierra Lamey and Josee Pendleton.

DILLON CUBS ON THE ROAD

The Cubs are on the road both Saturday and Sunday. Saturday they are headed to Anaconda and then the other direction to Bozeman for Sunday's game.

We wish all the athletes much success through the weekend!

WATERING LAWN TIPS

By: MJ

Climate experts say the drought affecting more than half of the nation will continue. It is up to all of us to preserve water where we can. During drought periods wells may dry up. There are many pivot systems pulling large amounts of water out of the aquifer that may or may not lower the water table.

WATERING LAWNS: 1) Watering lawns everyday will encourage a shallow root system. Note: It is better to water less days per week and encourages deeper root growth for a healthier lawn. 2) Water at night between 10:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. will reduce the evaporation losses. 3) Water every other day or three (3) days a week.

WATERING SYSTEMS: If you have an automatic watering system installed make sure the heads are rotating correctly and your bubble heads are not plugged up. Often if a tree or shrub dies it is because it is not getting enough water due to a bubble head malfunctioning.

PRIORITIZE PLANTS: "Low maintenance" is the name of the game during a drought. Things to do: fertilize less, mow grass taller, alternate watering days or water 3 days a week, prioritize plants in your landscape into categories; 1) High value/must save; 2) Moderate value/try to save; and 3) Low value/save if possible. High value is often trees, shrubs, perennials & low value includes turf grass.

MONTANA WESTERN VOLLEYBALL SIGNS MISSOULA STAR JAMI FLINK

The University of Montana Western head coach Lisa Griffiths announced another recruit for the 2013 volleyball season: Jami Flink of Missoula, MT signed a Frontier Conference/NAIA Letter of Intent and will compete with the Bulldogs in the fall.

"Jami is a definitely a competitor and a great passer, and we are excited she will be joining us in the fall," Griffiths said. "I know she will hit the ground running and I can't wait for her to get to work with the rest of her teammates."

The 5'5" libero played four years of volleyball at Missoula Sentinel High School and was on varsity during her junior and senior seasons. As a senior, Flink earned MVP, second team all-conference and honorable mention all-state honors.

Flink is the daughter of Tom Flink and Bonnie Welch and plans to major in health and human performance at Montana Western.

"I enjoy the small town of Dillon as well as the smaller college idea," Flink said. "I have also heard nothing but good things about the program. I am excited to play in the Frontier Conference!"

BEAVER HEAD HUNTERS

The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will hold their monthly meeting on Tuesday, 21 May in the Museum Research room at 7:00 pm. Have you ever wished your ancestors had left the story of their life for you to read? Or even some letters or a diary? Will your children and grandchildren ever wish the same of you? This month Helen DeShazo and her daughter Deb Baker will discuss the needs and uses of keeping a personal journal, and how that can help in writing your life story. As always, the public is invited. This will be the last meeting until September, but watch for announcements
