Sherry Dennett Stallman 55

On Friday December 6th, 2013 we lost our beloved wife, sister, aunt, mother and grandmother. Sherry Dennett Stallman age 55. She lived in Wise River with her beloved husband Van Stallman of 23 years. She passed away at the Barrett Memorial Hospital in Dillon where she was diagnosed with terminal bone and lung cancer on the 19th of November. She was able to come home for a short time over Thanksgiving to spend time with her loving family. Sherry was born on November 12th, 1958 in California to Tiny and Robert Odom. She was one of eight children.

She had four children Shawna, Crystal, and twins John and Jason. She moved to Montana, met the love of her life and married Van Stallman July 28th 1990 and then moved to Wise River. She gained four more children from this marriage. Veva, Kristi, Sam, and Dan.

Sherry graduated from high school and had many jobs in her life. She and Van owned the Wise River Club for years and worked together. Most recent she was a Watkins distributor and helped run gun shows with Van. She lived in California for most of her life and also resided in Oregon and Rhode Island. At the time of her death she was living in Wise River. She enjoyed gardening and had beautiful flowers in her yard during the summer and was great at growing vegetables in the short Wise River summers. She was one of the best cooks around. She cooked food for the gun shows and was greatly missed when she did not. She would always make sure that people who had nowhere to go for the holidays either came to her house or she would take food to them. Her children and grandchildren were always begging her to cook birthday dinners for them. Recently she got in to cake decorating and then became the cake maker for each of the birthdays that she was also cooking dinner for. She loved doing latch hooks rugs. Gun shows and Watkins have been her passion for the last 10 years. Some of the most significant times in her life where when her and Van got to spend time with their family. Grandchildren seem to always be hanging around. She was always helping them with art, school activities, cooking, growing things, and was always appreciative of the help that they gave her during the gun shows and serving food. With all her kids being grown her and Van always had dogs at home that they treated just like kids. Never would you see her without the dogs tagging along at gun shows and trips.

She was preceded in death by her Mother and Step Father Tiny and Jim, Brother in law Kevan May, Cousin Tanya Brown and one grandchild.

She was survived by her husband Van Stallman, Sister in Law Vicky Stallman, Sister Cindy, six other siblings, Children Shawna and Matt Meinke, Crystal Hunt and Michelle, John and Michelle Hunt, Jason Hunt, Veva and Sean Larson, Kristi and Duane Gregor, Sam Sampson, and Dan and Misty

Thank you!

I would like to thank everyone who participated in Operation Christmas Child/ Christmas Shoe Boxes. Each group, church, or individual. Whether you filled a box, donated something, or helped financially. You are each a part of bringing love to a child at Christmas and it carries through their whole life. Thank you!

I would personally like to thank each and everyone of you who have supported me and encouraged me in this passion of mine for the last nineteen years; the last 8 in my hometown of Dillon! Especially Joe & Brenda Morstein, all the Beany Babies so each child would have a cuddly toy. Carter & Lori Butori, Marty & Ellie Cooksey, Bill & Dixie Cottom, Larry & Darleen Link, Annie & Randy Rorabaugh, Peggy & Mike Coleman, Gisela Hildreth & Mary Sporich for all your financial help. Coach Nourse and the Western Sports team (40 boxes this year) and the Nourses & Chance Bernall for paying the shipping! The Vineyard Church & Day Spring Mission in Sheridan & B.J. Diel! You all rang out the true meaning of Christmas - love and sharing! Thanks to each of you - everyone! Coy & I took 254 boxes to Bozeman. A special thank you to everyone who saved boxes for me all year - Tom & Phyllis Welch and crew at Pioneer Bank. If I missed anyone please forgive me and thank you!

Merry Christmas. Mary Beardon

Gary Lundy reading at The Bookstore

Gary Lundy is well known in Dillon, where he was an English Professor at Montana Western. He was instrumental in establishing the Creative Writing Minor in the English Department, and served on three separate occasions as Department Chair.

When voices detach themselves continues Lundy's engagement with language as it contributes to the fragmentation of human experience. As one editor put it: "Gary Lundy's prose poetry...is not merely a tale of thwarted desire or longing but an experiential tour of what it means to yearn for something directly at the moment of yearning. Cut-off thoughts and strong colors present a kaleidoscopic view." —The Prague Revue.

These are poems that serve as a warning against complacency, poems that call into question the lyric sensibility with its urge to claim primary ownership over experience. Poems that quietly call into question one's position in an ever changing physical and emotional landscape.

Lundy's poetry has appeared in a variety of magazines and journals including most recently: My Favorite Bullet, Cedilla, Indefinite Space, The Prague Revue, Assaracus, and Otoliths.

Born and raised in Colorado, Lundy has taught at SUNY-Oswego in New York, St. Paul's College in Virginia, and Montana Western, and was a working scholar at Breadloaf Writers' Conference in Vermont. He received his B.A. from the University of Colorado and his M.A and Ph.D. in English from Binghamton University in New York. He now lives in Missoula, Montana.

The event will take place at The Bookstore, Friday, December 13th, from 6:00-8:00 pm. Reading is scheduled to take place at 6:30. (there will be a short break during the Parade of Lights) If you have any questions please call us at 683-6807.

2013 MONTANA NEIGHBOR AWARD
NOMINATIONS SOUGHT

Once again, a group of Montana-based organizations is seeking nominations for the Montana Neighbor Awards.

The awards give recognition to landowners who go the extra mile to work collaboratively with their neighbors and to enhance the sense of community that makes Montana the special place it is.

The Montana Neighbor group includes Artemis Common Ground, The Nature Conservancy of Montana, Montana Farm Bureau, Montana Council of Trout Unlimited, Montana Association of Land Trusts, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks, and the Office of the Governor. Award criteria include: cooperation, neighborly land access, land stewardship and conservation ethic, and community leadership.

An awards committee comprised of the founding organizations will review nominations and select award recipients, who will receive specially-printed and framed Montana Neighbor Award certificates signed by the members of the awards committee and by Montana Governor Steve Bullock.

Nominations must be received by Jan. 1, 2014. Send nominations to: Montana Neighbor Awards, C/O Betty Warren; Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks; P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620-0701, or email to: betwarren@mt.gov.

MONTANA NEIGHBOR AWARDS®:

2013 NOMINATION FORM

Purpose:

Montana Neighbor Awards gives recognition to landowners who go the extra mile through collaborative efforts to enhance our Montana sense of community. Our mission is to promote the on-the-ground reality of being a good Montana neighbor in a time of transition in our state.

Nomination Process:

Nominations shall be submitted in writing, and shall include a summary of two typed pages or less, describing why the person is being nominated, including specific reference to the Award Criteria, below. (Nominations will also be considered for landowner and ranch managers as a "team", where working together they meet the criteria below.)

Nominations must include the name, address, telephone number, and email, if any, of the person making the nomination, and the same information concerning the person(s) being nominated.

Award Criteria:

The following categories will be used by the Awards Committee to rank nominees:

Cooperation: Displays high degree of collaboration with neighbors, watershed groups and local and statewide conservation organizations. Maintains cooperative relations with state or federal agencies such as Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks, United States Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management, National Parks Service, US Fish and Wildlife Service, agricultural extension services, Undaunted Stewardship and/or other conservation interests working in Montana.

Neighborly Land Access: Does not require a fee for recreational access,* and makes land available to the public for lawful activities through a variety of methods ranging from granting permission to those who respectfully ask, to participation in Block Management, to enabling access to mentored youth programs or programs for the disabled, etc.

*Access for fishing, hunting, hiking, and/or bird-watching, etc.

Land Stewardship/Conservation Ethic: Engages in high quality land stewardship practices, including but not limited to excellence in range management, soil conservation techniques, combating invasive weeds, maintaining healthy streamflows, managing for rangeland and forest health, biological diversity and healthy fish and wildlife habitat. Habitat values include, but are not limited to, protecting riparian zones, water quality, and streamflows. Participates in long-term conservation strategies such as conservation easements or voluntary watershed drought plans that conserve habitat for future generations.

Community Leadership: Participates actively in the local community on issues affecting landowner and non-landowner relations, and in public or collaborative forums where issues affecting Montana's tradition of neighborliness are resolved.

Submitting Nominations:

Nominations can be sent by email to: Betwarren@mt.gov, or by regular mail to:

Montana Neighbor Awards
c/o Betty Warren
Montana FWP
PO Box 200701
Helena, MT 59620.

If sending by email, request confirmation of receipt to be sure your nomination has been received.

Nominations must be received by November 27, 2013.

Award Certificates:

Framed award certificates will be presented to each winner. Certificates shall be high quality and personalized, and shall be signed by the Award Committee members and by the Governor of Montana.

Awards Committee Membership:

Artemis Common Ground, Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks, The Nature Conservancy of Montana, Montana Association of Land Trusts, Montana Council of Trout Unlimited, Montana Farm Bureau, and the office of the Governor.
