BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA ~ A PROCLAMATION

On Veterans Day, America pauses to honor every service member who has ever worn one of our Nation's uniforms. Each time our country has come under attack, they have risen in her defense. Each time our freedoms have come under assault, they have responded with resolve. Through the generations, their courage and sacrifice have allowed our Republic to flourish. And today, a Nation acknowledges its profound debt of gratitude to the patriots who have kept it whole.

As we pay tribute to our veterans, we are mindful that no ceremony or parade can fully repay that debt. We remember that our obligations endure long after the battle ends, and we make it our mission to give them the respect and care they have earned. When America's veterans return home, they continue to serve our country in new ways, bringing tremendous skills to their communities and to the workforce -- leadership honed while guiding platoons through unbelievable danger, the talent to master cutting-edge technologies, the ability to adapt to unpredictable situations. These men and women should have the chance to power our economic engine, both because their talents demand it and because no one who fights for our country should ever have to fight for a job.

This year, in marking the 60th anniversary of the Korean War Armistice, we resolved that in the United States of America, no war should be forgotten, and no veteran should be overlooked. Let us always remember our wounded, our missing, our fallen, and their families. And as we continue our responsible drawdown from the war in Afghanistan, let us welcome our returning heroes with the support and opportunities they deserve.

Under the most demanding of circumstances and in the most dangerous corners of the earth, America's veterans have served with distinction. With courage, self-sacrifice, and devotion to our Nation and to one another, they represent the American character at its best. On Veterans Day and every day, we celebrate their immeasurable contributions, draw inspiration from their example, and renew our commitment to showing them the fullest support of a grateful Nation.

With respect for and in recognition of the contributions our service members have made to the cause of peace and freedom around the world, the Congress has provided (5 U.S.C. 6103(a)) that November 11 of each year shall be set aside as a legal public holiday to honor our Nation's veterans.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BARACK OBAMA, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim November 11, 2013, as Veterans Day. I encourage all Americans to recognize the valor and sacrifice of our veterans through appropriate public ceremonies and private prayers. I call upon Federal, State, and local officials to display the flag of the United States and to participate in patriotic activities in their communities.

I call on all Americans, including civic and fraternal organizations, places of worship, schools, and communities to support this day with commemorative expressions and programs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord two thousand thirteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and thirty-eighth.

BARACK OBAMA

GABRIEL'S FOUNDATION OF HOPE

The Montana DARE program and Gabriel's Foundation of HOPE announce a community event featuring motivational speaker and author, Gabe Murfitt, on Tuesday, November 12, 2013 at 7:00 pm at the Swysgood Technology Center (STC) Great Room on The University of Montana Western campus, Dillon, MT. The event is open to the public and there is no admission fee.

Gabe Murfitt is a twenty-three year old inspiring speaker who challenges his audiences to live with courage in the face of life's greatest adversities. Born with three-inch arms and standing a little over three-feet high, Gabe lives out his message, courageously sharing his experiences and reaching deep into the hearts of those who hear him speak. His uplifting story has been featured on The Oprah Winfrey Show, Good Morning America, and local news stations. He encourages audiences of all ages.

Gabe spoke to the students of western Montana in the fall of 2012 during Red Ribbon week. He is back to share more stories to encourage his audience that their goals are within REACH. He was very well received by the students. DARE is happy to offer this great opportunity to those interested in attending.

Tuesday, November 12, 2013 at 7:00 p.m. at the STC Great Room on the UM-Western Campus.

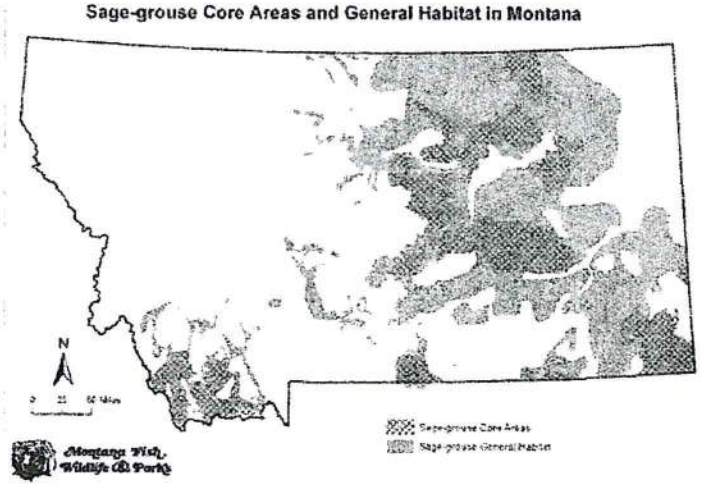
Wednesday: A public meeting we cannot afford to miss: Sage Grouse Public Meeting

If you live in or around Dillon, you're most likely someone who enjoys the unmatched access to the public land that surrounds us. Not only can we look at our vast mountain ranges and valleys, but for the most part, we can actually access them as we please. By living here, you're likely also someone who understands that public land is not only used for recreation. There are a growing number of exceptions to our access to public lands and one looming exception that is threatening to shut our access down is the potential listing of Sage Grouse to the Endangered Species List. Beaverhead County is almost entirely targeted as "habitat" for this species, and if listed, drastic measures could be made that would cut humans out of our forests, ranges and valleys (anywhere you find sagebrush).

Take a look at this map from the draft strategy. It gives you a good idea of the impact this threat holds for our area and the potential impact on economic development in Eastern Montana.



On Wednesday, November 13th, at 6:00 p.m., please plan on attending the public meeting on the "Draft Greater Sage-Grouse Habitat Conservation Strategy" at the UM-Western Lewis and Clark Room. This meeting is our area's opportunity to provide comments on the strategy and to provide regulators with important information on the impact that these measures will have on our community.

As a recreator, I generally use our public lands for ATV riding, hunting, camping and fishing. Increasingly, my ability to enjoy public land is deteriorating by signs that make very little sense to someone who is three-generations deep in Dillon. You and I know how to best manage our area, but we're not able to do it because overreaching mismanagement strategies from government agencies.

Let's be a part of this process to show the Federal government that we will handle the management of Sage Grouse in Montana. Your information, stories and experience will greatly enhance our effectiveness in doing this. Please, don't think someone else will represent you. Mark your calendar.

United Way Kicks Off 2014 Campaign

The United Way of Beaverhead County has officially kicked off its 2014 Campaign season. The campaign runs from November 1 to December 31, 2013. This year the goal was raised to $110,000 in order to meet the needs of more local organizations. "United Way is especially vital to Beaverhead County because we are the primary source of funding for many small organizations that are unable to fundraise independently," states Campaign Chairwoman Lauren Ellingson Johnson. "United Way goes beyond fundraising by researching the needs of the community and bringing the right resources and people together to solve tough local issues. It funds programs that are meeting people's needs today, and we are working on innovative solutions for lasting change."

In 2013 UWBC gave to over 40 non-profit organizations within the county. County residents should expect to see United Way information in their mailboxes and inserted in local news publications. All donations are tax deductible and can be designated to your favorite local non-profit.

For more information or to schedule a presentation at your workplace or organization, contact the United Way office at 683-4269, or unitedway@beaverhead.com. Donations can be mailed to PO Box 263, Dillon, MT 59725.

DILLON VOLLEYBALL WIN OVER ANACONDA

The Beavers (seeded fourth) hung on long enough to move up to the State tournament this weekend in Corvallis.

Dillon beat Hamilton 25-22, 12-25, 25-20, 22-25, 16-14 in the loser-out battle before their victory against the number 2 seeded Anaconda Copperheads 26-28, 25-14, 25-20, 17-25, 15-20.

Dillon lost the first straight set to the top team of the host Corvallis team.

They Beavers will have to face off against the top seed from the Central A division at 10 am in Bozeman next Thursday.

BEAVERS MOVE TO SEMIFINALS

The Dillon Beavers steamed over the Laurel Locomotives on Saturday 54-27 to go into next week and play in the semifinal round in Dillon against Belgrade Panthers Friday at 7:00 pm.

During this weekends game Dillon started with the first drive and mixed up many different run and pass plays to get points on the board. JD Ferris had a short run at the end to put six points on the board. The Beavers defense then stopped the Locomotives on their first drive and took over once again and that ended with Ferris getting a pass to Troy Scott for another 6 points. The next points for the Beavers came with Mick Paffhausen returning a punt 85-yards.

The points went up fast in the first half with three touchdowns in just 33 seconds coming off the clock.

The Locomotives saw a long pass down field from Tyler Thompson to Jonah Oberg for a catch and one of Dillon's few coverage errors to get them some points on the board. Then Paffhausen got a pass from Ferris and went 70 yards for another score to make it 27-6. With four minutes left Paffhausen pulled down another catch to shoot Dillon up 33-6. That wasn't all from the Beaver as Paffhausen had another long punt return and then a short pass from Ferris to go ahead 40-6 with a couple minutes left in the half. Then Laurel came back to score again after a little defense trouble with the Beavers team. There were many standouts in the game but the offensive player had to be Paffhausen who got the ball nine times and scored on six of those plays.
