Diana Lee McNinch Walrath, 62

Diana Lee McNinch Walrath was born on July 26, 1951, to Richard (Dick) and Bonnie McNinch. Diana was born in Dillon, Montana, and grew up; on the family ranch up Big Sheep Creek out of Dell. Diana went to school for eight years at the Nicholia Creek School. After graduation from the eighth grade, she then attended high school in Lima.

After graduation from high school, Diana attended a vocational school in Helena for nine months and graduated with a secretarial degree.

Following her vo-tech graduation, Diana returned to the family ranch and became a "forage engineer".

While living and working on the ranch, Diana met and married Richard (Dick) Walrath. Diana had two sons and three step-sons whom she treated like her own.

Diana and Dick moved to Spokane, Washington, for a short time before moving to Alaska in 1988. They lived in Alaska for almost twenty years before moving back to Lima.

Diana enjoyed flying airplanes, riding motorcycles, and driving her vintage Plymouth. She also enjoyed crocheting, tatting, and sewing. Most of all Diana enjoyed the time she could spend with her grandkids.

After a battle with cancer, Diana passed away on August 12th, 2013, in Barrett Hospital in Dillon.

She is survived by husband Dick Walrath of Lima; mother Bonnie McNinch of Lima; son Jonathon of Anchorage, Alaska; son Jason (and Dana) of Wasilla, Alaska; stepson Rick (and Natasha) of Anchorage, Alaska; stepson Rodney (and Karen) of Dillon, Montana; stepson Randy (and Michelle) of Seattle, Washington; numerous grandchildren; sister Evelyn (and Chuck) Larsen of Lima, Montana; and aunts, uncles, and numerous cousins.

Diana will be greatly missed by all.

Services will be held at Lima Community Church on Tuesday, August 20, 2013 at 11 AM with visitation being held from 9 – 11 AM at church just prior to services, interment will be in the Lima Cemetery. There is a guestbook available on-line at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Rudeness And Miss Manners

Exclusive Excerpt from: "Comical Sense: A Lone Humorist Takes on a World Gone Nutty!" by Tom Purcell

What do you mean, Americans have gotten ruder?

Poll after poll has been showing it in recent years. Nearly 70 percent of respondents to an Associated Press poll said people are ruder than they were 20 or 30 years ago.

Why would that be?

Lots of reasons. For starters, life is moving faster these days. Companies are employing technology that has dramatically increased the speed of change. This technology has enabled competition on a global scale and employees, fearing for their jobs, are working long and hard to keep up.

Yeah, yeah.

The pace at home is much faster, too. Many couples, having fallen into the big-mortgage trap, are both working. To afford large houses, they've moved farther out into the suburbs. They're perpetually sitting in traffic jams, rushing to pick the kids up from day care, and racing to get home to make dinner.

It's a free country.

Computers, video games and other gadgets are isolating people from each other. And many people are living far away from their extended families — living among people they are not deeply connected to.

Sounds good to me. My family drives me nuts.

Even modern architecture is promoting isolation. Look at the older homes built in the 1920s. Big glorious porches were on the front and the garages were in the back. Homes were designed to invite friends and family to stop in for a visit and some cold lemonade. Now the porch is hidden in the back and the garage is on the front — even our homes are rude to people.

If you say so, pal.

As a result of this desensitization and the stress of modern times, we're seeing more incidents of road rage, more people cutting in lines at the supermarket, fewer people holding the door open for strangers. I know I've been short with service people at times.

Being rude with service people is the only reason I get out of bed in the morning.

What's most interesting is that folks are quick to see rudeness in others, but not in themselves. Only 13 percent said they'd used an obscene gesture while driving. And only 8 percent said they'd used a cell phone in a loud or annoying manner.

I do both every day on my lunch break.

It's certainly true that life is moving faster and keeping up is more stressful, but that's no excuse. We all need to get back to the basics. Parents need to do a better job teaching their kids to have respect for others. Adults need to slow down and be more considerate of others."

Why should we care?

Because a civil and mannerly existence is not just a more delightful way to live, but one that is essential to a well-functioning society. But don't ask me, ask Judith Martin.

Judith Martin?

You know her better as Miss Manners. She says that good manners are the philosophical basis of civilization, that it's essential folks have a common language of civil behavior that restrains their impulses.

But impulsiveness is my favorite hobby.

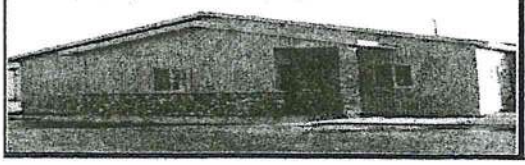

Martin says our legal system was originally intended to punish serious conflict involving the loss of life, limb or property, but the legal system is now forced to handle disputes that the proper use of etiquette used to prevent.

I ain't following.

She says that what used to be an insult is now called slander. What used to be meanness is now called hate speech. What used to be boorishness is now called sexual harassment. If the rules of civility and etiquette were stronger, fewer people would engage in actions that are now considered crimes.

Slander, meanness and boorishness are illegal now? There goes the weekend."

Eureka Fire

Detected: August 12, 2013
Cause: Lightning
Location: 38 miles SW of Ennis, MT in the southern Gravelly Mountains
Jurisdiction: Beaverhead-Deerlodge NF
Acres Burned: 1,000 at 10 a.m.
Containment: 0%
Total Personnel: 125
Resources: 3 Hand Crews, 13 Engines, Misc. Overhead, 4 Helicopters, 16 Smoke jumpers, 1 Dozer, 3 Water Tenders

Summary: The Eureka Fire has crossed the Gravelly Ridge Road and was pushed by strong winds to the east during the night. This has prompted fire managers to order a Type 2 Incident management team under the direction of Tom Heintz. The team will take over management of the fire beginning Friday, August 16.

Firefighters continue to work towards suppression of this fire and to protect the historic West Fork Cabin. The fire is burning in steep terrain, and is moving towards the north and east in decadent and dead whitebark pine. This will likely be a long duration event due to the vegetation and fuels present in the path of this fire.

Incident Command Post (ICP) is being established at the Vigilante Work Center located along the Upper Ruby River.

An area closure has been established for all roads and

HISTORY MYSTERIES OF DILLON!

A fundraising event to benefit the Beaverhead County Museum is being presented on Saturday, August 17, from 1:00 to 3:00 in the afternoon by the Beaverhead County 4-H. The Museum preserves the thousands of stories of the citizens who have walked, worked, and dreamed and made this town what it is today. The students wish to help the Museum, and to do that, they will be bringing some of those citizens back for a visit!

Dillon's history is loaded with mysterious facts! For instance, who was the great-niece of Harriet Beecher Stowe? (She knew Mark Twain when she was a young girl!) What amount did Richard Deacon ask investors to pay for his ranch? (The city of Dillon is now located there.) Do you know the business owner who spoke softly and carried a small whip? Can you name the person (the owner of 42 hats!) who helped to create the Beaverhead County Museum and preserve Bannack? Which teacher (yes, a teacher!) rode a bicycle that had a gun holster attached?

You can solve these History Mysteries and meet the historical figures who inspired them.
These characters, and more, will come alive through the talents of the Beaverhead County 4-H Theater Arts Group & Friends. During that time, there will be no admission charge, but free-will donations will be very appreciated.

There will also be a display showing the history of 4-H in the state of Montana for the last one hundred years. To make this terrific event even more wonderful, the 4-H Junior Leaders will be serving free homemade ice cream as well!

Come, join us for an afternoon of history, mystery, ice cream and fun!

Happy Hounds Dog Training

Where dog training is a pawsitive experience!

Looking for a class for your dog? See what we have in store for the end of the summer!!

OBEDIENCE

Foundations in Obedience Mon evenings Aug 26-Sept 23 6-7PM
Have an adult dog that doesn't always come when you call it? Is a walk to the park more of a "drag the owner" to the park routine? This class will help your dog develop a reliable sit and down stay, come when called regardless of distractions, leash manners, and thought process before jumping on people and lunging at other dogs. This course reinforces basic behaviors required for participation in other classes (6 dogs/handler teams per class) $70

AGILITY

Beginning Agility (for puppies or dogs that have completed Puppy Class or Foundations) Mon evenings Aug 26-Sept 23 7:15-8:15PM
This 5 week class will introduce dog/handler to the wonderful world of agility! As a beginning class, teams will be introduced to the obstacles found in agility trials. Groundwork will be a fundamental aspect of this class to ensure the team is prepared for more advanced aspects of agility training (6 dog/handler teams per class) $70

Distance and Sequencing Agility (for dogs that have completed Beginning Agility) August 14-Sept 11 6-7pm
This 4 week class continues to build on handler and dog movements as a team through the sport of agility. The focus on this class will be training dogs to work independently from you at a distance and to move from through multiple obstacles at a time (6 dog/handler teams per class) $70

Competition Agility (for dogs that have completed Distance and Sequencing) August 14-Sept 7:15-8:15PM
For dogs and handlers preparing to compete with their dogs in agility. $70

Class registration and payment are available on line at www.happy-hound.com and required to reserve a spot for your spot! Questions? Contact Linda Lyon at 683 2878 or llyon99163@yahoo.com
