It is the Veteran

It is the Veteran, Not the preacher, who has given you freedom of religion.
It is the Veteran, Not the reporter,
who has given you freedom of the press.
It is the Veteran, Not the poet,
who has given you freedom of speech.
It is the Veteran, Not the protester,
who has given you freedom to assemble.
It is the Veteran, Not the lawyer,
who has given you the right to a fair trial.
It is the Veteran, Not the politician,
who has given you the right to vote.
It is the Veteran, who salutes the Flag, who serves under the Flag, whose coffin is draped by the Flag.

BCHS JV TENNIS

The BCHS JV tennis had traveled to Park/Livingston for a day of tennis. Most of the girls had never been on the courts in a competitive setting. The Dillon girls won 18 matches to Livingstons 13.

Girls competing for Dillon in Singles were Kodi Ferris, Nicole Thompson and Jennifer Womack. The doubles partners were Hannah Telling/Tea Gibson, Kodi Ferris/Nicole Thompson, Madison Mosher/Elizabeth Osler, Annelise Shepard/Stine Odby, Kiana Stoddard/Allison Anderson and Racheal Nye/Jennifer Womack.

The Beavers started about 10:00 am. They got a few minutes between matches to have a drink and maybe a bite to eat and were back on the courts to play again. The matches ended at 3:05 when lightening was seen from the courts.

Womack's Printing & Photo will be closed Monday for Memorial Day. There will NOT be a Dillonite Daily so that we may enjoy the day with our families. See you Tuesday.

tunity to stay at Montana Western and lead the athletic department.

"I think we're at a good place in football and it will continue to grow," Nourse explained. "I made the decision based on the fact that I really felt like I could make a positive impact on the athletic program, and I knew if I could make a positive impact there I can make an overall positive impact on the university. I think I can bring the things that are necessary to grow the program, and I love Montana Western and living in Dillon."

Nourse came to the UMW football coaching position from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa where he was the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach, recruiting coordinator and camp coordinator during 2010 and the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 2003 to 2008.

Nourse earned a Bachelor of Science in History and Political Science Education from Montana Western in 1997. He was also a starting wide receiver for the Bulldogs and was part of the Hall of Fame 1994 Frontier Conference Championship team.

"This university really helped mold me into a teacher and coach," Nourse said of his alma mater. "It has been a driving force in my career since then."

Nourse also earned a Masters of Arts in Professional Education from Morningside College in 2007. While he had a very successful career at Morningside, including earning the 2007 NAIA National Assistant Coach of the Year award, Nourse said he jumped at the opportunity to return to Montana Western and Dillon.

Nourse will replace Janelle Handlos, who has been the interim athletic director at Montana Western since May 2012. Handlos will finish her service as interim athletic director before returning to her full-time position as the head athletic trainer for the Bulldogs on July 1, 2013.

Montana Western will be exploring available options to finalize the head football coaching position in the next several weeks.

University of Montana Western Chancellor Richard Storey praised the work Handlos has done in keeping the athletic program moving forward and said Nourse will be a great asset to the campus in his new role.

"Ryan's commitment to this campus has been strong since he was a student here," Storey said. "His familiarity with Montana Western, his dedication to our student-athletes and his determination to succeed will serve
