DR. SANDRA MCINTYRE RECEIVES TEACHING AWARD

Dr. Sandra McIntyre is among the five recipients of the "Richard M. Tucker Regional Internal Medicine Faculty Excellence in Teaching Award." Since 1998, the Department of Medicine has selected four to five physicians to receive the Regional Medicine Faculty Excellence in Teaching Award, from nominations submitted by students, residents, and faculty in Washington, Wyoming, Alaska, Montana, and Idaho. The award recognizes true enthusiasm and dedication in providing outstanding teaching and service to medical students.

Dr. McIntyre is a Doctor of Internal Medicine at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, and she also serves as Joint-Chief of Staff, and shares these duties with Dr. Mick Lifson.

In addition to serving patients in the Clinic, Dr. McIntyre also works as a Hospitalist and cares for patients that have been admitted to the hospital and she is the medical director for cardiopulmonary services. Dr. McIntyre also works with staff at the University of Washington Medical School to bring Medical Students to Barrett Hospital as part of their field work and residency requirements.

While extremely professionally accomplished, Dr. McIntyre is also highly respected by her co-workers and patients. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is proud to have Dr. McIntyre as part of the team. For more information, please contact Barrett Hospital & HealthCare at (406) 683-3000.

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION

On June 13, 2013 Jay Nelson of VFW Post 9040 of Jackson was awarded a Certificate of Recognition from the VFW of the United States for having served as a Commander for 56 years. Because of the age of the remaining veterans the 9040 post has recently been moved to Dillon.

Jay was accompanied to Billings by his daughters, Ruthie, Sherry, and Mary and son, Bob; and grandson, Jason Rangitsch with his wife Dawnelle and daughter, Keeley.

Jay turns 90 on July 3rd and there will be a birthday party for him on Sunday, July 7, 2013 at the Jackson Hot Springs Lodge from 2-6 pm. No gifts please, but written or oral memories are welcome.

We hope you know how much we love you and care!"

Hospital Walking Path Correction By: MJ

Last week I wrote an article about the construction work being done in the area of Barrett Hospital and Healthcare (BHH) campus.

I call the construction a "Walking Path." It was brought to my attention, by personal in the BHH Marketing Department, that it was called "The Kennedy Trail" and not a walking path as I stated. I went onto say the project was funded by an "in-kind" donation. "In-kind" is defined as donations in the form of goods or services rather than cash. The donation for "The Kennedy Trail" was a cash donation and not in-kind.

I am writing this to correct the syntax errors I made. It is a beautiful addition to the complex and our community.

Vigilantes, Freemasons, and Gold Rush Justice in Montana Territory

Montana State Parks (stateparks.mt.gov) announced Bannack State Park will host the Humanities Montana Speakers Bureau program "Vigilantes, Freemasons, and Gold Rush Justice in Montana Territory" with Patrick Danahy on June 22 at 2pm in the old church at Bannack. Just before Christmas 1963, in Virginia City, Montana Territory, twenty-four men, many of them Masons, pledged themselves and their sacred honor to form a secret Vigilance Committee "for the laudable purpose of arresting thieves and murderers and to recover stolen property...so help us God." In the first few weeks they hanged a dozen men including Sheriff Henry Plumer. Before the Vigilance Committee returned justice to a stable government, 57 men were arrested, tried and hanged. Patrick Danahy brings to life poignant and entertaining stories gleaned from diaries, memoirs and newspapers of the women and men who tamed Montana, miners, Masons, politicians, Hurdy Gurdy girls, wives and villains. Patrick Danahy is an independent scholar on Montana vigilantes, freemasonry, history and mythology.

What: "Vigilantes, Freemasons, and Gold Rush Justice in Montana Territory"

When: Saturday June 22 at 2pm

Where: The old church in Bannack

NEWS

"IF YOU CARE, LEAVE THEM THERE"

Every spring FWP biologists, wardens and others observe how good intentions go wrong when young wildlife are picked-up and moved from their surroundings by well-meaning people.

Remember this advice if you see newborn wild animals: "If you care, leave them there." Do not move or attempt to feed newborn wildlife. Also keep dogs on leash when recreating outdoors this time of year.

To protect Montana's deer and elk from the impending threat of Chronic Wasting Disease, FWP is unable to accept, hold, or rehabilitate deer, elk and moose. Should someone bring a fawn or calf to FWP, it must be returned to the site where it was found, or euthanized.

Other wildlife species, such as birds and small mammals, are also best left in the wild. Usually, young animals picked up by humans can't be rehabilitated, and they're often abandoned by adult animals once humans have become involved.

Numerous incidents have shown that a newborn wild animal's best chance at survival and a quality life is, "If you care, leave them there."

VINTAGE CHEVROLET CLUB

Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce invites the community to welcome the Vintage Chevrolet Club of America to southwest Montana.

From 5-8 pm Sunday, June 23rd the Chamber will host a BBQ and street closure to celebrate over pre-1928 Chevrolets at the Depot park. Come check out the cars and get a great steak sandwich!
