BEAVERHEAD GOP DELEGATION: LOOKED YOUNG

As Montana Republican delegates from across Montana gathered in Bozeman in early June to conduct the business of the state party, the Beaverhead GOP delegation looked different from the rest.

Morgan Peterson, (Wisdom), age 18 and Kayla Meine, (Dillon), age 18, were selected to fill in for Rep. Jeff Welborn and Beaverhead GOP Finance Chair, Ron Fick as voting "proxies." Delegates voted to elect the next leadership team for the Montana Republican Party. Peterson and Meine were joined by Shelby DeMars (Dillon) and Beaverhead GOP State Committeeman, Mitch Staley (Dillon). DeMars served as Sen. Debby Barrett's voting "proxy." DeMars and Staley are 22 and 23-years –old respectively.

"We're looking at what's going on in our state and country and want to get aboard," said Peterson. Peterson recently graduated from Beaverhead County High School as the Class of 2013 Valedictorian. "I was happy to learn what's going on, and I hope to join in on the work ahead of the party."

Montana Republicans received some criticism from a youth advocate for free markets, Charlie Kirk. Kirk, age 19, runs a non-profit called Turning Point USA that educates youth on free markets and capitalism. Kirk said the GOP has a lot of work to do to catch up with the Obama "machine" that has a firm hold on young voters across our country.

Kirk's presentation explained how the Obama organization, and liberal advocacy groups, like MoveOn.org, succeeded in getting young voters to support the President's re-election campaign.

Kirk explained that potential Republican youth were persuaded to work for liberal efforts because the liberal organizations offered incentives, like Katy Perry concert tickets.

"If you marched in a gay pride parade, you could get tickets to a Katy Perry concert," said Kirk in his break-out session presentation. Kirk said that while ticket recipients gathered to participate in the gay pride parade, the recipients were asked to provide e-mail addresses and other contact information, further explaining the left's ability to coordinate and collect volunteers.

The Montana Republican convention also included keynote speeches from several state-wide Republicans including U.S. Senate candidates Corey Stapleton (Billings) and Champ Edmunds (Missoula). U.S. Congressman Steve Daines addressed the convention Saturday evening as the delegates gathered for the final banquet of the weekend.

"I was able to meet Congressman Daines and his wife, Cindy," said Kayla Meine, also a recent graduate of Beaverhead County High School. "The convention was an opportunity for me to meet our leaders and really learn why I'm a republican. Someone asked if I'd go again, and I said 'definitely'."

Beaverhead County Republicans have strongly promoted youth involvement in the county central committee for over four-years and has elected Mitch Staley to serve as the county's State Central Committeeman for two terms. Staley started serving as State Committeeman when fmr. State Sen. Bill Tash appointed him and Shelby DeMars to serve as "proxies" in 2009. Sen. Tash and his wife, Marlene, served as State Committeeman and Committeewoman until that point.

"I think Beaverhead County Republicans have created a model for our state to follow," said Staley. "A lot of people say that we need to get young people involved in our party, but few people actually do it. Beaverhead County has blazed this trail by getting young people involved and by giving them voting positions in the party. I hope we can share the model with the rest of the state."

Beaverhead GOP, formally known as the Beaverhead County Central Committee, is chaired by newly elected Chairwoman, Nancy Johnson.

"We just think it's important to put our money where our mouths are," said Johnson. "Young people need to be involved, it's that simple. Our work must include them, their ideas and their passions. We like to do it, and we're going to continue to do it to cultivate young leaders for our state."

The Beaverhead GOP provided scholarships to cover the expenses necessary for Peterson and Meine to attend the Bozeman convention.

The Montana Republicans re-elected Chairman Will Deschamps for another two-year term. State Sen. Jennifer Field was elected to serve as Vice Chairwoman. Beaverhead County's Linda Loendorf was nominated to serve as Secretary for the state organization, but didn't receive the majority vote.

Beaverhead GOP officials include: Nate Finch, Vice Chairman; Ron Rick, Finance Chair; Linda Loendorf, Vice Chairwoman and State Central Committeewoman; Mitch Staley, State Central Committeeman; Gail Hansen, Secretary/Treasurer.

The Beaverhead GOP meets regularly on the second Tuesday of every month at 7:00 p.m. in the Police Annex Building. The group will forgo its July meeting and will next meet in August. Public attendance and participation is welcome.

TUESDAY MORNING BOOK CLUB

There is a great book club in Dillon that is welcoming new participants. The club meets the third Tuesday of each month at 10:30 am, upstairs in the conference room at State Bank and Trust. The book club is open to one and all. Light refreshments are provided.

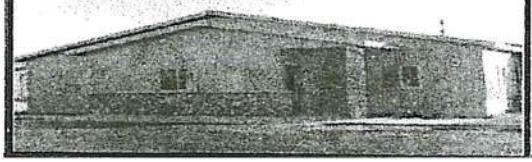

At the June 18th meeting, we will be discussing "The Secret Garden" by Francis Hodgin Burnett.

If you have any questions, contact Debbie at the Bookstore - 683-6807. We look forward to seeing you.

UFO Event

Joan Bird, author of "Montana UFOs and Extraterrestrials:Exploring Today's Frontier" will be speaking in Dillon at the Depot Theater of the Beaverhead County Museum on Tuesday, June 18th, from 7-8 pm with time for questions afterward. Stop by to hear some amazing tales of unexplainable events that have occurred in Montana!

IDENTIFY WILDFLOWERS

The Calypso Chapter of the Montana Native Plant Society is presenting "Learn How to Identify Penstemons - a beautiful group of wildflowers that are common in our part of Montana". We will be preparing for the July 19-20 "USFS JULY LEMHI BOTANY BLITZ" on Lemhi Pass. We can all participate once we learn the plants so "Come one, Come all in preparation for a fun two-day event".

On Wednesday, June 19 Bob Wooley will teach us how to identify those pesky penstemons. We will meet at UM Western, Block Hall, Rm. 311 at 7pm. For information or directions, contact Bob at 683-6365, bbwool@bmi.net or Catherine Cain at 498-6198, nativeplants@montana.com. Hope to see you there!

PUBLIC NOTICE:

The City of Dillon would like to remind renters and property owners of the City Ordinance regarding nuisance vegetation.

DILLON MUNICIPAL CODES - - Title 8 Health and Safety - - provides that uncared for grass, weeds, or other vegetation over 8" in height is a nuisance and such vegetation must be cut below 8" or the responsible person can be fined. If the City Director of Operations sends a notice to the owner and the vegetation is not cut, the City of Dillon will do so at the property owner's expense.

Thank you for doing your part to keep our city beautiful!

FLAG CEREMONY

The American Legion and Boy Scouts properly and respectfully disposed of an estimated 1200 unusable U. S. Flags. There were approximately 30 people at the ceremony.

Will the Flowers Wilt and Die?

(Keep the Flowers alive by Adopting a Median)

Due to the many projects of the Dillon Garden Club, it has become necessary for the group to ask the community for help with the maintenance of the 4 blocks on Helena Street. The median flowers and plants during the growing season are enjoyed by visitors and residents alike, and need some individuals or a group to maintain their beauty with weeding and general clean-up. There are perennials in two of the blocks, and shrubs and annuals in the other 2 blocks. There is an automatic watering system for each block. A member of the Garden Club will serve as a mentor/advisor for the first year to support the new volunteers.

It is the hope of the Garden club that four different groups take on the opportunity to maintain the median of their choice; first come, first choice of blocks. This will lessen the work and allow for more community involvement.

Please help keep Dillon a beautiful town, rich in the heritage of plants and flowers. For more information or clarification, please contact Garden Club President, Diana Peppin at 406-865-0372.

Letter to the Editor....Dillonite Daily
Being Politically Correct

Everyone says we need to be politically correct. OK, my mistake, not everyone! But they say we should be politically correct. But who are "they"? "They", never say who "they" are.

Just last week I talked with my friend who is a housewife, no sorry she is a "domestic engineer." She is a very nice lady, but little but crazy, no she suffers from "mental illness." She comes from a broken home, no she comes from a "dysfunctional family." She told me here dad was a criminal, no he was "behaviorally challenged." She also told me he did not take care of his health and was very fat, no he had an, "enlarged physical condition." She told me he was a complete failure, no he had, "deferred success." For a while he had a job as a janitor, no he was a "custodial artist." Then took a job as a garbage man, no he was a "sanitation engineer." His girlfriend, no his "unpaid sex partner" had a job as a secretary, no she was an "administrative assistant." He said his girlfriend was a real psycho, no she was "pathologically high spirited."

Back to my friend who is a domestic engineer. She asked me if I could come over and look at her leaky sink? She told me it was a man's job. I told her I think it is classified as a "traditional gender role" job and she must be crazy no, "mentally ill" if she thinks I can fix her sink. She then told me she would fix me a dinner of "ethnic cuisine." I said, "what the hell, no what the "heck" is ethnic cuisine?" She replied, foreign food.

Enough of this talk, I told her I was leaving. She replied, "have a nice day." Now what right does she have to tell me to have a nice day? If I do or don't want to have a nice day it is up to me! I"m going home and have a T.V. dinner, twinkies, a bottle or beer and after I eat I will throw the paper plates in the garbage and then watch wrestling and have a cigarette. No problem.

UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA WESTERN SIGNS VICTOR BASKETBALL STANDOUT

Kyle Ball of Victor High School has signed a Frontier Conference Letter of Intent to join the University of Montana Western men's basketball program this fall.

Kyle is the son of Marc Ball and Tina Whetstine and plans to major in biology at the Montana Western.

Ball, a 6'2 guard, averaged 25 points per game during his senior season and led his team to the state tournament. "We are very excited that Kyle has decided to play for the Bulldogs," UMW head coach Steve Keller said. "Kyle is a great scorer and a great athlete. He won the Class C triple jump and javelin and placed third in the long jump. We look forward to watching Kyle become a good player in the Frontier Conference."

BARRETT HOSPITAL WALKING PATH

By: MJ

Driving by the new Barrett Hospital and Healthcare campus, you will see several large pieces of equipment creating a new walking path. The path travels the outer stretches of the property and will be handicap accessible.

A new path is being created where the old hospital existed also. It will run along the highway coming into Dillon from the south. Perhaps you have seen the flags that are marking the spot.

Both paths will have concrete sidewalks in the handicap area with 8 feet asphalt on the rest.

The existing irrigation system will be revamped after the paths are completed along with other dirt work and seeding. The project was funded by an in kind donation and is scheduled for completion by the later part of June 2013.

Keep your travel treats healthy and light and you'll sail past those fat-trap rest stops.

Whether you're traveling alone, with your friends or with your husband and kids, these snack ideas are designed for easy grabbing, and will help steer you away from fast food stops along the way.

Driving alone can be a cathartic experience, especially with the windows down, the wind blowing through your hair and your favorite music blaring. To make the trip even better, hit the road with these easily accessible snacks.

Grape tomatoes: Miniature tomatoes, when ripe, make a delicious snack. This is a no-mess, grab-and-go treat, and one you can reach your hand in the bag for over and over.

Summer berries: Throw together blueberries, strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, or any mix of berries in a plastic container. This snack can get messy, so unless you've got a bunch of napkins tucked away in your glove compartment, leave this one for the rest stop.

Plain popcorn: Whether you buy a bag of naked popcorn or air-pop your own kernels at home, plain, unbuttered popcorn is an easy grab snack that won't stain your clothes or wreck your DTP.

VINTAGE CHEVROLET CLUB

Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce invites the community to welcome the Vintage Chevrolet Club of America to southwest Montana.

From 5-8 pm Sunday, June 23rd the Chamber will host a BBQ and street closure to celebrate over pre-1928 Chevrolets at the Depot park. Come check out the cars and get a great steak sandwich!
