BRINK SISTERS SHARE RANCH STORIES AT OLD DEPOT THEATRE IN DILLON

Montana authors, Anne Brink Krickel, Francie Brink Berg and Jeanie Brink Thiessen will share ranching stories from their new book Montana Stirrups, Sage and Shenanigans: Western Ranch Life in a Forgotten Era in Dillon at the Old Depot Theatre on Saturday, Oct. 12 at 2:00-3:30 pm, sponsored by the Dillon Public Library.

During their upcoming Oct 8-13 book tour, they will also entertain with music, storytelling and readings and make media appearances in the communities of Deer Lodge (Wed. 8:00 am; 12-2 pm), Butte (Wed. 6:30-8:00 pm) and Missoula, at the Festival of the Book in the downtown Holiday Inn (Fri at 11:00-12:00 am). They launched their book in Miles City, Jordan, Forsyth and Billings in July, and a September tour took them to Great Falls, Helena and Bozeman.

The Brink sisters tell stories of trailing cattle, twice a year, each time a four-day challenge to and from summer range, in all directions from home. Their father thought nothing of sending a couple of teenage daughters into rugged, unfamiliar country with a hundred head of cows and a vague map, riding at least one green-broke horse, according to the authors. Their favorite trail method: string out the cattle behind a good boss cow, rather than bunch them up and chase from behind as some folks did. Often they rode through remote and beautiful country in gorgeous spring or fall weather—only to feel that sudden change to blizzard, hail, pounding rain or hot dry winds.

Filled with vivid personal stories of ranching, wildlife and western humor, Montana Stirrups, Sage and Shenanigans is an old west epic with a modern touch. It is a social history as well, of the uncommon people of the west, who practiced tolerance and extended hospitality to strangers.

The authors write from a legacy of western values. Their mother came west by covered wagon as a small child in 1905. Their father, following a home-town cowboy hero from his Minnesota home in 1909 at age 13, found work running wild horses out of the Missouri River Breaks. Both knew the ways of the old west first-hand and lived its values every day: optimism, hard work, integrity, respect for each individual and an appreciation for western humor.

Dozens of events take the reader from hard times of drought and depression, to fighting World War II on the home front, to embracing post-war recovery.

"Captures a fascinating time in Western American history," says David Borlaug, president of the Lewis & Clark Fort Mandan Foundation. "This is the dramatic story of one ranch family, told by three sisters who lived and breathed what today is an American Epic. There is no greater authority than those who straddled a horse to round up cattle or ran a stick-shift truck through the muck and snow. The fabulous Brink sisters will educate, enlighten and entertain you, all the while revealing the grandeur that is ranch life in Montana."

The authors say they wrote the book—and tell their stories—to bring to life the years of ranching they knew among the buttes and badlands. "We've endeavored to capture that time and those long ago challenges with integrity, a fresh sense of adventure and humor."

The 408-page book Montana Stirrups, Sage and Shenanigans: Western Ranch Life in a Forgotten Era, is filled with short lively stories and illustrated with over 260 historic family photos. Available in softcover (29.95) and hardcover (39.95) in bookstores, gift shops and by mail from Flying Diamond Books, 402 S. 14th St, Hettinger, ND 58639 (701-567-2646).

They will be sharing stories at the Old Depot Theatre, giving interviews and autographing at the Bookstore.

MONTANA WESTERN RANKED NO. 15 HEADING INTO HOME GAME

The Montana Western football team returns home this weekend after being on the road for the last two weeks and brings a new national ranking back to Dillon.

While away, the Bulldogs made an impression on the Frontier Conference as well as NAIA coaches across the country. While picked in the preseason to finish seventh in the Frontier Conference, Montana Western has knocked off conference co-champions Montana Tech from a year ago on its way to a 3-0 start and a top twenty ranking.

The Bulldogs are now second in the conference behind Carroll College, who hold the third spot in national rankings, and the team learned earlier this week they have been voted into the top 20 and now hold the No. 15 spot following the 29-22 victory over Montana Tech, who was ranked No. 12 entering this past weekend's game.

The ranking is the first time Montana Western has held a spot in the top 25 since the end of the 2004 season when it ranked No. 25. As exciting as the ranking is for the football team, coaches reminded the team to continue to work hard and win games to maintain that top 25 ranking.

Head coach B.J. Robertson brings his squad back to Vigilante Field on a four-game winning streak, which dates back to last year, to try and stay atop the Frontier Conference standings. The Bulldogs host conference competitor Montana State University-Northern Saturday.

While the Bulldogs have been away since their opening game win over Southern Oregon, they have gone on to set a few team and individual records. Redshirt freshman running back Sam Rutherford set an individual rushing record when the Montana Western squad faced off against Dickinson State by gaining 228 yards and scored three of his nine rushing touchdowns on the season behind the stellar play of his offensive line. Rutherford has an NAIA-leading 603 yards rushing this season through three games.

The Bulldog offense ranks first in the Frontier Conference in rushing and second in the NAIA with its ground attack. The Bulldogs also set a team rushing record versus the Dickinson State Blue Hawks and rushed for a combined 361 yards in the victory in North Dakota.

The Northern Lights enter Saturday's contest sitting at 3-1 and third in the Frontier Conference.

Kick-off is at 1 p.m. on Saturday. The game is also part of Montana Western's Alumni Weekend celebration. New members of the athletic Hall of Fame will be announced during halftime.

FESTIVAL OF TREES

It's time! Time for the 2013 Festival of Trees at the Dillon Elks Lodge November 22nd and 23rd. This year's recipients are the Dillon Elks Lodge and the Women's Resource Center.

The Elks Lodge is the center for many community activities and their building needs a new roof. Also needing a new roof is the Women's Resource Center's shelter which houses victims of domestic abuse.

Once again the community is asked to donate silent and live auction items and homemade candy. Theme trees are always in great demand.

FOOD BANK DONATION

The Beaverhead Community food Pantry has received a contribution of $1000 from Foundation for the Diocese of Helena. The donation has been made on the recommendation of one of the Foundation's benefactors whose family endowment was created to provide aid such as food, clothing and medicine to the less fortunate in our communities.

The funds provided to the Food Pantry are to be used specifically for food.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

In the 1939 film 'Mr. Smith goes to Washington' James Stewart portrayed the part of a freshman Senator doing battle against a greedy and self-seeking political machine in his home state.

Today we have and are witnessing the same thing; except the greedy and self-seeking political machine is in this Administration and the Democratic leadership in Congress.

VOTE
MICHAEL KLAKKEN
For MAYOR

Greetings to my fellow citizens and taxpayers living in Dillon. I applaud and appreciate Mike Klakken's action of filing for the office of mayor of our fair city. Having known Mike for more years that I really care to remember I can attest to his sterling character and total honesty. He is very committed to putting our finances in the best shape possible; and to do everything possible to lower water and sewer rates and property taxes.

Seeing what has happened to Detroit it makes it very clear that ever higher taxes and utility rates lead to a rather bleak future. Mike has been involved in the real world of business, budgeting and finance for many years; and has a great deal of experience in balancing the income with the outgo. Most of us only have to look in our checkbook or wallet to realize that it can be tough to make sure that there isn't too much month left at the end of the money. If anybody has a money pit in the back yard be sure and let me know so we can take a number and get in line for a chance to drop a bucket therein.

Mike served on the city council for a number of terms and has demonstrated his wisdom and experience in dealing with the various problems that are a simple fact of life no matter what. I know Mike to be a totally honest person and any business dealings I have had with him have been beyond reproach. When I heard he was running for mayor I checked with him to make sure I would still be able to snarl at him, whine to him and chew on his "you-know-what" if I ever felt he was doing less than 100% or more.

Thank you for your time in reading my little offering and I would strongly urge you to vote for Mike.

Sincerely,

Paul Pilgrim
