MONTANA WESTERN STUDENT AWARDED ASM UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

The American Society for Microbiology has selected Michael Price from the University of Montana Western as a 2013 award recipient of the ASM Undergraduate Research Fellowship.

This fellowship is aimed at highly competitive students who wish to pursue graduate careers in microbiology. Fellows have the opportunity to conduct full time summer research at their institution with an ASM mentor and present their research results at the 114th ASM General Meeting in Boston, Mass., if their abstract is accepted.

Each fellow receives up to a $4,000 stipend, a two-year ASM student membership, and funding for travel expenses to the ASM Capstone Institute and 114th ASM General Meeting.

This year, 138 applications were received and thirty-seven were awarded. Of the 37 awardees, sixteen students are from research and doctoral granting universities and twenty-one students are from undergraduate and masters' granting institutions.

Dr. Michael Morrow from the University of Montana Western is Price's mentor. Price has worked in Morrow's lab for the last two and a half years. He is ultimately interested in pursuing a Ph.D. in applied microbiology or genetics.

The title of the research project is "Characterization of the SEC61 gene in the pathogenic yeast Candida albicans."

Price is the third student from Morrow's lab to receive this competitive fellowship. Previous students were Megan Janke who earned a Ph.D. in cell and molecular Biology at Washington University in St. Louis and Amanda Kortum who is attending a DVM/Ph.D. dual program at North Carolina State University.

The American Society for Microbiology, headquartered in Washington, DC, is the oldest and largest single biological membership organization, with over 37,000 members worldwide.

The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society

The Beaver Head Hunters Genealogical Society will hold their next meeting on Tuesday, 19 November at 7:00 pm in the Museum Research room. We all grew up with family holiday traditions. But when we marry, we sometimes drop them in preference for a spouse's tradition, or create new ones. A couple members have been asked to talk about some of their old and new holiday traditions, and as time permits, we will open it up for all members to share. As always, the public is invited.

Quote of the day by John Adams
Submitted by Chuck Dishno

"The nature of the encroachment upon American constitution is such, as to grow every day more and more encroaching. Like a cancer; it eats faster and faster every hour. The revenue creates pensioners, and the pensioners urge for more revenue. The people grow less steady, spirited and virtuous, the seekers more numerous and more corrupt, and every day increases the circles of their dependents and expectants, until virtue, integrity, public spirit, simplicity and frugality become the objects of ridicule and scorn, and vanity, luxury, foppery, selfishness, meanness, and downright venality swallow up the whole of society." --John Adams, to the Inhabitants of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, 1775

Five Generations Celebrate

United Way Kicks Off 2014 Campaign

The United Way of Beaverhead County has officially kicked off its 2014 Campaign season. The campaign runs from November 1 to December 31, 2013. This year the goal was raised to $110,000 in order to meet the needs of more local organizations. "United Way is especially vital to Beaverhead County because we are the primary source of funding for many small organizations that are unable to fundraise independently," states Campaign Chairwoman Lauren Ellingson Johnson. "United Way goes beyond fundraising by researching the needs of the community and bringing the right resources and people together to solve tough local issues. It funds programs that are meeting people's needs today, and we are working on innovative solutions for lasting change."

In 2013 UWBC gave to over 40 non-profit organizations within the county. County residents should expect to see United Way information in their mailboxes and inserted in local news publications. All donations are tax deductible and can be designated to your favorite local non-profit.

For more information or to schedule a presentation at your workplace or organization, contact the United Way office at 683-4269, or unitedway@beaverhead.com. Donations can be mailed to PO Box 263, Dillon, MT 59725.

MSU-NORTHERN ADVANCES TO SEMI-FINALS OF VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

The top-seeded Montana State-Northern Skylights advanced to the semi-finals of the 2013 Frontier Conference Volleyball Tournament with a 3-0 (25-20, 29-27, 25-15) victory over the eighth seeded Montana Western Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs scored first in the matches' first set and stayed closed to Northern early. With the set tied at four, the Skylights' Erin Jensen scored a kill which ignited a 7-0 Northern run. The Bulldogs made mini-runs but could get no closer than four as Northern won the first set.

Set two was hard-fought and close from the opening serve. There were eight ties with neither team leading by more than one. There were ties at 24, 25, 26, and 27 before the Skylights sealed with win with a kill by Abby Nicholas and a hitting error by Western.

The Bulldogs stayed close in the third set never trailing by more than four midway through the set. Western pulled to within two 14-12 before the Skylights took over going on 11-3 run for the set and match victory.

Conference Player of the Year Abby Nicholas led Northern with 18 kills followed by Kelsey Williams with 17. The Skylights out Montana Western .294 to .193. Williams led the Skylights defensively with 19 digs followed by 13 from Holly Cartwright.

Brianne Kelley led Western with 10 kills and nine digs. Kendra Mendicino had 21 digs for the Bulldogs.

Montana State-Northern improves to 25-5 overall and will now face Westminster College Saturday morning at 11. Montana Western ends their season with an 11-23 record.

Operation Christmas Child
The First Presbyterian Church of Dillon is holding their annual 'Operation Christmas Child' shoe box ministry until Thursday, Nov. 21, 2013. Pastor David Andrew will bless the returned packed shoe boxes on Sunday, November 17. However, you are welcome to turn your packed shoe boxes in to First Presbyterian as late as November 21.

Each shoe box will be delivered to a child in need of hope somewhere in the world. 2013 is the 20-year celebration of Samaritan's Purse in distributing gift-filled boxes.

There are supplies, instructions and suggestions on what to pack in your box at the church. Office hours are Monday to Friday from 9 a.m. until 12 noon. (For more information go to samaritanaspurse.org) You can make a difference in a child's life by bringing hope to them at Christmas.
