Luminaria for the Relay for Life

So many people "light" our lives. Now it is our turn to be a "light" for our loved ones that endure the battle with cancer. You can honor or memorialize that special someone by purchasing a Luminaria that will be displayed at the South-west Montana Relay for Life on July 26 - 27. This year we will be setting up the Relay behind the Dillon Middle School. A minimum donation of $5.00 a bag will help us all look to a brighter future without cancer. You may honor survivors or ones currently facing the courageous fight with cancer. Let's celebrate birthdays and our survivors! Caregivers of those special survivors may also be honored with purchase of a Luminaria. Also you may memorialize a loved one that has passed away from cancer with a Luminaria. Decorated or plain bags, that you can decorate, can be found at the 3-D store, the NV Salon, The Finished Look, or the KnockAbout. Kirsten at the KnockAbout is setting up a table so you may decorate the bag right at her store. Please be sure to print the name of your special person clearly on the bottom of the bag so we can add the name to the list that will be read during the Lighting Ceremony. We would like to have all bags turned in by July 24th but will add bags until the lighting ceremony. Anyone wishing to help set up the bags may come to the Dillon Middle School track at 4:30 pm on July 26 or clean up at 7:30 am on July 27. Ask for Misti and she'll gladly give you a chore! Please contact Deb O'Neil @ 683-5733 for further information.

Come one and come all to the Lighting Ceremony that will begin at dark at the Dillon Middle School Track.

Breezalita Lace was $10,700.00. Lace, also won the Best Confirmation Mare Award.

Ellen has been a horse lover all her life. She began riding in the "Snugli" strapped to her mother as a newborn and hasn't stopped yet.

At the age of 11 Ellen began competing in Hunter Jumper shows in Dillon and Bozeman on her Mustang, Monty.

Eventually her interests migrated to western riding and at 16 she started lessons with Amber Wagoner who graduated from the Equine program at FRC.

Ellen joined the Beaverhead County 4-H program in 6th grade and for 2 years fulfilled the English Horse projects as well as taking on Archery. She then joined the 4-H Horse Judging Team and under the tutelage of Nancy Johnson she and her teammates won the State 4-H Horse Judging Competition. From there they went on to the National Western Stock Show in January of 2010 to compete in horse judging.

Knowing that she wanted to be involved in agriculture Ellen joined the Beaverhead FFA Chapter as a freshman at BCHS. She joined the Horse Judging and Livestock Judging Teams and consistently placed near the top during all four years in high school.

In her senior year the FFA Horse Judging Team qualified to compete at the National FFA Convention in Indianapolis in October of 2013. She was not able to leave her studies at FRC to attend those events.

In 2011 she applied for and received a student Ag loan to buy five bred red angus heifers. As of May 2013 she has increased her herd to include a total of seven pairs.

Ellen chose to attend Feather River College because they offer a comprehensive equine education. She received scholarships from a number of organizations to help on her way. The Dillon Elks Lodge, Great Harvest Bread Company, FFA Alumni, NILE, Hazelbaker and Vigilante Electric Coop are some of the generous sponsors of these scholarships.

The Equine Studies Program courses include a ranch skills course, horse confirmation, elements of horse training, western equitation, training the young horse, care of yearling and weanling foals, advanced horse training as well as general ed classes like math, biology, English and political science.

As Russell Reid, the founder of the FRC equine program in 1981, says, "the curriculum at the Equine Center entails learning horsemanship of all ages and stages of life."

The high quality breeding program with 4 stallions and a good sized band of mares ensures that students have horses of all ages to work with as soon as they enroll in the equine program.

Once a student at FRC enrolls in any of the horse training courses they have the option of extending their education to a new level by having a young horse assigned to them in the fall. They learn to train these horses under the direction of the instructors. The program also offers clinics put on by trainers known throughout the United States.

Students who attend these clinics with their horse partners have a special opportunity to work one on one with some of the best trainers in the business.

In the fall of 2012 Ellen was assigned a 4 year old mare named Breezalita Lace. She also was assigned a 2 year old gelding, Bebe for her Training the Young Horse course. In addition to basic training techniques, during the year the horses and students are exposed to a myriad of obstacles such as balls, swimming noodles, ropes, cows, lakes, bridges and things that flap and fly.

After more than six months together Ellen and Lace participated in the Buyers' Preview. This is a series of obstacles and exercises performed so that prospective buyers may watch the horses they intend to bid on.

The long months of work and learning culminated in the FRC Production Horse Sale. Twenty one horses went into the sale ring. After a few hours of auctioneer chatter, shouts and cheers of encouragement and a group of smiling, but exhausted riders, the horses all had new owners.

Chinese in Montana: Our Forgotten Pioneers

Montana State Parks

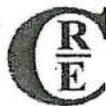

(stateparks.mt.gov) announced:

Bannack State Park will host the Humanities Montana Speakers Bureau program, Chinese in Montana. Author and interpretive historian Ellen Baumler with the Montana Historical Society will give discuss the Chinese pioneers that have been neglected in Montana's written record, even though in 1870 they comprised 10 percent of the population. By the 1950s, very few remained. Chinese homes and businesses fell victim to urban renewal programs. Time erased their remote mining and railroad camps. Traces of their culture disappeared, and their stories have become obscured in myth and legend. What happened to these

The Whitewashing of the White House

By Chuck Dishno

"Oh what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive!"

This administration is guilty of telling more lies than any in recent memory. From refusing to let anyone talk of the situation on Bengazi and lying about who knew what, the IRS lying about targeting conservative groups that might be harmful to Obama's re-election, to the fiasco with the Jim Rosen email and phone records, and now the new one that the National Security Agency has been data-mining the phone records of tens of millions of ordinary Americans.

Where will it end? Eric Holder has to go and others need to fess-up. We cannot exist as a nation if these fibbers continue to drag it down.

This present administration is filled with more Pinocchio's than Geppetto carved in his lifetime. Holder and Hillary should have noses at least 3 feet long.

Then there is Obama appointing his butt-smacking cronies to high offices when they should be prosecuted. Even some of the Democrats are starting to see the light. It is too bad that the main stream media is so entrenched in Obama's leadership they cannot see the light. They don't seem to realize that the destruction of America will affect them too. Thank God for Fox News!

A couple of weeks ago Mr. Brillhart said we don't need a congress. Did he forget that Hitler, Mussolini and Castro didn't have a congress and look at them now?

To Mr. Brillhart, credit, in this week's Tribune, he said that we should elect all new people. Now that makes sense. I hope he was including both the house and senate. Thank you, my friend, Lavon.

My name is Chuck Dishno and this is how I see it. God Bless and Long Live America!
