BANNAK FLOOD UPDATE PUBLIC MEETING

Montana State Parks (stateparks.mt.gov) announced today that a public information meeting will be held to update the public on the effects of the flash flood and the efforts that are now underway to clean up and repair the park. Bannack State Park near Dillon, Montana was closed on July 18 due to a flash flood late Wednesday afternoon that damaged historic buildings, roads, trails, bridges, the fire detection system, boardwalks and other portions of the park. The meeting will take place at the Old Deport Theater at 125 South Montana Street in Dillon, MT at 7:00 pm. The public is invited to attend this information meeting to get the latest updates on the flood and restoration efforts taking place. The meeting will be conducted by Park Manager Dale Carlson and other Bannack State Park staff.

"The historic Bannack town site has 60 core buildings, and it is estimated that more than 80% have damage," The flash flood came down from Hangman's Gulch through the center of town and is not attributed to Grasshopper Creek overflowing.

Bannack State Park is a National Historic Landmark and one of Montana's best preserved ghost towns in the country. Bannack is the site of Montana's first major gold discovery in 1862 and is Montana's first territorial capital.

Bannack and Gold

By: MJ

Last week Montana history was destroyed by a flash flood at Bannack. Rumors on the street: People are wondering how much gold was washed into the streets.

In 1862 gold was discovered on Grasshopper Creek at Bannack and a settlement was born. Miners and others came from all over. They endured harsh weather, back breaking work, lived in tents, dugouts, cabins, wagons... Along with the influx of people, do to the gold rush at Bannack; came the scalpers, thieves, bandits, outlaws, businessmen, businesswomen, good, bad and ugly.

History repeats: In June & July Beaverhead County had an influx of approximately 10,000 people when the Rainbow gathering came to camp and celebrate on federal lands. This gathering has cost the locals an increase in their taxes to cover expenses incurred by the gathering.

Some historians tell us today that Plummer and his henchmen were hung to cover up for the criminal actions of the vigilantes. Maybe the so called law enforcing citizens (vigilantes) were representing themselves and lining their own pockets with gold. Some accounts of history tell us that the stage robberies increased even though Plummer was dead. Several years after Plummer was hanged the vigilantes controlled the mining districts.

History repeats? Some say the politicians of today are putting gold in their own pockets. Are they the vigilantes of today and personally enriching themselves outside the law? There is a saying; "you scratch my back and I will scratch yours." Have times truly changed or have we just closed our eyes to the real world around us?

Grab you helmets! Mount your trusty steeds! There's adventure around every turn at the Kingdom Chronicles, Vacation Bible School at First Baptist Church July 29 through August 2. For five days boys and girls four years old through sixth grade will be challenged to stand strong in the battle for truth. Excitement galore awaits as they learn what the bible teaches about the kingdom of light and the kingdom of darkness. Children will be encouraged to seek the King of Kings and His righteousness in their daily lives.

Each day from 9 am to noon the children will learn bible truth from songs, stories, object lessons, and a continuing drama. Set in the time of kings and queens, knights and castles the daily drama, A Tale of Two Kingdoms, takes place in King's Manor and features dome regal (and not so regal) characters engaged in the classic battle between good and evil.

In the evenings, beginning at 7 pm Sunday, July 28 through Thursday, August 1, teenagers are invited to attend for their special time of fun, food, and fellowship. The Teen Challenge nightly meeting is a time for young people to be encouraged with life changing principles from the Word of God as they also face the battle between light and darkness. Each evening will include games and refreshments along with a time of Bible instruction.

Both the morning and evening programs are free for anyone to attend. If you have any questions or are in need of transportation to attend feel free to call the church at 683-4438.

DILLON ROTARY WEDNESDAY

Relay for Life Coordinator, Diana Brown, will present the program at Dillon Rotary Wednesday, July 24. Visitors are welcome. Programs begin at 12:30 in the Episcopal Guild Hall, 203 East Glendale. Anyone wishing to learn more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch.

"THREE LOCAL STUDENTS ATTENDING MEDICAL SCHOOL WIN RON LOGE MEDICAL SCHOLARSHIP"

Fourteen years ago, the Ron Loge Medical Scholarship was established to help Beaverhead County High School and Lima High School graduates attend medical school. Since that time, the scholarship has expanded to include students who graduated from a high school in the Ruby Valley and also students who graduated from home school programs in Beaverhead County and the Ruby Valley.

Since that time, the scholarship has been awarded to many medical students who have gone on to successful careers in medicine. One such graduate will be returning to Dillon this fall to begin her Family Medicine/OB practice with Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Clinic.

Barrett Hospital Foundation is pleased to announce that three medical students are the recipients of this year's medical scholarship award. Louis Bartoletti of Sheridan, Conrad Hilton of Dillon, and Kelly Godecke of Dillon each received $4,000 to help offset the costs associated with medical school tuition and fees.

Bartoletti is currently attending the University of Washington School of Medicine, where he just finished his first year. Bartoletti has spent time in Dillon working with Dr. Hansen and the Barrett Hospital staff during his TRUST rotations. Bartoletti intends to practice rural medicine in his hometown of Sheridan, MT upon completion of his medical education.

Godecke is currently attending the University of Nevada School of Medicine, where she has recently completed her second year. Godecke's plans are to graduate in 2015 and return to Southwestern Montana to practice primary care medicine. This is the third year Godecke has received the Ron Loge Medical Scholarship.

Hilton is currently attending Midwestern University in Glendale, Arizona. He is currently in his 4th year in medical school. Married with three children, Conrad has aspirations to become an Emergency Medicine physician and return to the great state of Montana to practice.

Barrett Hospital Foundation congratulates all three recipients of the award and wishes them the best in their quest to become physicians in rural Montana.

For more information on the Ron Loge Medical Scholarship Program, call (406)683-6737.

EXERCISE FOR PEOPLE OVER 50

THIS WAS NOT ONE OF THE CLASSES AT THE Y

Begin by standing on a comfortable surface, where you have plenty of room at each side. With a 5-lb potato bag in each hand, extend your arms straight out from your sides and hold them there as long as you can. Try to reach a full minute, and then relax. Each day you'll find that you can hold this position for just a bit longer. After a couple of weeks, move up to 10-lb potato bags. Then try 50-lb potato bags and then eventually try to get to where you can lift a 100-lb potato bag in each hand and hold your arms straight for more than a full minute. (I'm at this level.) After you feel confident at that level, put a potato in each bag.

"Concert For Bannack"

A planning meeting has been set Wednesday July 24th at 7:00 PM at Beaverhead County Museum for our "Concert For Bannack" event to be held on Wednesday August 14th.

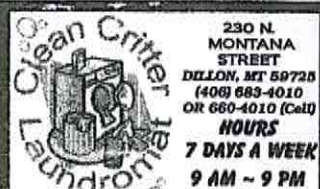

This meeting will give everyone wanting to be involved in raising funds for the rebuilding of our beloved Bannack after the flash flood damage last Wednesday an opportunity to help. Please bring your enthusiasm, ideas and questions as we work to focus our efforts on this one time fundraising event. Bannack association board members will be on hand. For more info please contact Stan Smith at 660-4429 sky-painter17@yahoo.com or on Facebook

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

"We can't be afraid of change. You may feel very secure in the pond that you are in, but if you never venture out of it, you will never know that there is such a thing as an ocean, a sea. Holding onto something that is good for you now, may be the very reason why you don't have something better."
