Richard (Dick) McNee 1935-2013

Richard (Dick) McNee passed away peacefully at home on December 12. Dick was born January 16, 1935 in Rigby, Idaho. He was first born of twin boys to parents Dean C. and Myrtle McNee. He grew up on the family farm in St. Anthony, Idaho where learned skills that he would use for a lifetime. Upon graduating from high school he camp tended a band of sheep in the Teton Peaks for the summer. He then moved to Montana where he worked as a cowhand in and around the Horse Prairie area. He met Lorna Simpson in Armstead, Mt. He was then drafted into the Army where he joined the 101st airbourne and served as a medic. Upon discharge from the military he returned to Montana and married Lorna Simpson. They worked on the Barrett ranch in Horse Prairie.

In 1965 they had a daughter. They then went to Firth Idaho and helped his father on the farm. In 1970 a son was born. In 1971 they moved to Dillon Montana and bought a ranch. They had many great times on the ranch until 1995. He then worked in the timber, construction, and for various ranches. He retired in 2010. He spent the rest of his days caring for his family and numerous animals, that had always been his great passion.

He is survived by his wife, Lorna, daughter Arlene Owen, son Robert McNee, granddaughter Chelsea Owen, grandson Tanner Owen, twin brother Dean, brother Steve, sister Judy Sealey, numerous bother and sister-inlaws, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Services will be held December, 20th at 2:00pm at Brundage Funeral Home. A guestbook is available on-line at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Letter to the Editor

Since the religions of Humanist Secularism (The Supreme Court of the United States in July of 1961) and Atheism (the courts in 2005), have in general taken over the school systems of the country, along with TV, the movies, Military and news media, (without much objection from Christians) and Jesus the Christ is no longer allowed to be mentioned in His celebration, I can not in good conscience wish everyone a Merry Christmas. All I can do is paraphrase the words of Joshua; I do not know what course you may choose to take but for me I will serve the LORD!

DRIFT GALLERY ANGEL TREE

It is that time of year again for everyone to remember the ANGEL TREE at the Drift Gallery. The Angel Tree isn't a normal giving tree this tree is what we call a tree of need. Every name on the tree is asking for things that the children are needy. These little angels are asking for coats, clothing, bedding and hats, gloves ect. This maybe the only time of the year that these children receive new clothing or have the chance to receive bedding. The tags on the tree give the information, you pick the angel that interest you check the angel out and bring the gift back in. The Drift is located on 12 South Idaho (between Patagonia and the Dillon Liquor Store). For more information call Lily at 683-3456. Come in and help a child believe. We have a record number of kids this year.

Bronco Football & Stabbings:

By: MJ

It has been reported that three people were involved in the stabbing following the Bronco game & possibly one more. All involved were conscious and communicating with authorities. Police spokesman reported that the people involved in the stabbings after the Bronco football game Saturday night may or may not have attended the game.

It is becoming a common occurrence to go to a public place and have attacks happen; recent example "Black Friday". We read about this type of behavior in other countries and think it is not happening in America. Not so -- The "knock out game," attacks on innocent unsuspecting children in schools, shooting in malls, murdering family members and the list goes on, is happening in America every day.

Years gone by people would reach out and give a hitch hiker a helping hand by stopping and giving them a ride. Today more often than not we drive on by without stopping. People were grateful for the ride. They were not mad because they had to ask for the ride -- not mad because someone had a car to drive and they did not -- no they just were thankful someone stopped to help them get to their destination.

How did apathy invade our society to the point it has poisoned America.

of my fellow veterans have vowed that no other generation of veterans will be forgotten. We will never turn our backs on another generation of veterans. "Thanks for your service" became a tangible recognition when we prepared and served a full holiday meal to the National Guard units who were in Dillon for their December drills.

On December 7 American Legion Post 20 hosted the following Montana National Guard units at the Armory; Detachment 1 1063rd SMC, Detachment 2 1063rd SMC and the Montana Medical Detachment. Turkey, ham, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, stuffing, green beans and all the fixings were prepared and served to all Guard personnel on site. Forty-two members of the usual units including the medical team present to conduct physicals were thanked for their service with a holiday dinner.

Many people helped with the planning, procurement, preparation and serving. Local Montana National Guard and drilling folks provided the dressing, salads, coffee, rolls, juice and desserts. Steve Morehouse provided able leadership to keep the project on track. Turkeys were donated by Steven Doner, Jim Keef, and Dick Stephen-Hassard and Tom Straugh brought a ham. Jim Watkins helped with the thawing so that the birds were all ready to cook the day before they were served. Cooks included Harvey and Doug Frank, Dale McKnight, Steve Esquibel, Steve Morehouse, Mike Lansing and Tom Straugh. Chaplain Reese Hamar offered a prayer of thanks and remembrance for all members of the military service, past and present. Youth Challenge Cadets helped with the setup, serving and kitchen police activities. Their energy helped the crew of older men carry out their mission. Thank you to you all and those I may
