Bonnie Mae Megquier Brown

Bonnie Mae Megquier Brown was born at her parent's home November 5, 1932 in Dillon, Montana. Bonnie passed away at Parkview Acres Care and Rehabilitation Center on Monday, August 19th. She was the youngest child and daughter of Bertel-low Winfield Megquier (Bert) and Bertha Carms Megquier. Bonnie was the joy of the family and had many wonderful friends growing up. Bonnie's father Bert, a 6th grade graduate from Libby,

Mt. became the manager of the DI hardware, and Bonnie was his bookkeeper after graduating high school and taking some business courses at Western Montana College.

Bonnie met Conger Brown at her job while he was visiting his parents Samuel Conger and Evelyn Brown, who were then Managing the P&O / Rock Island Ranch. Bonnie and young Conger were soon married in Duncan Oklahoma on September 22, 1952. Making their home in Dillon, the newly weds had three sons; Scott, Stace and Vernon. Bonnie contracted acute encephalitis in 1962 and went into a coma for six weeks. She fought hard to regain her life and family but never recovered. Bonnie was taken care of by her parents, Bert and Bertha until 1987 when she entered the Tobacco Root Mountain Care Center in Sheridan, Mt. The last several years Bonnie has been at the Parkview Acres Care and Rehabilitation Center in Dillon, Mt. where she had several friends and many dear and caring staff looking after her. She was always smiling, up beat and never complained. Bonnie was preceded in death by her sisters Irene and Isabelle, her brother Ray, and parents Bert and Bertha.

She is survived by sons Scott Brown of Dillon MT, Stace (Marie) of Tulsa OK, and Vernon (Dee) of Montrose CO. Her faithful nieces Kay Jacobsen (Daryll) of Wisdom MT, and Raycille (Jack) Dawson of Boulder MT. Grand children Bert, Steven, Ryan, Mike, Lisa and Jake Brown. Great nephews and niece Guy Peterson, Matt Dawson and Trudy Dawson. Bonnie was a wonderful mother and friend, always ready with a smile and a good word. She will be greatly missed.

There is a visitation scheduled for Sunday, August 25th from 1 - 4 PM at Brundage Funeral Home and funeral services will be held at the funeral home on Monday, August 26th at 10 AM. A guestbook is available online at www.brundage-funeralhome.com.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks

NEWS

JEFFERSON RIVER GOING TO 24-HOUR FISHING CLOSURE

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will impose a full closure to fishing on the entire Jefferson River beginning Saturday, August 24 because of declining flows and continuing hot and dry conditions.

The Jefferson has been under hoot owl restrictions (2 p.m. to midnight) since late July when water temperatures exceeded 73 degrees for a week. Flows on the Jefferson have now dropped to below 280 cubic feet per second (cfs) as gauged in the Twin Bridges area. This is the trigger for a full closure as identified in the Jefferson River Watershed Council Drought Management Plan.

To protect the health of the fish population in the Jefferson, the Drought Management Plan calls for action including voluntary water conservation by irrigators and imposing angling restrictions when conditions hit specific trigger points. For more information on this drought plan and others, go to FWP's drought webpage: fwp.mt.gov/news/drought/.

This closure may be lifted when flows on the Jefferson improve to above 300 cfs for seven consecutive days. FWP biologists will continue to monitor all southwest rivers and further restrictions may be necessary.

Trail Work Completed Near Waukena Lake

Work to improve the Brownes Lake Trail No. 1002 located in the East Pioneer Mountains has finished and the trail is now open hikers and stock travelling over Rock Creek Pass from Waukena Lake to Tahepia Lake.

Previously this trail was hazardous to stock as it included several steep pitches through rock and avalanche chutes. Brownes Lake Trail begins at the Rock Creek Trailhead near Brownes Lake. It is approximately five and a half miles to Waukena Lake, seven miles to Rock Creek Pass, eight miles to Tahepia Lake, and 15 miles to the Mono Creek Trailhead on the Wise River Ranger District.

The most of the trail is located within the Torrey Mountain Recommended Wilderness Area. Non-motorized and non-mechanized use is welcome.

Contact the Dillon Ranger District at (406) 832-3178 for more information about trails and other recreation opportunities.

Lettuce Go to the Farmers' Market
By Katie Bump

At the Farmers' Market
You get the best,
Red beets and tomatoes,
And herbs to add zest.

You might like to buy
A scrumptious fresh pie,
Bread and rolls for the table,
Or eggs you can fry.

Potatoes in colors
Of red, blue, and gold,
Lettuce for salads,
And garlic that's bold.

Onions and squash,
Peppers and peas,
Cucumbers, carrots,
Jerky and cheese.

A fresh cup of coffee
A smile and a scone,
You can find this and more
In our local trade zone.

Our market is more than just
Veggies and cake,
You'll be amazed
By the things neighbors make.

Craft tables galore,
Things knitted and sewn,
Photographed, beaded,
Woodwork, and stone.

Yard decorations,
Soap that smells sweet,
Plants for your landscape,
And friends you will meet.

All the conveniences,
Friendly and fun,
Farmers' Market on Saturdays,
From nine until one.

P.S. Are you are dreaming
Of selling your own
Produce or crafts,
Hand made and home grown?

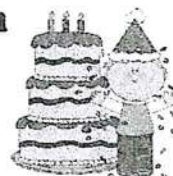

Do not procrastinate,
You can be a member,
But our market closes
The 28th of September.

VFW Post 9040

Little known fact for over 20 years, VFW at Jackson post #9040 has been giving a scholarship to a Beaverhead County High School senior. This year the $500 scholarship went to Cooper Lamey from the Dillon post #9040. His reply is below:

Dear Buzz + VFW Post 9040,
Thank you for the $500 Scholarship!
I will use it for tuition this fall at MSU, where I will be majoring in Agriculture.

Thanks again

Cooper Lamey

Dear Senator Tester:

Approximately 1 month ago, I read a letter to the editor in The Montana Standard newspaper in Butte, MT, penned by Jay Nelson of the Jackson, MT VFW Post #9040. It seems our government stripped them of their non-profit status and confiscated their funds! The letter further stated that all of their funds were previously used to fund scholarships for high school students! Apparently, their non-profit status has since been restored, however their funding, which as I recall, was over $3000 has not been returned.

A couple of weeks ago, my son, Cooper Lamey, graduated from Beaverhead County High School in Dillon, MT. He was awarded a $500 scholarship from, you guessed it, the VFW Post #9040 in Jackson, MT! He and we (his parents) are grateful as he will be using the scholarship for fall tuition at M.S.U. To our knowledge, he was the sole recipient of VFW Post #9040. Perhaps they could have offered even more college bound students assistance, if only the government hadn't stolen their funds!

We urge you to please investigate and command the return of the funds belonging to the hard-working Veterans at the VFW Post #9040!

Sincerely,
Cory & Kari Lamey

SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Press Release
August 22, 2013

On August 20, 2013, the Madison County 911 Center received a call at 1:30 p.m., concerning an ATV accident in the remote area of Conklin Lake in the eastern most portions of the Centennial Valley and Beaverhead County. Further information provided by Madison County reported the operator of the ATV had incurred significant injuries to cause death.

The Beaverhead County Coroner and Sheriff's deputies responded and arrived at the scene of the accident around 3:30 p.m. Madison County Sheriff's Deputies and Montana Highway Patrol assisted in the investigation.

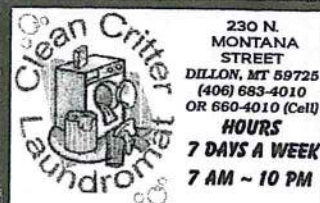

The deceased was identified as Darlene Beth Bolander, 84 years of age of Firth Idaho. Bolander and her husband were operating separate ATV's along with three other friends when Bolander lost control of her ATV throwing her off the vehicle to the rocky terrain. The ATV then rolled over Bolander and came to rest further down the trail.

Bolander was not familiar with the road and trails in the area. She was not wearing a helmet and alcohol was not a factor in the incident.

Jay T. Hansen, Sheriff
Beaverhead County
