EDWIN K. ROSE

Edwin K. "Ed" Rose, 60 of Lima Mt., passed away Friday, September 20, 2013 in the mountains that he knew and loved.

Ed was born in Rexburg, Idaho to Stanford and Eleanor 'Vadnais' Rose on February 23, 1953. He grew up in Lima, Montana and never strayed very far or for very long from home. He attended school in and graduated from The Lima School.

Ed married Nora Jean Miller and they were blessed with three beautiful boys; "the 3 Js", Jackson, Jason and Justin. Ed and Nora Jean parted ways and have remained friends through the years. Ed was then married to Dorothy Selby and they were together for several years. Their journey began in their school days and their mutual fondness has endured as well.

Ed was always very tireless and energetic. He worked harder than most anyone we know and did it well! Ed worked for several years for his Aunt and Uncle at Ralph's Exxon in Lima. His real career began when he became a 'railroader'. He worked almost 30 years as a brakeman and Conductor for the Union Pacific Railroad, primarily out of Dillon, Mt. After leaving the UP, he worked for many cattle ranchers in and around the Lima area, to include the Big Hole. There he spent some busy and snowy days and nights feeding cows and helping with the calving seasons. He also swung a mean ax and could fall just about any tree you pointed out!

The biggest love of Ed's life, excluding his family, was the mountains of Montana, Patsy Cline and Jim Reeves. Never forget Eddy Arnold either! He spent every extra minute he had hunting, fishing, trapping and just generally enjoying the great outdoors. He had a sheepwagon that he used for camping and kept in great condition so it was ready to go whenever he was, and he was always ready to go! He was a familiar sight on many of the back roads of our great area surrounding Lima. His sense of humor and great smile will be remembered always! I guess we have to include in his many favorites, much to the chagrin of some of his family members, the Dallas Cowboys. He was a lifelong fan and many a TV suffered over any loss they encountered over the years. Oh he was dedicated!

Ed is survived by his sons, Jackson, Justin, Jason, his brother Jack (Nancy) Rose, 7 grandchildren, 3 nieces and many cousins and extended family. He also leaves behind his beloved dog and constant companion, Starr. Ed will be also be remembered by his girlfriend Emily Richards and her children, especially William and Melodee Ewing. He was preceded in death by his parents and his grandparents as well as many Aunts, Uncles and cousins.

If

by Rudyard Kipling

If you can keep your head when all about you
 Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
 If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
 But make allowance for their doubting too;
 If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
 Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
 Or being hated don't give way to hating,
 And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream - and not make dreams your master;
 If you can think - and not make thoughts your aim,
 If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
 And treat those two impostors just the same;
 If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
 Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
 Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
 And stoop and build'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
 And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
 And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
 And never breathe a word about your loss:
 If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
 To serve your turn long after they are gone,
 And so hold on when there is nothing in you
 Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
 Or walk with Kings - nor lose the common touch,
 If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
 If all men count with you, but none too much:
 If you can fill the unforgiving minute
 With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
 Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
 And - which is more - you'll be a Man, my son!

LOW WATER AT CANYON FERRY WILL AFFECT ACCESS TO WATERFOWL

With waterfowl season almost upon us, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is alerting waterfowl hunters to the extremely low water levels in the Canyon Ferry Wildlife Management Area duck ponds. These conditions will limit access and opportunity for waterfowl hunters.

Drought conditions and lack of runoff have resulted in near record low flows in the Missouri River which fills all four ponds. One of the ponds (pond #2) is almost entirely dry and all of the other ponds are extremely low. Also, the primitive boat ramps into the ponds will not be functional as the water is at least 75 yards from the ramps. Hunters should expect to wade or hike to huntable locations.

Additionally, Canyon Ferry Reservoir itself is quite low, and access to the delta area will be difficult by boat.

Canyon Ferry Wildlife Management Area is heavily used by both by recreationists from all over Region 3. FWP typically expects to see over 300 waterfowl hunters opening weekend. The general season opener for duck, coot, and goose is Sept. 28, while there is a special two-day youth weekend Sept. 21 and 22.

CITIZENS FOR BALANCED USE OPTIMISTIC ON FRIDAY'S HOUSE PASSAGE OF HEALTHY FORESTS FOR HEALTHY COMMUNITIES ACT

Citizens for Balanced Use is thrilled to support Congressman Steve Daines' vote in favor of H.R. 1526, The Restoring Healthy Forests for Healthy Communities Act on the U.S. House floor, Friday.

"It is in the best interest of Montanans for our Congressional delegation to support a healthy forest management plan," said Kerry White, CBU Executive Board Member. "The Forest Service once averaged over $1 billion in revenues annually. It now spends $2 for every $1 it produces. The management that created this trend hasn't produced healthy forests."

Congressman Daines joined 21 other Congressmen and women in co-sponsoring H.R. 1526. The bill will require that the Forest Service harvest 50% of the sustainable yield or new growth every year in the areas designated as suitable timber production areas translating to hundreds of thousands of jobs across the country.

"The passage of this bill equates to progress towards creating nearly 5,000 jobs in Montana," said White. "Because H.R. 1526 requires accountability to legal actions placed in the way of healthy management processes, CBU is optimistic that this is a great step forward for our economic sustainability."

Montana was once home to 28 mills as of 1990, but today there are only 7. Citizens for Balanced Use maintains that responsible forest management will be an economic driver for small and large communities across Montana. Healthy management plans, like H.R. 1526, will also prevent further forest fires. In the last year alone, wildfires burned 9.3 million acres while the U.S Forest Service only harvested approximately 200,000 acres for a ratio of 44:1. H.R. 1526 is a great step towards overturning this embarrassing mismanagement of our precious resources.

More information about Citizens for Balanced Use can be found at www.BalancedUse.org.
