Della Francis Stanger Thornton

After a week of heart-felt goodbyes from family and friends, Della Francis Stanger Thornton passed away on August 16, 2013. Though she was in and out at the end, she never lost her sense of humor, her concern for loved ones, and her caring nature. Her endurance to the end really showed her strength and character, and everyone who knew her is grateful to see her out of pain.

In 1937 in Pocatello, Idaho, Della Francis Thornton was born to parents, Dan and Irene Stanger, and was sister to three rambunctious brothers. Early on she had to learn to be adaptable. Her family moved a lot growing up, resulting in her attending eight different schools in just twelve years. She graduated high school in Hunters Washington in 1955. After high school, she moved back to Idaho. She worked in Pocatello at H. S. Kress and then as a telephone operator. From there, her next step was love.

In 1956, she married her tall, handsome cowboy in the Idaho Falls Temple. Along with husband Darrell Thornton, they were blessed with three daughters. They then adopted a son, Guy, and went on to have three more sons. All of their children have walked in their mother's footsteps and have become strong, spiritual, caring individuals. In 1998, Guy, their first son was killed in a car accident. Family and friends are happy to know mother and son are reunited now.

Della followed her cowboy husband around the northwest with their seven children, stopping just long enough to live and love in Washington, Idaho, Canada, Nevada, and finally Montana. She and her growing family reached their final destination in 1977 in Lima, Montana. Darrell and Della would have been married fifty-seven years come August 22.

Della worked in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints as a Primary president, a Young Women's President, and a counselor in the Relief Society many times. She has taught Primary, Sunday school, Young Womens, and Relief Society many times in her lifetime.

Della was no stranger to service work. She sewed her way into many strangers' hearts. Donating nearly 600 pieces of children's clothing to the LDS church and orphanages around the world, we can see how her contributions and caring, charitable nature touched so many.

Dillon, MT Since 1991

Della had a gift for making everyone around her feel welcome and loved. People were drawn to her for her sharp wit and sense of humor. She had a generous spirit and was always mindful of people's needs. She was an amazing cook, seamstress, wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Along with her love and boisterous personality, her cinnamon rolls and delicious gravy will be sorely missed, especially come the holidays.

Darrel and Della would have been married fifty-seven years on August 22. Della is survived by three daughters, Valerie Briggs, (John), Annette Lee, (Roger), Robin Hales, (Don), and three sons, Justin, (Janet), Brandon, and Dan, (Mandi). She was blessed with twenty grandchildren, with one on the way, and two great grandchildren. All those who knew her and loved her will carry her in their hearts always.

There is a visitation scheduled at the LDS Church in Lima on Tuesday, August 20th from 7 - 8 PM as well as Wednesday, from Noon until 1:45 PM on Wednesday, August 21st with funeral services following at 2 PM. A guest-book is available on-line at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

CEMETERY WALK

The third annual Cemetery Walk is slated for Tuesday August 20. Be at the Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon by 6:00 pm to begin the walk. This year William Orr, Mary Graeter, the Conrad Meine family, and Dr. R. H. Ryburn will be present. Follow the balloons & arrows from one point to another.

Bring a portable chair, if you would like, so you don't have to stand. You may want to bring bug spray or a jacket, depending on the weather. There will be punch & cookies afterward, with time for mingling. Invite family and friends so no one misses out on this once-only performance. The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society is hosting the event.

Dillon Volunteer Fire Dept was called at 4:38pm on Saturday, for a power line down at 124 Ramshorn. The area was secured and Northwestern Energy was responding. At 6:37pm on Saturday we were called to 9500 Blacktail Road for a house fire that turned out to be burnt food.

Be Prepared and Know Before You Go

Southwest Montana fire officials are reminding hunters and recreationists to be prepared and know before you go. As vegetation continues to dry out and summer weather is still upon us, it is important to do your part to ensure you do not start a wildfire. Before you head outdoors be sure you know the below items.

Make sure any vehicles or equipment used have properly maintained mufflers, bearings, tires and that safety chains are not dragging. Know what the weather forecast is not only for that day, but the next day as well.

If campfire and/or warming fires are allowed, keep your fire less than three feet in diameter and follow safe campfire practices.

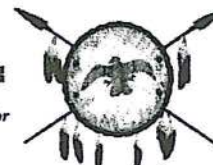

Make sure you have an adequate clear zone around your campfire (four feet of area cleared of flammable material for every one foot of your campfire's flame height).

Never leave a campfire unattended

Make sure it is cold to the touch before leaving.

Know what fire restrictions are in place for the area you're in by checking www.firerestrictions.us or contacting the local land agency.

Those exploring the forests and back country in vehicles must stay on established roads and trails and avoid driving over dry grass and brush that could be ignited by hot exhaust systems. Firewood cutters should operate chainsaws in the cool morning hours and keep a shovel and fire extinguisher nearby. Chainsaws must be equipped with spark arresters.

Information on current fire dangers is available from any office of the Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management, and Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation. Local fire departments also have information on current fire dangers or go online to: <http://firerestrictions.us>.BITTERROOT TRADING POST*J.D. PAPE

LAST CALL AUCTION FOR CADETS

Challenge Foundation.

Brad Day comes to Dillon to trap shoot from Idaho each year. He has been very impressed with the cadets from the Montana Youth Challenge Academy so he brought up a print called "Last Call" done by Dal-len Lambson and donated it with the proceeds going directly to the Challenge Foundation. The print will be displayed at Womack's Printing this week. The final bid will be taken at the Beaverhead Gun Club Shoot, September 8, at the Trap Club. Stop, look and bid to support the cadets in this program.

Eureka Fire Update

Location: 38 air miles south of Ennis, Montana

Approximate Size: 4,222 acres reported at 7:00 a.m. on August 18, Containment: 10%

Resources: Hand Crews: (3) Type I crews, (1) Type 2 crew Engines: 19 Total personnel: 243

Heavy Equipment: 1 Dozer, 1 Skidgen, 2 Water Tenders.

Fire Update: The fire remained fairly inactive overnight with cool temperatures and calm winds.

This fire has been very reactive to weather conditions which have helped suppression efforts over the last 24 hours. Cooler temperatures and light winds are forecast for today as well. Slower fire activity yesterday, especially reduced long distance spotting, allowed for more aggressive suppression efforts, including burning out on the north and west perimeters to try to secure those flanks.

The emphasis of today's suppression efforts will be to provide protection for the Rebish Sheep Cabin and the Black Butte Cabin while trying to secure line on the perimeter. Relatively new fire activity in the head of the east fork of the Ruby River near Monument Hill is also a focus to prevent continued spread to the north.
The north end of the fire will be scouted to identify opportunities for direct attack. Firefighters will "mop up where safe" to reduce hot spots to prevent escape, taking advantage of the favorable weather conditions. Sprinklers will remain in place to provide protection of important whitebark pine stands.

Shawn Christiansen, Chief of the Madison Valley Fire Department will be using his personnel to visit with private landowners to guide efforts to reduce fuel hazard conditions near area residences.

Additional resources continue to arrive, improving firefighters' ability to slow fire growth. The Incident Command Post is located at the Lyons Bridge approximately 33 miles South of Ennis on highway 287. The assigned crews and equipment are being supported from this location. The actual camp is located near the Eureka Basin to be close to the fire.

Closures: An area closure is in place in the vicinity of the Eureka Fire. The area near the Eureka Fire will be closed for the Protection of Public Health and Safety. This includes all roads and trails within the area closure. The closure essentially covers all access routes to and through the Eureka Basin Fire area. A detailed description of the closure order is available on <http://www.incweb.org/incident/article/3637/20315/>
