Dillon Veteran Is Honored

For the past 57 years, Jay F. Nelson of Jackson, Montana has served as the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9040 Commander. He may be the longest serving post commander in VFW history, although this can't be confirmed as this statistic hasn't been kept.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, founded in 1899, is the nation's oldest major combat veteran's organization. The VFW and its auxiliaries have over 7,400 posts and 2 million members.

The VFW was planning to honor Nelson at their national convention in Kentucky later this year, but his health prevents him from making this trip. In liu of being honored in Kentucky, Nelson will be recognized at the Montana State Convention in Billings this July.

VFW Post 9040 of Jackson, was moved to Dillon on April 4, 2013 and relocated at the American Legion Hall.

Jay F Nelson will become a past president in July and assist the new officers.

The following story is from his daughter to help honor Jay:

Jay F. Nelson - U.S. Army June 1, 1943 - November 1945

My Dad, Jay Nelson, joined the Army in June of 1943 just short of his 20th birthday. He was married and had one child at the time but felt it was his patriotic duty to go.

He was trained in anti-aircraft at Camp Wallace in Texas and just before time to ship out, it was discovered he needed an operation. When he was recovering from that, the Army moved them to Camp Maxey in Texas and he was in charge of getting his group there.

I was born in February of 1944 while he was in a foxhole in Texas.

After training on anti-aircraft guns-90 mm, 40 mm and 50 caliber machine guns, he ended up on a machine gun. He was in I Co 395th Reg 99 Div and was shipped to Boston in October of 1944, where he shipped out on the "Marine Devil" for a ride in the largest convoy to cross the Atlantic and after 13 days landed in England near Plymouth. After a few weeks in England they were put in an old boat that took 3 days to cross the English Channel and landed at LeHarve, France. From there he went to Belgium to a town named Hofen where 11-12 men lived in a stone house for several months and were on duty at night –not knowing who, what or where the enemy was the first night.

Being raised in the Big Hole Valley in Montana had a definite advantage for Dad. He had spent his early years riding horses or hiking in the mountains on the West side of the valley and had cooked for himself a lot of the time. He knew how to survive.

While in Belguim, several of them hiked to Monshau- a resort town on the Rhur River. In the last part of December the Battle of the Bulge began and his battalion was on the north corner of the breakthrough-they never backed up or gave up and were outnumbered nine to one. They earned a Combat Infantry Badge and Presidential Citation for their part. Next he crossed the Cologne Plain to the Rhine River to Remagan to cross the Ludendorf Bridge just before it was blown up. At the town of Linz he was assigned the job of taking his machine gun out on the end of a ridge and stop any oncoming Germans-where he met a large Tiger tank that shot the end off the hill he was on and his war was over.

He was in a hospital in Linz and flown to Paris and eventually to a hospital in Southampton, Eng. where he was when the war ended. He was awarded the Purple Heart. He was discharged in November 1945 and had to hitchhike back to the Big Hole in Montana.

He raised a family of 6 children and was married 56 years before his wife, Jean passed away. During that time he served on the school board at Jackson, sewer and water board at Jackson, spent 41 years as a director of the Vigilante REA AND has just completed the longest stint as a Commander of a VFW post (Bill Carroll Post 9040) known in MT. We are so proud that for 57 years he has served his country in this capacity. He continues to be a community minded citizen that served and loved the United States.

Ruth Little - proud daughter.

MONTANA WESTERN VOLLEYBALL SIGNS IDAHO'S BAILEY WILSON

University of Montana Western Head Volleyball Coach Lisa Griffiths announced Bailey Wilson of Burley, Idaho has signed a Frontier Conference Letter of Intent to participate with the Bulldogs in fall 2013.

Wilson played volleyball for four years, basketball for three and golf for one at Declo High School while maintaining a place on the honor roll.

"Bailey is a great athlete and I'm excited to add her to the program," Griffiths said. "She has good size and quickness and has experience playing every position across the front row, which definitely gives her a chance to earn playing time immediately."

Wilson earned first-team All-Conference honors during her junior and senior seasons while leading her team to back-to-back finishes as District Champions. She was also named best offensive player, Magic Valley All-Star, Athlete of the Week and a four-year team captain.

She is the daughter of Blair and Keri Wilson and intends to major in physical therapy and/or graphic design.

MATT FUHRMAN OF BILLINGS SKYVIEW SIGNS WITH THE UMW BULLDOGS

University of Montana Western men's basketball head coach Steve Keller announced the signing of Billings Skyview Highschool's Matt Fuhrman to a Frontier Conference Letter of Intent.

Fuhrman averaged 13 points per game last season for head coach Toby Hill and led Class AA in assists with five per game. The 5'9" guard is the son of Trent and Vita Fuhrman.

"We are very excited Matt will attend Montana Western this fall," Keller said. "Matt is a very quick, athletic point guard who can finish at the rim and has the ability to hit the open man."

TWO DIVORCED GOLFERS TALKING

I came home from the golf course today.
The wife left a note on the fridge:

"IT'S NOT WORKING!
I can't take it anymore!!
Gone to stay with my Mother."

I opened the fridge, the light came on, and the beer was cold.
What the heck is she talking about anyway?

GROUP TO LAUNCH BALLOT INITIATIVE TO REQUIRE CAMPAIGN FINANCE TRANSPARENCY

Montana legislators will meet in Great Falls today, to announce the launch of a ballot initiative aimed at shedding light on "dark money" in political campaigns in the state.

"We think that transparency is a crucial element of our democratic process," said Sandy Welch, a proponent and former candidate for State Office of Public Instruction. "The people of Montana deserve to know who is supporting or opposing candidates and issues. Hiding behind the veil of Dark Money keeps vital information from voters and empowers the corrupting influence of big, out of state donors."

WHEN: Monday, June 3rd, 2013

TIME: 10:00 a.m.

To get an initiative on the ballot in Montana, the initiative must receive five percent of the registered voters' support on a petition. Because this is a state-wide and bi-partisan issue, Montana BASE decided to launch this effort early to ensure its success and ample public awareness on the issue.

"We will be launching a website shortly that will let supporters know when and where they can sign the petition," said Mitch Staley, the group's initiative director. "Through Facebook and our Montana BASE website, we will be allowing supporters to sign up to host a petition signing event in their area. After our official site is launched, this site will be the hub to get engaged in kicking dark money out of Montana."

Members of the group who will announce the initiative are Sen. Jim Peterson, Sen. Llew Jones, Sen. Ed Buttrey, Sandy Welch and others.

Information about Montana BASE can be found at www.montanaBASE.com.
