SHIRLEY KAMPS, 74

Shirley Mardine Kamps, 74, of Dillon, Montana passed away at her home surrounded by her family on November 1, 2013. She was a long time resident of Dillon and had many friends here. Private family services will be held at a later date and a full obituary will follow.

DIAMONDS IN THE SKY

Well not exactly but it was music of Neal Diamond sung by Steve Ingram. I wish I had the names of the musician's and other singers as they were all awesome. It was a first class evening starting with the red roses given to the ladies as they entered. Every detail was well thought out from the decorations, programs, trivia questions, and personal acknowledgments of people in the audience, and closing with coffee and cookies. Neal Diamond fan or not it was good music non-stop for close to two hours. So thanks to Steve and his friends and all I can say is more, more, more and don't miss the next one.

BULLDOGS WIN AT THE END

With 10 seconds left in the Western basketball game at the Westminster Tournament in Salt Lake Friday.

Jake Owsley put in a baseline jumper and Western got a couple steals in the final seconds to come out on top 76-71 over Western State. That moves the Bulldogs to 4-1 to start the season on the inside courts. Western had led for most of the game until the last minute when Western State went ahead 71-70 with a long jumper.

Kris Castro and Jake Owsley each pull in a steal and a pair of free throws to seal the win for the Western men. Owsley ended the night with 23 points and 9 rebounds, Jordan Overstreet was 4 of 5 for 3-pointers and come up with 22 points.

WESTERN LADY BULLDOGS

The Western ladies stayed hot as Kaci Matthies put 19 points on the board and had 9 rebounds. Sammi Bignell assisted with 17 points as the Lady Bulldogs won over the college of Idaho 65 to 56.

The Bulldogs are now (4-0) to start their season. The team has been hot even if the shooting was cold for this game. Matthies was the only one to have better than 50% shooting from the floor. The ladies had 20 turnovers and 42 rebounds in the game. Western led this game at halftime 30-24.

KLAKKEN FOR MAYOR

Mike Klakken has all the experience necessary to be the next mayor of Dillon.

- The Montana Standard reported on 9/11/13 that the City of Deer Lodge needed a new wastewater treatment plant and 1.5 miles sewer trunk main and would cost $11.8 million.
- Funding was obtained from $500,000 Treasure State Endowment grant, $100,000 Depart. Of Natural Resources grant, $5.2 million Rural Development grant, $5.3 million Rural Development Loan, and $644,000 from the City's Reserve Fund.
- The Dillon Tribune reported on 3/27/13 that the City of Dillon accepted a bid of $4,939,152.50 to construct a new wastewater treatment plant. To finance this project the city bonded for $9 million and received $0 in grants. The rate payers began paying interest on the bonds in 2011 and the work began in 2013. The mayor stated that the project is $1 million under budget. This project will cost about $4 million. The city bonded for $5 million more than needed for this project. The rate payer will pay interest only until 2024 and, if the payment schedule is followed, the bond will not be paid off for 30 years. No prepayment is permitted for a number of years. I believe that following Deer Lodge's example would have saved the ratepayers millions of dollars and made the monthly sewer payment much less than it is today.

Vote Michael Klakken for Mayor and Return Your Ballot or Register to Vote at the Clerk and Recorder by Nov. 5
