BARRETT
HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE

BARRETT HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE PROVIDES NUCLEAR MEDICINE AND DIAGNOSTICS

The Diagnostic Imaging Department at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare has broadened its services by obtaining a Siemens eCam Nuclear Medicine System. The unit is leased and provides patients with a broad range of diagnostic tests, including a Limited Bone Scan, Whole Body Bone Scan, Renal Flow/Function, Thyroid Scan and Uptake and many other procedures.

The availability of this equipment means that patients have more immediate access to tests and procedures, and it eliminates the need for patients to travel to Butte, Missoula or Bozeman.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare maintains a contract with Intercity Radiology Group of Bozeman, with radiologists available 24/7 to read images. With more than 9 specialists on their staff, patients at Barrett Hospital and HealthCare have access to specific physicians. Intercity Radiology also provides on-site physician coverage at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare 4 days per week (Monday through Thursday).

According to Carol Kennedy, Chief Clinical Officer, "Critical Access Hospitals simply cannot afford to have employed radiologists on staff. There are so many specialties associated with radiology – we are fortunate enough to have access to a larger group and around-the-clock coverage. This gives our patients access to a wide range of specialists who work with our doctors and staff."

For more information, please contact Barrett Hospital Foundation at (406) 683-6737.

CAR WASH

The Beaverhead FCCLA group will be holding a car wash (rescheduled from last weekend) in the Murdoch's parking lot from 11:00 am - 3:00 or as long as you keep coming!! Come support the girls and help them get to Nashville for national competition.

Isolation

By: MJ

Isolation is being separated from others or remoteness. Automation with all the new technology existing today it has allowed people to work alone. Years ago we worked alongside of people doing our job. Today we sit alone in front of computers isolated in cubicles, stand alone at a conveyor belts, operate equipment that requires little thought... We become so used to having no interaction with people that we stop sharing (communicating) with others including our families and friends.

Have you found yourself isolated and lonely? Are you a person that can't wait to go home and share your day?

There is nothing more rewarding then sharing a smile, a laugh, a touch or hug from someone that cares. It seems like all of a sudden we wake up and find it difficult and uncomfortable to sit across a table, look someone in the eye and communicate. We find our world has become very small do to isolating ourselves. This change might come when our children leave home, we lose an important person in our life, lose our jobs, have financial struggles...

Isolation guides us to tunnel vision, (looking only at things from our perspective), selfness, depression, anger, fear, second guessing our worth...

When was the last time you helped someone struggling to walk across a street? When was the last time you took a moment out of your day to make a phone call to someone (just because), knocked on a door to just say hi, invited someone to share a lunch, offered a smile as your passed someone on the street...

Physical involvement with others and groups will amaze you. It will change your life. We all need each other; we all need support and share our sorrows as well as success.

An optional side hike to Bannack Peak that affords great views is also offered.

MONTANA WESTERN NAMES B.J. ROBERTSON HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

The University of Montana Western announced B.J. Robertson as the new Bulldog head football coach. Robertson is a 1998 business education alumnus of Montana Western and played running back for the Bulldog football team.

Robertson will replace outgoing head coach Ryan Nourse, who was named the new UMW athletic director on May 23, 2013. Nourse will become athletic director effective July 1, 2013. Robertson will begin coaching duties with the team immediately and will officially take over the program upon approval by the Montana Board of Regents.

"B.J. is ready for the challenge of being a head coach in the Frontier Conference," Nourse said. "He played at Montana Western and has coached for the past six years in the Frontier. He knows Montana coaches and kids as well as anyone, and that is important to building a successful program here. His football coaching experience is excellent. He has been an offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator, special teams coordinator, strength and conditioning coordinator and he spent the last two seasons on the defensive side of the ball."

Robertson's top priority will be preparing the Bulldog team for the 2013 season in a relatively short time frame.

"This is a great time to take over the program," Robertson said. "Another great recruiting class is already secured, Montana Western has an excellent young roster of football talent and the foundation for a successful and sustaining football program is set."

Robertson has been an assistant coach at Rocky Mountain College since 2007. His responsibilities at the Frontier Conference rival included special teams and defensive backs. He also served as recruitment coordinator and strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to Rocky Mountain, Robertson served in assistant coaching positions at Southern Oregon University and Rockford College. He began his coaching career as offensive coordinator and linebacker coach at Twin Bridges High School.

During his career, Robertson coached numerous Frontier Conference standouts and instructed at a number of university summer football camps. In 2005, he was named Rockford College staff member of the year.

"B.J. is going to make a great leader for our football program," UMW Chancellor Richard Storey said. "He has phenomenal Frontier Conference experience as well as extensive knowledge of our program and a passion for Bulldog athletics. We are very fortunate to have him on board and I am very confident he will oversee a positive, smooth transition for our players."

Robertson said he is proud to be Montana Western's new head football coach.

"I am excited and honored at the opportunity to return to my alma mater and lead the football program," Robertson added. "I appreciate the trust Chancellor Storey and Montana Western have put in my ability to move Bulldog football forward."

Robertson also holds a master of arts in physical education from Rockford College.
