Letter to the Editor
Dillonite Daily

Yesterday we observed Memorial Day which was originally called Decoration day. This day is in remembrance for those who have lost their lives in our nation's service.

It is not clear the birthplace of Memorial Day but many cities and towns claim the origin of Memorial Day. But we do know that a women's group in the South decorated war graves at the end of the American Civil War.

Then in 1966 President Lyndon Johnson officially declared Waterloo New York the birthplace of Memorial Day.

But going back to the Civil War, General John Logan proclaimed Memorial Day on May 5, 1868.

In 1915 Moina Michael wrote the poem, "In Flanders Fields," which has been associated with Memorial Day.

"We cherish too, the Poppy red
That grows onfields where valor led
It seems to signal to the skies
That blood of heroes never dies."

Then in 1922 the VFW became the first veterans organization to nationally sell poppies. This program still exists today.

Many believe that the "Memorial" in Memorial Day has been ignored and forgotten. Some say we have forgotten to visit cemeteries and place flags or flowers on the graves of our fallen heroes. By not flying the U.S. flag at half-staff until noon. By not flying the POW/MIA flag as well. By not participating in the National Moment of Remembrance. By not helping the widows, widowers, and orphans of our fallen heroes. By not giving aid to our disabled veterans.

The "National Moment of Remembrance" resolution was passed in 2000 which asks that at 3p.m. local time on Memorial Day all Americans to voluntarily and informally observe in their own way a Moment of Remembrance and Respect, pausing from whatever they are doing and for a moment of silence or listening to Taps.

It should be mentioned that during the last century, which was a large part of most of our lives; over 100 million men, women and children lost their lives in wars.

GIRLS DOUBLES TAKE 3RD PLACE

The Beavers girls doubles team of Kansas Suenram/Whitney Southam lost to the Hardin team in the semifinals tournament in Polson on Friday. Then they came back to beat another Hardin team in the consolation match.

The team of Holly Hansen/Taryn Judge won against Havre in consolation matches before they fell to a Hardin team in consolation play.

Saturday Suenram/Southam made it past the Billings Central team to take third place in three sets after dropping the first one 3-6 and then taking the win 6-4 and 6-1.

The Beaver girls finished in 5th place in team standings with 12 points which has kept the Beavers in the top six spots since 2005 under the coaching of Lois Woodard.

DILLON TAKES STATE TRACK TITLES

The Beavers had some great track success from several Dillon stars. The boys team took third place with 64 team points when all was said and done behind Whitefish with 78

GARAGE SALE SEASON

By: Lynn Westad

City of Dillon

Well it is finally here. Doesn't matter what you call it yard sale, garage sale, moving sale or estate sale it is a method to get quality items at bargain prices.

There is one down side though and that is the signs all over the major travel paths. When putting up a signs be sure you are not interfering with traffic control signs or in any way blocking drivers vision sight or cause drivers to be distracted from the traffic.

Now next important thing is after the sale is over and you have had a great day go back and take those signs down. It may seem unimportant but as the summer continues it starts to make the city look trashed and that we don't have pride in our appearance. It just takes a few minutes to go back and take them down.

So keep the city beautiful and when the sale is over TAKE DOWN the SIGNS.

Business Leave Process

The interplay between ADA and FMLA creates more chaos as employers are faced with an ever changing maze of laws and regulations for administering leave requests. Get updated on what's going on from an expert in Montana and Federal leave regulations.

John Pavao

- The definition of "disability," including key terminology, and who is a qualified applicant or employee under the ADA
- Questions employers can and cannot ask during various phases of employment
- An employer's responsibility to provide reasonable accommodations, how to recognize accommodation requests, the process for identifying effective accommodations, and when an employer does not have to provide an accommodation
- Provisions of the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), including recent changes to the Act, and interface between the FMLA and ADA

The constantly evolving laws governing leave and disability discrimination allow no room for error or miscalculation. Attend this seminar and learn how to efficiently handle the difficult and confusing interplay of ADA and FMLA in the workplace.

"UNDER ARMOUR LAUNCHES POWER IN PINK PROGRAM"

Today, we are proud to launch our 11th annual "Power In Pink" program to celebrate the many women who use fitness and exercise in the fight against breast cancer. Building upon the success of past year's initiatives, the program's goal is to facilitate an open dialogue about the importance of fighting this disease by maintaining a healthy and active lifestyle. Anchored by a strong presence on the Brand's social media channels, the "Power In Pink" She's A Fighter® program features breast cancer survivors in a national multi-faceted campaign, partners with non-profit organizations, hosts high school and collegiate "Power In Pink" games across the country, and offers an exclusive line of "Power In Pink" gear.

From May 7th - June 7th women can submit and share their stores of inspiration at www.UA.com/powerinpink and via the Under Armour Women Facebook fan page at www.Facebook.com/UnderArmourWomen. Under Armour will select three women as the faces of the 2013 "Power in Pink" national-scale campaign. The selected winners will receive a trip to Under Armour headquarters in Baltimore, MD where they will participate in a photo shoot, among other key campaign activities, and Under Armour will award a total of $15,000 to breast cancer organizations in honor of each of the winners.

For the duration of the program, messages of strength and survival will be featured at www.UA.com/powerinpink and integrated into the Under Armour Women's Facebook fan page at www.Facebook.com/UnderArmourWomen, as well as the brand's Twitter site for women at www.Twitter.com/UAWomen. Visitors to these sites will be able to read and watch personal videos of each winner's story of overcoming the challenge of a lifetime with the support of family, friends, and an active lifestyle.

LEWIS AND CLARK EXPEDITION GEAR IS TOPIC AT DILLON ROTARY WEDNESDAY

Steve Moorehouse will address Dillon's Rotarians and guests Wednesday focusing on the clothes, rifles, and other gear the Lewis and Clark Expedition took along on their historic travels. Steve's program will serve as an introduction for the Club's Lewis and Clark tour, guided by Dan Pence, later this year. Visitors are welcome. Programs begin at 12:30 and end by one p.m. Rotary meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale.

Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. Rotary continues to urge citizens to make their addresses clear to rescue personnel, including pizza delivery folks with a highly reflective address- number sign available from the club. For more information, please email club president Dick Achter, dachter@barretthospital.org.

NEWS

DOG KILLED BY COYOTES NEAR BOZEMAN

On Thursday evening, a Bozeman woman witnessed her dog being attacked by animals on her property in the Churn Creek area on the south end of the Bridger Mountains near the "M". FWP and USDA-Wildlife Services investigated the incident and determined the dog had been killed by two coyotes.

FWP would like to alert residents and recreationists to the possibility of a den with coyote pups in the area where this incident occurred. Coyotes with pups will instinctually be aggressive towards other canines (the same being true of wolves with pups). Therefore, dog owners should use caution and make sure to keep their animals close and under their control when out in rural settings. Further, pets are also subject to other risks outdoors like rattlesnakes and porcupines. Keeping them close is the best way to avoid conflicts that might result in injury or worse.
