Trees Bring People Downtown

Street trees are making downtown Dillon, Montana a destination, according to 20-year resident Tery Hursh.

Businesses and civic organizations in the 4,132-person town have joined with the Dillon Tree Board to plant trees and enhance the landscaping along Atlantic Street in the downtown business corridor.

City leaders see the new trees as an example of how the expertise and commitment of the Tree Board has shown the city the value of trees, while adding vibrancy and foot traffic to the downtown corridor.

"I hear positive comments every week from patients about the beauty that the trees have brought to downtown," says Tery, who works in the area.

Citizen participation helped make the transformation happen. In one weekend, more than 20 volunteers transformed that downtown street.

Funding for the trees was provided by a grant from Montana's Urban and Community Forestry Program. Were it not for this critical support, visitors and residents would lose out on the benefits of street trees in town's main commercial district.

"The trees have brought beauty, slowed erosion and made the community safer," Tery adds.

Thomas Straugh, Board Vice President
 Patricia Hayes

Santa's Helpers has recognized a growing need in our community for assistance for senior citizens by opening a Senior Giving Tree at Bicentennial Apartments. This tree is intended to provide gifts to senior citizens who otherwise would not be receiving gifts from others. If you or someone you know wants to apply for a gift tag, please call or go to the Bicentennial Apartments for an application, applications will also be available in the dayroom. All applications are anonymous. For information please contact Bicentennial Apartments at 683-2727 or stop in at 76 West Center Street.

The anonymous tag will be used to unite the gift with the requesting senior. The applications must be returned to Bicentennial Apartments by December 6th. The gifts will be delivered by December 20th.

If you wish to help by buying a gift, please come to Bicentennial Apartments and take a tag off of the tree located in the dayroom. Bring the wrapped gift and tag back to the Bicentennial office. The giving tree is accessible 7:00am to 9:00 pm.

This is the second year of the Senior Giving Tree. Please help us make it a success again this year and make Christmas brighter for the seniors in our community.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Day After

LaVon D. Brillhart

Tis the day after Thanksgiving

Christmas songs for the last month they have been singing

All my cousins, aunts, uncles, sisters, brothers came for the day
As usual in an hour there was a great big fray

Old Uncle Cecil came with his third trophy wife
Can't say much no word to rhyme with wife, except knife

My Sister and her lazy husband came from out of town
As usual he was obnoxious and wore his famous frown

Grandpa Bill said it's time to break bread
Just look at the table and the big spread

Grandpa Bill then said the blessing
But kept one eye on the turkey and dressing

We all then began to smile and eat
The turkey was dry and tasted like concrete

Cousin Louie drank all my whiskey and beer
Glad he won't be back until next year

We all had our share of pumpkin pie
Uncle Fred had more then his supply

Just couldn't wait for them all to leave
But I know they will be back on Christmas Eve

Now the house is dirty the kitchen a mess
Had to go to the Doctor to get rid of my stress
I know for the last thirty years this has been the routine
But next year the hell with them all, I'm going to Dairy Queen.

Beaverhead Search and Rescue

Press Release

December 2, 2013

On November 30th, at 9:51 P.M., Beaverhead 911 received a call from Kristi Minor in Dell, reporting her husband Charles Burlingham and their 5 year old daughter overdue from a hunting trip. Minor said that Burlingham went hunting in the Sage Creek area north and east of Dell, Montana. She had not heard from him since 2:00 PM. and he was not prepared for staying out in the weather. They had no food, water, and no shovel or chains

Beaverhead Search and Rescue managers were paged and an overhead team determined that the membership be dispatched for a search in Sage Creek. Beaverhead Search and Rescue responded to the area with 20 personal, 10 four-wheeled vehicles including pickups and all-terrain vehicles and searched throughout the night without locating Burlingham's vehicle. At daylight an air search was launched with 1 fixed wing from the Dillon Flying Service and a helicopter from Summit Air Ambulance.

At 9:10 A.M. on Sunday, December 1st, the fixed wing aircraft located the Burlingham truck off- road near the head of Burnt Willow Creek. The truck appeared to be stuck in a snowdrift at over 7300 feet elevation. A few minutes later the helicopter crew reported a man and child walking. Summit Air landed and identified the two as the overdue party. The Summit crew checked both individuals out and transported them to Dillon where they were reunited with their family.

All Search and Rescue members were recalled from the field and returned to their home base by 11:00 A.M. on December 1st. Over 290 man-hours were used in the successful rescue of the hunting party.
