Michael Stewart Zink

Michael was born September 14, 1973 in Helena, Montana. He passed away on December 18, 2013 in Hot Springs, Arkansas after a protracted illness and complications from cancer.

Michael was preceded in death by his mother, Marian Vardalis Zink, his Uncle Jim (Adele) Zink, his Aunt Carol Shafer, Aunt Gay-Lee Zink, Grandparents Esther and Paul Zink, and George and Julia McDonald.

Michael, (Stew as he was known by his closest and beloved friends), attended Dillon schools and graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1992. While in high school, Michael was a member of the State Championship Speech and Drama team. Michael had a beautiful singing voice and was a member of the Men's Ensemble as a senior in high school. Michael's passion was acting and working in theater production. He was exceptionally gifted in those areas. He acted in several theater productions in Dillon, and was involved in theater productions in Atlanta, Georgia as well.

Michael joined the Navy after high school, and then attended the University of Montana in Missoula. He lived and worked in Missoula, Montana; Las Vegas, Nevada; Livingston, Montana; Atlanta, Georgia; and Little Rock, Arkansas. Michael loved camping and hiking in the mountains around Dillon. He had a special soft spot in his heart for animals, especially cats. He loved science fiction movies and was an avid reader. He also enjoyed a good spirited philosophical discussion.

Michael never met a stranger and was loved by everyone he met. He accepted everyone equally and people from all walks of life remember Michael's wit, charm and exceptional sense of humor. Michael especially loved adventure and new experiences, and could always be counted on to come up with creative ways to have fun. Michael was always the life of the party and the person that everyone wanted to know.

Michael is survived by his parents Dale and Marion Zink, Uncles Jack (Betty) Zink and Ed (Karen) Zink, Aunt May Beth (John) Breen, siblings Liz Zink, Peggy (Jim) Murphy, Karen Kaiser (Jake Zink), Carolyn (Joey) Yenesel, Dennis (Brenda) Kaiser, Deborah (David) Neves, and his beloved nephew, River Nichols, as well as numerous cousins and

Michael had many people especially dear to his heart, the "family" he developed through his life, Jonathan Tatus, David Keith, Tobiann Jones Springer, Matt Findley, Dakon Scott, and Mary Frances O'Connor, just to name a few. Keep the Party Off the Road: Drive Sober or Get Pulled Over

Drunk driving is a killer on the roads all year round, but data shows that the tradition of celebrating the holidays with alcohol leads to an increase of traffic crashes and resulting deaths and injuries.

From Dec. 13, 2013, through Jan. 1, 2014, state and local law enforcement will be out in force cracking down on drunk drivers.

Nationwide, the holiday season is a particularly deadly time due to the high number of drunk drivers on the roads. In 2011, 760 people lost their lives as a result of drunk-driving-related crashes during the month of December.

During the Decembers from 2007 to 2011 there were 4,169 people killed in crashes that involved drivers with a blood alcohol concentrations of .08 grams per deciliter or higher.

According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 32,367 people were killed in motor vehicle traffic crashes in 2011, and 31 percent (9,878) of those fatalities occurred in drunk-driving-related crashes.

Drinking and driving endangers yourself, your passengers, and those on the road around you. Whether you've had one or one too many, always hand the keys to a sober driver.

Dillon couple charged with felony poaching; 15 others cited

A Dillon couple and 15 of their friends and relatives have been charged with poaching crimes after a sweeping investigation revealed they illegally harvested dozens of animals over the past decade.

Charles "Bill" Foster and his wife, Sally, will make their initial appearance Thursday in Dillon district court. Authorities say they poached more than 20 deer and elk over the course of four hunting seasons and possessed more than 65 game fish over the limit.

The charges cap a year-long undercover investigation into the couple and their friends that combed evidence stretching back to 2003. Wildlife officials say the Fosters routinely harvested more than their hunting tags allowed, or allowed out-of-state visitors to shoot deer using their tags.

"Given the volume of game animals and fish unlawfully taken, this is a fairly serious matter," said Jim Kropp, the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife and Parks top law enforcement official.

The Fosters could not be reached for comment Wednesday, and their lawyer, David Vicevich of Butte, declined to comment.

Bill Foster is charged with six counts of felony possession of game animals, one count of felony tampering with evidence, three counts of misdemeanor unlawful possession of game animals, and one count of misdemeanor unlawful possession of game fish.

Sally Foster is charged with six counts of felony possession of game animals, three counts of misdemeanor unlawful possession of game animals, one count of misdemeanor unlawful possession of game fish, and one count of misdemeanor fishing without a license.

The Fosters possessed 23 illegally harvested deer and elk since 2007, wildlife officials said, and are charged with other misdemeanors for deer poached before 2007.

The couple could face jail time, fines and a loss of hunting privileges. Kropp said Montana is one of the few states that will send people to prison for poaching, and that the state takes poaching seriously.

"In Montana there's a lot of public resources," Kropp said. "It's a destination station for people who want to hunt."

An affidavit filed in the Dillon district court showed that Bill Foster bragged to undercover agents about some of the poaching, telling one agent "this'll get a guy in trouble" while showing a photo of approximately 15 rainbow trout on a counter top. Later in the document, he bragged about illegally killing a spike bull elk.

Bill Foster is also charged with one count of felony tampering with evidence, stemming from an incident Nov. 24, 2012, when investigators were searching the Foster residence in Dillon. Officials say he removed a memory card that contained hunting photos from a camera. After being asked by investigators to furnish the card, he told the wardens he had flushed the memory card down the toilet because it contained nude pictures of a female neighbor. He later admitted he actually hid the memory card in a roll of toilet paper.

Others charged with various misdemeanor game violations in connection with the Fosters include Daniel Foster of Fort Worth, Texas; his wife, Kimberly, also of Fort Worth; William "Billy" Foster, of Pittsburgh, Kan.; Pelham "Monty" Turner, of Superior; Brett Messer of Argonia, Kan.; Mary Krystine Messer, his wife, also of Argonia; Stephen Skinner, of Helena; Jeff Lindeman, of Kelso, Wash.; Richard Lindeman, of Kelso, Wash.; Daniel Townsend, of Vancouver, Wash.; Irvin Sheriff, of Maple, Wash.; William Sheriff, of Maple, Wash.; Tyson Lindeman, of Kelso, Wash.; William Keene, of Poulsbo, Wash.; and James Southam, of Dillon.

Fines and restitution required of these people tops $20,000 as well as loss of hunting, fishing and trapping privileges in some cases for two years.

CITY HAPPENINGS

By Lynn Westad

Council called to order by Mayor Marty Malesich at 7:00. Members present David Spehar, Council President, Bob Cottom, Lynn Westad, Derek. Gore, Dan Nye, Harvey Lake.

This was the last meeting of the year so the agenda had reports on budget and investments updating the council and for the transition at the first of the year. A motion was done to appoint Ty Cobb to continue his participation with Headwaters R C & D. This is a valuable resource for the City to have representation could benefit the city in many ways. The vote was 5 yes and Dan Nye & Harvey Lake No. Task Order Number 7 is for our engineer to explore and find a location for city well #5. The state approval of a water well takes a long time and starting now will allow the city to be prepared for water demands in the future. It was approved unanimously. Task Number 8 was on the Beaverhead River Pipe Crossing project and it also was approved unanimously. As well as taking care of today's issues your elected representatives have to look forward into the future for city needs.

The biggest project and decision was the sewer lagoon. We were forced by new mandates to do a new lagoon or face steep fines. Environmental m\mandates will continue in the future and with some conversion this lagoon may allow us to get off the river completely. Then the city is a free of the mandate problem forever. There were many sleepless nights on the increases to the water bill and we know it is hard, but rates had not been increased in years and are still lower than many cities of the same size.

An ordinance regarding parking in Dillon was updated. The major change was putting a 10 mile per hour speed limit in alleys. With pedestrians and other activity in alleys it is very dangerous to be going any faster. Clarification was done on other parking requirements. Most are what we learned when we starting driving so just follow the driving rules and you will have no problem. Correcting the street sweeping districts day and times was also done. If you do receive a citation the fine is now $25.00.

Michael Mhoon was appointed to the Library Board. There were no committees reports from committees. The committee structure has been changed so after the first of the year there will be only 6 committees instead of 8 and we hope that will be a more efficient and effective way to get city work done.

It has been a productive year for the City and it is with a bit of sadness that we adjourn this last meeting and say goodbye to Mayor Malesich. He is thanked for his 12 years service and I am sure he will continue to be active in the community.

So in January we will welcome the new Mayor Mike Klakken and the Council current members and the newly elected are all dedicated to be proactive and continue to work hard for the citizens of Dillon. I have tried to bring you information on what is happening in the city government and will continue so in the New Year. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Lost

Recently lost a chain containing mementos covering 40years of my life. May have been lost in vicinity of city Library, State Bank or the little Town Pump. Chain contains my father's WWII dog tag (Clarence Speich), mother's wedding band, serenity prayer, silver cross, angel penny, graduation cap, plus other charms. If found, please contact Cathy Speich-Ferguson 406-925-1994
