WHEN A SOLDIER COMES HOME

Submitted by MJ

This was sent to me by my brother-in-law who was served during a war, and is one of the few left who plays taps at his comrades' burial services. Is it time we take a good look at our life, our whining and the choices we make? There is always room for changes in our lives. Sometimes when we read or hear about what is happening outside of our everyday life it helps us to see a different way, gives us the encouragement and motivation to make other choices... Following is what was sent to me that I am sharing with you.

When a soldier comes home, he finds it hard -- 1) To listen to his son whine about being bored -- 2) To keep a straight face when people complain about potholes -- 3) To be tolerant of people who complain about the hassle of getting ready for work -- 4) To be understanding when a co-worker complains about a bad night's sleep -- 5) To be silent when people pray to God for a new car -- 6) To control his panic when his wife tells him he needs to drive slower -- 6) To be compassionate when a businessman expresses a fear of flying -- 7) To just walk away when someone says they only get two weeks of vacation a year -- 8) To be forgiving when someone says how hard it is to have a new baby in the house -- 9) The only thing harder than being a Soldier - (Is loving one).

No one has been able to explain to me why young men and women serve in the U.S. Military for 20 years, risking their lives protecting freedom, and only get 50% of their pay on retirement. While Politicians hold their political positions, in the safe confines of the capital, protected by these same men and women, and receive full-pay retirement after serving one term. It just does not make any sense.

Proposed 28th Amendment to the United States Constitution: "Congress shall make no law that applies to the citizens of the United States that does not apply equally to the Senators and/or Representatives; and, Congress shall make no law that applies to the Senators and/or Representatives that does not apply equally to the citizens of the United States."

BREWS AND NEUN

The Beaverhead Ladies Golf Association will be holding the BREWS and NEUN golf tournament at Beaverhead Golf Course on Sunday, September 29, 2013, with a shotgun start at 1 p.m. This will be a two person scramble and beer tasting. The cost to play is $50 per team (+ greens fees if not a member of BGC.) This event is LIMITED TO FIRST 28 TEAMS SIGNED UP! Sign up to play at Beaverhead Golf Course clubhouse today. Enjoy microbrew tasting stations on the course and food and brews in the clubhouse after playing. All proceeds go towards improvements to Beaverhead Golf Course.

POW/MIA RECOGNITION DAY
The third Friday of September has become National
POW/MIA RECOGNITION DAY.
As time passes the living Former Prisoners of War from the state of Montana has dropped from over 100 down to about 33. The number of Missing in Action numbers are still rather high. I hope that on the 20th of September 2013, we all take the time to remember someone who has and/or knows someone who may have been a POW/MIA. I know I will never be able to forget those who have served out country without question.
Sincerely, George Fryett who was POW/MIA from 24 December 1961 until 24 June 1962, in VIETNAM.

COUNTRY SUPERSTARS IN BUTTE & ANACONDA

Why go to Branson when Branson can come to you? Encore Entertainment presents the Country Superstars Show coming to Butte and Anaconda direct from Branson. The show features tributes to ALAN JACKSON by Doug Brewin, GEORGE STRAIT by Larry Turner and BROOKS & DUNN by Doug & Larry. "Doug and Larry perform all over the country in Las Vegas, Branson, Myrtle Beach, Lake Tahoe and Reno. This is as close as the real thing" says John Raymond, the promoter for the show.

Doug Brewin is a professional musician, rated by audiences, critics and the entertainment industry as one of the Top Celebrity Impersonators. A recent reviewer wrote: Doug Brewin brings Alan Jackson to life with his tribute to the country master. Doug resembles and sounds so much like the real Alan, he fooled an awards show full of stars.

Larry Turner grew up playing music, and started playing professionally in 1976, receiving nine years of vocal training along the way. "When the father of the man you're paying tribute to, tells you that you resemble his son, you know you must be doing something right." Interestingly, Larry received this compliment from Strait's father before deciding to become a professional tribute artist. Challenging himself to transition into a country music role, Larry has since developed an incredibly impressive act as George Strait.

The shows will be at the Mother Lode Theatre on Sat Sept 28th at 7:30pm. Tickets are at the Box office at 723-3602 or at ButteArts.org. Tickets are reserved and are $21 to $31. with Students half price. On Monday Sept 30th they appear at the Washoe Theater at 7:30pm. All tickets are general admission and are $25.00 and Students are only $10. Tickets are at the Anaconda Ace Hardware and Anaconda Chamber or at www.EasyTik.com. Show is produced by John Raymond of Encore Entertainment at 565-4300.

FIRE WHISTLE

Wednesday at 4:35 pm, Dillon Volunteer Fire Department was called to 76 West Center Street, Bicentennial Apartments, for smoke alarm. It was caused by construction workers.

"FIBROMYALGIA SUPPORT GROUP BEGINNING"

Paula Smith is passionate about fibromyalgia. She got fibromyalgia (FMG) in 1987 while in the Marine Corps and was diagnosed in 1988 after being medically discharged from USMC. There were no recommendations of helpful medications for FMG at that time. Until she began working with Dr. Hansen, Paula spent many years undergoing tests and dealing with doctors who did not truly believe she had FMG or who simply prescribed various anti-inflammatories.

The only support group available to her was an arthritis support group that never addressed her illness. Paula decided to start a support group mainly because she needed one. She needed a reason to be motivated to get out of the house and connect with others like her. She knew there were others that also needed the same. So, with the guidance of Deanna Nelson, Rehabilitation RN and Cheyanne Sparks, Certified Arthritis Foundation Exercise Instructor and local wellness business, a space and time to hold meetings was found. There is no financial assistance for the group. Paula paid for all the advertising to get the word out. The first meeting was sparse, but Paula is confident that the group will grow over time. Paula's idea of a support group means that all members of the group are offered a high degree of support and respect. The group meets every fourth Tuesday of each month, at 10:00 AM, in the Foundation/Home Health & Hospice brick building next to Barrett Hospital Healthcare Clinic.

For more information, please contact Paula Smith at 406-660-0313.
