The Epic Failure of Obamacare

By Rick Jensen

There are so many reasons why some Democrats quietly confess they would now very much like to postpone the roll-out of the "Affordable" Care Act.

The massive failure of the entire software backbone, the extraordinary 300 percent increases in costs to families who buy their own insurance, people losing their doctors, insurance plans being denied to people and insurance companies actually leaving many states due to Obamacare are just a few.

It looks like most Americans have already decided Obamacare is such an abject failure that they aren't even going to try to sign up.

How else would you explain the following?

Health and Human Services Secretary Kathleen Sebelius put together an Obamacare Road Show featuring the Pittsburgh Steelers' Chairman, Dan Rooney.

An ad campaign swooned with Sebelius crowing, "We had some early glitches. It's getting better every day." Meanwhile, IT experts explained to America that the real trouble is the entire code.

Rooney opened Heinz Field to Sebelius, who brought in nearly two dozen of the best-trained, elite Obamacare technical specialists to get people signed up for their health insurance policies.

Signs and banners greeted Sebelius and her laptop-swinging sherpas with a throng of media, all awaiting the crowd of Pennsylvanians so hungry for affordable major medical health insurance policies that some wondered if Heinz Stadium, which holds 65,000, would be a large enough venue.

About 100 people showed up.

Yup. Heinz had plenty of room.

Ready to show the world that Obamacare is ready to serve America, the 100 people sat down in their turns with the 20 specially trained expert Obamacare navigators.

Expectations were high. Confidence overflowed. They were sitting with the best of the best, one-on-one, in a high profile setting with the woman whose job it is to make sure everything works as advertised. Everyone knew that they would be leaving the stadium with an affordable insurance policy and a great story of how the very best of the Democratic Party personally led them to the great manna of health care.

What could possibly go wrong?

Hours later, none of the now less-than-enthusiastic Obamacare supporters got online.

They waited hours and hours to see "error 404" messages and blank white screens on the laptops.

When asked how this could happen to the highest ranking leader of the agency leading the way with 20 of the most rigorously trained "navigators," Sebelius murmured, "I don't know."

A Lexis-Nexis search shows the mainstream media decided not to publish or broadcast the results.

IT experts have an explanation: the code is sloppy. The whole thing has to be rewritten.

Oops.

Aetna, Blue Cross, and Coventry are being denied to policyholders by Obamacare in many states. Some of these companies are actually leaving states because the rates paid by the federal government through the exchanges are so low that the companies can no longer provide the level of services that bring them so many customers.

The President admonished, "You can keep your doctor. You can keep your health insurance."

You may have to move to another state to do so.

For example, Obamacare is denying sick children in Missouri to be treated at the best children's hospital in the state.

As reported in Kaiser Health News, "The network for the Anthem BlueCross BlueShield plans, which will be sold through Missouri's 'Obamacare' marketplace, does not include BJC HealthCare and its 13 hospitals -- among them Barnes-Jewish Hospital, the area's premier academic medical center, and St. Louis Children's Hospital."

"In California," The Daily Caller reports, "58,000 will lose their plans to Obamacare."

Oh, well. Blame it on Democrat Nancy Pelosi who insisted on opening the genie's bottle.

Obama spokesweasel Jay Carney needs to craft a spin that assures us that losing our doctors and insurance plans doesn't mean losing our doctors and insurance plans.

Either that or craft a message by January 15th that those evil Republicans have used their wiley ways to force a year-long suspension of the Obamacare rollout and work like crazy behind the scenes to fix these endemic problems which are obviously more substantive than mere glitches.

FFA FIREWOOD SALE

The kids from the local FFA Chapter have been busy cutting firewood to sell. The firewood cost is $125 a cord (cut, delivered and stacked). If interested please contact FFA Chapter Adviser Caleb Igo @ 683-4401 and leave a message. The money the FFA kids earn after expenses goes to help defer the cost for the FFA Student Travel. The Chapter travels several times throughout the school year to attend various competitions and trainings. FFA is a service and education organization which is intended to promote agricultural education the FFA also highly values community service, encouraging members to work in and around their communities to improve the general standards of life. Please support our local FFA kids by purchasing a load of wood. Contact Caleb Igo @683-4401.

NEWS

BY EMERGENCY ORDINANCE EFFECTIVE TODAY: ROAD CLOSURES IN LIMA AREA DUE TO MIGRATING ELK

Residents, hunters and others traveling in the Lima area should be aware of road closures set to go into effect today, Oct. 24, at 5 p.m.

The closures were authorized by Beaverhead County because of elk migration which poses a safety hazard to both the elk and the public (especially considering the opening of general deer and elk season this weekend). Elk cross the roads at least twice daily to reach local hayfields. The roads include (detailed on the attached map):

- Reeder Road
- West Road
- Chute Canyon (East to West)
- Munday Lane
- Little Sheep Creek -NO PARKING

Closures and restrictions will remain in place until lifted by Beaverhead County.

Love in a shoe box! Let's work together to make Christmas a little brighter for children around the world. Fill a shoe box and make a difference in the life of a child this holiday season. This is part of a national effort to help children across the country and around the world. Anyone can help: groups, individuals, families, schools, or churches.

All you need to do is:

- 1) Put together a shoe box to send to a child, or
- 2) Make a Donation – every donation helps. Shipping costs $7 per box. You can make checks payable to Samaritan's Purse/Shoe box and drop off at Mary's house or donate online and track your shoe box! Donations are tax deductible. For online donations go to: <http://www.samaritanpurse.org/what-we-do/operation-christmas-child/> and click on "support."

If you would like to be part of this amazing program and have questions or would like more information, contact Mary Bearden @ 925-2218 or Barb Kramer @ 925-0659.

Mary will be delivering boxes to Bozeman November 24th, 2013. Last minute drop off ok. Mary set up a facebook page (with a little technical assistance) with all the information if you would like to check it out! "Dillon MT Christmas Shoe boxes"

Shoebbox details: NOTHING liquid, NO chocolate. Simple rules, but please read....

1. Shoe Box: Use an empty shoebox (standard size, please) or a small plastic container. You can wrap the box (lid separately), but wrapping is not required. Most importantly, pray for the child who will receive your gift.
 2. Boy or Girl: Determine whether your gift will be for a boy or a girl, and the child's age category: 2-4, 5-9, or 10-14. Print out the appropriate boy/girl label by downloading the artwork from Operation Christmas Child website. Mark the correct age category on the label, and tape the label to the top of your box. If you need labels, you can print them out from the Operation Christmas Child website or Mary will have extras when you drop off your box.
 3. Fill the box with a variety of gifts that will bring delight to a child. Please include at least one item a child can immediately embrace such as a stuffed toy, doll, ball or toy truck. Other ideas: toothbrush/paste, crayons, coloring book, pencil/pencil sharpener, construction paper, comb, soap/wash rag, note pad...depends on the age and gender of the child. There are more ideas on the Operation Christmas Child website. NO CHOCOLATE, NOTHING LIQUID.
 4. Include $7 Donation: Please donate $7 or more for each shoebox you prepare to help cover shipping and other project costs. You can give online by using our "Follow Your Box Donation" option, or you can write a check to Samaritan's Purse (note "OCC" on memo line) and place it in an envelope on top of the gift items inside your box. If you or your family are preparing more than one shoebox, please make one combined donation.
- Maybe you just want to donate. Checks should be made out to "Samaritan's Purse/shoe box." You can drop your check off to Mary or donate online.
5. Drop Off: Place a rubber band around the box. If you are in the Dillon area, you can drop it off to Mary or Barb or give them a call to make arrangements for pick up. Mary's home address is 526 N. Walnut (on the way to Safeway!).

ROCKY MOUNTAIN COLLEGE FORFEITS FOOTBALL VICTORY DUE TO CLERICAL ERROR

The Frontier Conference office announced today officials at Rocky Mountain College self-reported a violation concerning a studentathlete participating on the football team.

The violation involves an internal scheduling issue that resulted in the player not being enrolled in the minimum number of credits required by the NAIA to be considered a full time student.

"I want to stress that this issue is strictly clerical in nature and that there was no intent to deceive anyone nor to gain a competitive advantage on the playing field," Frontier Conference Commissioner Kent Paulson said. "I want to commend President Wilmoth, Athletic Director Beers and faculty athletic representative Hammond for their very thorough internal review of this situation and for doing the right thing in selfreporting this error to the NAIA as we would expect all of our league's schools to do in fully complying with the national governing body regulations."

Rocky Mountain College received word that as part of the NAIA ruling concerning this matter it must forfeit the contest in which the named player participated in and will therefore declare the win versus Southern Oregon University be recorded as a loss for record keeping purposes.

The NAIA has been notified by Rocky Mountain College that the institution is looking into appealing this part of the rendering that was handed down in the ruling concerning this case.

Democrats/Republicans speak different languages.

By: MJ

Democrats' continually use words that resonate with the people. They are aware of the importance of articulating what you say. They use buss words that people understand; "extremists" when discussing republicans; "gravitas" when speaking of Pres. Bush; and today's Democrat buss word is "clean." Example: "Republicans in the House of Representative should send a "clean" bill to the Senate". This is an effective way of taking the spot light off Democrats, making their actions okay while making the Republicans the villain. Example of how Republicans do not communicate with the people: Earlier in Oct. Republican Speaker of the House of Representatives came out of a meeting at the White House about a national health care policy, walked over to microphones and briefly expressed his disgust with the Democrats' unreasonable refusal to change ideas or behavior. He said nothing more - just walked off. Speaker Boehner could not or would not explain to the people what happened in the meeting about a law that will have a substantial impact on every American and their country.

Republicans do not speak distinctly to the people outside of Washington D.C. Example: Speaker Boehner has been speaking often about "CR" or "Continuing Resolution" that authorizes the existing level of government spending to continue until a new budget is agreed upon.

Constitution says; The House of Representatives has the responsibility to originate all spending bills. Does the word "clean" mean a blank piece of paper?

Is it time the Republicans put some serious time into presenting their case to the average person outside of the Belt-way.
